CECIL ITIMS

Bob Pope has gone to Snake river for a few weeks.

Emil Swanson and family did business in Cecil Thursday.

Leon Logan and brother Boyd were lone visitors Saturday.

J. W. Osborn and H. J. Street-er were lone visitors Monday.

A. Henriksen and Herb Hynd were Arlington visitors Saturday.

Oscar Jefferson, from Heppner, visited with his brother Winton Sunday last.

Mrs. W. Wilson of Heppner is visiting with her son Robbie at Rhea Siding.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess and daughter of Colfax, Wash., were Cecil visitors Wednesday.

Miss Aileen Briesly, from Wash-ington, is visiting with Carl Farnsworth near Rhea Siding.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nash re-turned from the mountains Thurs- day. They reported a good time and lots of rain.

Mrs. A. Henriksen of the Wil- low Creek ranch left Sunday to spend a few days in and around Portland with friends.

Archie Ellis came down from the Hager ranch Thursday to help with the third crop of alfalfa hay on the Minor ranch.

Miss Doris Mahoney, who has been visiting with M. S. Hynd for the last few weeks, left for her home in Heppner Tuesday.

Mrs. Jack Hynd entertained some of her young friends at a card party Monday evening, the honor guests being the Misses Helen Barrett and Doris Mahoney.

Clyde Franklin, accompanied by Miss Edith Waddell of Lens, was visiting his old friends in and around Cecil and saying good-bye before leaving for Ne- vada.

Whitley Ewing, one of the draftees from this county, left for Camp Lewis last Tuesday. Whit has many friends around Cecil who wish him good luck and a safe return.

Walter Morris and son of Be- atrice, Neb., who are on an auto trip to Eugene, Ore., remarked that the view down the creek from Cecil of all the stacks of hay on the Minor and Hynd ranches was the best they had seen on the journey.

W. H. Cronk and E. Glynn, of Ione, were down as far as Rhea Siding taking pictures of Carl Farnsworth's new house, the lumber for which was furnished by the Tumalum Co. of Ione. Mr. Cronk also called upon his friend T. A. Lowe at Cecil on Sunday.

A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller by a host of their friends Saturday evening on the 25th anniversary of their wedding. They were married at Sylvan, Ore., Aug. 20, 1893, and have lived in this vicinity for the last 17 years, where they have won the respect of a large circle of friends. Mr. Miller owns a fine wheat ranch and recently built a new house fitted with the latest improvements. A sumptuous supper was provided by the visitors at midnight, and all present cordially joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Miller the best of health and prosperity in their new home. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents from the following: Geo. A. Mil- ler, case of silver knives and forks; Alvin Miller (son) pickle dish; Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson, Battle Ground, silver bread tray and silver spoon tray; Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Richfield, sil- ver cream spoon; Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, Vancouver, case of silver pie forks; Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams, silver orange spoon; Mrs. Bennett, silver pickle fork; Mrs. Peter Nash, china plate. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nash, salad dish; Mrs. Hynd, picture; Mrs. Boyd Logan, silver sugar spoon; Minnie H. Lowe, hand painted cream and sugar bowl; Mrs. T. H. Lowe, sofa cushion, and many others which space forbids men- tioning.

Lambs Being Good Price.

D. O. Justus has purchased 1000 head of lambs from Bruce Kelley and 2000 head from C. A. Minor the price being, so it is understood, $10 per head. Mr. Justus bought the stock for his own ranch.

Rainy weather has hindered har- vest operations to a considerable extent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek are spending their vacation at Eugene and at the coast.
