

New Store! New Goods!

I have just opened up my

New Stock of Millinery On Main Street

Opposite Haylor's Jewelry Store

I will carry a complete stock of

Millinery, Corsets and Toilet Articles

—AGENCY—

Victor Ladies' Tailoring Co., Henderson, La Princess and Gossard Corsets. Maurice Toilet Articles

MRS. L. G. HERREN

Lines That Lead

Superior Grain Drills
Canton and McCormick Disc Harrows
Success Fan Mills
Moline and Vulcan Gang Plows
Universal and Penninsular Ranges

FOR SALE BY

PEOPLES' HDW. CO.

Home Products for Home People!

WE MANUFACTURE

White Star Flour, Whole Wheat,
Graham, Cream Middlings,
Roll Barley and all Mill Feeds

GENERAL STORAGE AND FORWARDING

HEPPNER FARMERS ELEVATOR CO.

Now Lay in Your Now Year's Coal

Uncle Sam says buy it now
while the buying is good.
You are sure to get it now,
but not in the WINTER.

TUM-A-LUM
Lumber Company

See Lew at Lexington and Bill at Ione

Send Us Your Orders for PRINTING

ALL OVER MORROW COUNTY

Interesting News Letters from Herald's
Corps of "Live Ones."

IONE ITEMS

Mrs. Pete Beymer was down from Lexington Monday.

Reo and Mrs. Jones of Lexington were in Ione Friday.

J. T. Knappenburg was down from Heppner Sunday.

Earl Blake left Saturday to return to his ship at Newport News, Va.

Bert Mason returned Saturday from a short business trip to Portland.

Miss Gwendolyn Jones was a Lexington bound passenger on Tuesday evening's train.

T. S. Bender left for Colfax, Wash. Monday morning after a two weeks business visit in Ione.

Mrs. Louis Cason returned to Ione Saturday morning after a few days' visit in Heppner.

A ten pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nealie White of Lexington Tuesday morning at Mrs. Jordan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray returned to Ione Tuesday morning from a ten day visit in Portland and Drain, Oregon.

Mrs. Frank Hopkins, who is a teacher in the Hardman school, was a visitor at the Perry Hopkins home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Kenneth Blake left Thursday morning for Eugene, Oregon, to be near her husband who is training in the S. A. T. C. at the University.

Harold Dobyns arrived from the Naval training camp at Seattle, Washington, Saturday evening to spend a thirty day furlough with his mother, Mrs. H. M. Olden.

Ray Drake, of Eightmile, was an Ione caller on Tuesday. Mr. Drake has recently moved from the E. R. Lundell place to the Claus Johnson ranch near the Idea school.

Louis Padberg returned from Portland Thursday. He went back again Monday to get his family, who will return to the ranch near Lexington until the Portland schools are reopened.

Mrs. Mary E. Young, who has spent the summer with her son Frank near Ione, left Saturday for Portland where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hindle during the coming winter.

J. L. Hughes is in Ione for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hughes. He has been working in the mountains around Baker, Whitney and Ritter during the past spring and summer.

E. S. Lilyblad and crew have been putting a sidewalk in front of John Wilts blacksmith shop. This will be a decided improvement over the old board walk which had been put in bad condition by the flood last July.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hale and Mrs. G. B. Reese of White Swan Wash. motored over for a short visit with friends and relatives in Ione. John Cochran made the return trip with them leaving on Wednesday morning.

Earl V. Puyear, who is in Uncle Sam's service, aviation division is home from Charlotte, North Carolina, where he is stationed. Mr. Puyear but recently recovered from an attack of flu. He will be here for several days.

Mrs. Elmer Griffith returned to Ione Tuesday evening from Menlo Park, Cal. Where she has been located the last few months. Her husband who was training in camp Fremont, is now on his way east and expects to be in France before very long.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman O'Neil left last Wednesday morning for Los Angeles, California. Mr. O'Neil has been working in the Ione garage with his brother for the last eight months but as he expects to be called to the service soon returned to his former home in Los Angeles a visit and to arrange for the disposal of his property there.

Mrs. M. B. Haines received word Friday of the death of her brother Sidney Brown from Spanish influenza. Sidney has been in the naval service over a year, being located at Fortress Monroe, Va. He had just secured a furlough and was expected home for a visit for the first time since his enlistment when his family received news of his sudden death. Mr. and Mrs. Haines left Saturday morning to go to Mrs. Haines' mother's home at Washougal, Wash.

The death of Mrs. Munkers, on Butter creek, was reported here Tuesday.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

We see Billy Corson on the street again.

W. G. Moore, of Yamhill has been visiting his son, Frank Moore and wife for a few days.

Miss Edna Bauman is at home on a visit until the "flu" abates in Portland, where she is attending school.

Mrs. A. L. Williams, mother of Mrs. J. F. McMillan, returned home after a couple of weeks spent in the Rose City.

Mrs. C. A. Johnson and family moved to Gresham, Oregon. They moved their things Thursday and left Friday morning.

Roy Johnson, who has been employed around Lexington for several years, left Tuesday morning to do his "bit" for Uncle Sam.

The funeral of the late Henry Cole was very quiet Tuesday afternoon owing to the fact that the deceased died from the influenza.

We announce the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Neil White Monday, Oct. 28, 1918. As this is the first child, Mr. and Mrs. White are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on this joyful occasion.

Our little town went into quarantine Monday night and the school was closed Tuesday morning on account of the influenza. At present there are no cases of the dreaded disease in our community, and the quarantine was insisted upon as a prevention.

Gerald White had the misfortune to break his arm while seeding the other day. It seems that the team he was driving became frightened, and as he fell off the drill his arm struck a part of it in such a manner as to break it, causing him a very painful wound.

CECIL ITEMS

Herb Hynd transacted business in Ione Monday.

Albert Nash was an Arlington visitor Sunday.

Jack Hynd and wife were Sunday visitors at the Hendriksen home.

Zennith Logan passed through Cecil Monday on his way to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Cox of Heppner were callers at the Last Camp Thursday.

Mr. T. H. Lowe and daughter, Miss Minnie returned home from Portland Friday.

Jack Hynd went to the Sand Hollow ranch Friday, returning home Saturday.

Ed Miller and R. Akers of Ione were callers at the Butterby flats Tuesday.

Walter Pope and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Winters were Arlington business callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Minor of Heppner passed through Cecil Thursday enroute to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick of Ione visited at the home of C. H. Winters Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Albert Nash who has been in Harrisburg for the last two weeks arrived home Monday.

A. Hendrikson went to Portland Sunday with a car load of cattle returning home Thursday.

Pete Bauerliend came in from Ritter Springs Saturday where he spent the summer months.

R. E. Dunson and family accompanied by Mrs. J. McIntire were Cecil callers Sunday evening.

Walter Pope accompanied by Wm. Dunn and Cecil Abult were callers at the Palmateer ranch on Sunday.

Mrs. Crabtree and children who have been visiting in the valley for the past few weeks came home Tuesday.

Gerge Anderson who has been camp tending for Hynd Bros. on the Rose lawn ranch arrived in Cecil Monday.

Jack Hynd and T. H. Lowe accompanied by the Misses Annie and Violet Hynd and Annie and Minnie Lowe, were Ione callers Saturday.

Henry Cole, a farm hand on the W. B. Finley ranch north of Lexington died Sunday night following a hemorrhage from the lungs. He was buried Tuesday at Lexington.

A slight blaze in the Wilson hotel caused by an overheated stovepipe was the cause of a fire alarm Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock. The fire was out before the hose team got on the ground.

WHEN YOU THINK OF

GOOD EATS

THINK OF THE

Phelps Grocery Co.

War Emergency Course and Certificate

Oregon Normal School

Owing to the scarcity of teachers the Oregon Normal School will offer a War Emergency Course of twenty weeks outlined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The course will begin with each of the terms commencing November 16, 1918; February 8, 1919; and April 12, 1919. The Superintendent of Public Instruction will consider it equivalent to the Teachers' Training Course and issue a certificate upon its completion valid to teach in the elementary grades for one year.

This course will be open to those who have had two years or more of high school work or its equivalent and who are at least eighteen years of age.

For detailed information address

REGISTRAR OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL

The Brick

McAtee & Aiken, Proprietors

ICE CREAM AND CARD PARLORS

Men's Winter Caps,
Sweaters, Jerseys.

Ladies' Fancy Caps,
Sweaters, Etc., Etc.

LITTLE DARLING ROMPERS
For the Little Folks

LOOK AND YOU WILL BUY

SAM HUGHES CO.