

Lines That Lead

Superior Grain Drills
Canton and McCormick Disc Harrows
Success Fan Mills
Moline and Vulcan Gang Plows
Universal and Perninsular Ranges

FOR SALE BY

Peoples Hdw. Co.

Home Products for Home People!

WE MANUFACTURE

White Star Flour, Whole Wheat,
Graham, Cream Middlings,
Roll Barley and all Mill Feeds

GENERAL STORAGE AND FORWARDING

HEPPNER FARMERS ELEVATOR CO.

Big Ranch Bargain

I have to offer prospective buyers of real estate a splendid 800-acre ranch with 110 acres under ditch and only one-half mile from town. Good house and out-buildings. I am offering this place at a big bargain and on easy terms if taken at once.

ROY V. WHITEIS, Heppner, Oregon

ALL OVER MORROW COUNTY

Interesting News Letters from Herald's
Corps of "Live Ones."

IONE ITEMS

Lewis Cason was an Ione visitor from Heppner Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Jones was an Ione visitor from Lexington Friday.

E. S. Ackerman of Heppner spent Saturday in Ione on business.

Silva Blackwell is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. A. Farrens.

Mrs. E. P. Newton left for her home at South Bend, Wash., Wednesday.

A. Henriksen, well known Cecil farmer, was an Ione caller last Saturday.

R. S. Wilcox, of Wasco, Ore., has been in Ione the past few days on business.

T. B. Buffington left for a few days' business trip to the valley Sunday morning.

W. R. McCracken, State Industrial Commission representative, was in Ione during the week.

The Standard Oil plant is receiving a very attractive coat of paint at the hands of Lane & Son, painters, this week.

John E. Crymes, of the American Sunday School Union, was in Ione Saturday in behalf of the work he represents.

Miss Anna Lindsey came up from Portland the first of the week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lindsey.

Miss Neva Gillette departed for Portland Tuesday morning after a two weeks' visit on the ranch of her uncle, M. H. Gillette.

Mrs. John Cochran was a Heppner bound passenger Tuesday afternoon, going up for a short visit with relatives in that city. She returned to Ione Friday.

Miss Martha Denny, primary school teacher, who spent the "flu" vacation at her home near Salem, returned to Ione Sunday evening to resume her duties.

NO. 30014. DO YOU HOLD IT?

The beautiful quilt which was donated to the Red Cross several months ago by Mrs. Edwards has been won by the holder of the above number—30014. Better look over your tickets and see if you hold that number, for the quilt is sure a beauty and worth taking home.

CECIL ITEMS

Geo. D. Anderson left Wednesday for Ukiah.

Miss Bernice Franklin did business in Cecil Friday.

Walter and Bob Pope did business in Lexington Thursday.

Mr. McFadden was buying hay on Willow Creek Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Streeter visited with J. W. Osborn Sunday.

Pat Farley, of the Willows, was a Cecil visitor Saturday evening.

Miss Ruth May of the Lone Star ranch was a Cecil visitor Tuesday.

L. M. Barr, late of Heppner, is now working for C. A. Minor of the Last Camp.

Miss Gergie Summers was the guest of Miss Hester Logan of Four Mile Sunday.

Jim Kiernan, of Butterby Flats, was up to Charley Valentine's for horses last Tuesday.

E. F. Fairhurst, accompanied by George and Ed Melton autoed up to Heppner Monday.

Minnie H. Lowe left for Portland Sunday to resume her school studies at the Franklin.

Miss Irene Douglas returned from Portland ready to begin her work at the Willows school.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark, of Arlington were visiting friends in and around Cecil Sunday.

Jim Whitney came down from Heppner Thursday, leaving for Portland and other points Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell, accompanied by Mrs. Petre and daughter, were Ione visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Peter Nash, who has been spending the past few days with the Leon family, returned home Friday.

Master Herbie and Miss Annie Hynd, of Butterby Flats, returned to Heppner Sunday to take up school again.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, sr., who have been visiting their son Wade near Morgan, left Sunday for Bor-ing, Ore.

Jimmie Wilson, of Pendleton, was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Deos of the Willows, also his brother George at Butterby Flats Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin, E. F. Fairhurst and the Misses Bernice Franklin and Violet Hynd spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

Miss Lucille Huff, who has been visiting with Mrs. Henriksen and Mrs. Lundell for the past few days, returned to her school at Hardman Monday.

R. F. Fraser, of Ione, representing the Kansas City Life Insurance Co., accompanied by H. W. Windmayer,

WHEN YOU THINK OF

GOOD EATS

THINK OF THE

Phelps Grocery Co.

of Ione, were visiting in and around Cecil Wednesday.

The community of Cecil wishes to extend its sympathies to the Logan families on learning of the death of their brother John, who died in Stockton, Cal., Nov. 21.

Bob Pope returned home from Walla Walla Wednesday, ready to take charge of his brother Walter's ranch. The latter is contemplating visiting his sister in California for an indefinite period. Our good wishes go with Walt.

BIG PEACE Celebration Ball!

Thanksgiving, Nov. 28

HEPPNER, OREGON

Special Music by LeROY'S FAMOUS JAZZ ORCHESTRA of Portland.

Admission, 25 Cents

Dance Tickets, $1.50

Dance from 9:30 to 1 a.m. Orchestra Plays for First Show at Theater

STAR THEATER

The authorized Photoplay Version of Ambassador
James W. Gerard's great book,

"MY FOUR YEARS IN GERMANY"

Matinee, 2:30---25 and 50 Cents

Evening, 7:30---50 and 75 Cents

Thanksgiving Day and Evening, Nov. 28

How About that Contemplated BUILDING?

The Government has reduced the ban on building. Or rather raised the price. Instead of a $1,000 limit on new buildings, you can go ahead now if it don't cost in excess of $10,000.

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company

LEXINGTON— and — IONE