

Holiday Suggestions

The advantage of early Christmas shopping are daily emphasized by the many selections made from my complete stock. Whether you propose giving an inexpensive Watch or a Diamond, mounted La Vallier, Bar Pin or Ring, you will find them here at most reasonable prices.

Everyone realizes the popularity and practicalness of the Wrist Watch. We are agents for the celebrated

Complete Stocks of Silverware, Cut Glass, Fountain Pens, Nut Bowls, Casseroles, Umbrellas. SHOP EARLY.

OSCAR BORG, JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Christmas gifts for the whole family, including Pyralin Ivory, Books, Vases, Pictures, Perfume in gift boxes, Stationery, Games, Cameras, and Dolls in which we have a large line ranging in price from 25c to $5.00

Also Articles in Khaki for the Soldiers

If you can think of nothing that just seems to suit, why not subscribe for a magazine for a year. We will take your subscriptions at special prices when a club is ordered.

Humphreys Drug Co

The Brick

McAtee & Aiken, Proprietors
ICE CREAM AND CARD PARLORS

Frank K. Welles, assistant superintendent of public instruction, was a Heppner visitor during the week while on his way to and from Hardman where he went in the interest of having the high school at that town standardized. Mr. Welles is leaving his position in the state superintendent's office the first of the year to engage in business in Portland as the representative of one of the big eastern school supply houses.

IONE ITEMS

Received to late for last week
Miss Alice Christofferson went over to Mikalo on Tuesdays train.
C. W. McNamer spent couple of days the past week in Portland.
J. J. Read arrived in Ione on Sunday of last week from Adams Oregon.
Mrs. J. H. Henkle returned to Portland Tuesday morning.
J. H. Blake was a Heppner caller on Monday.
T. M. Bendict and Gus Walker were county-seat visitors Tuesday.
Matt Halverson returned Thursday from a few days business in Portland.
Seymour Wilson returned from a business trip in Portland Sunday evening.
Mrs. W. J. Blake returned from Grass Valley on Sunday afternoon's train.
Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg left for Portland on Thursday morning's train.
Miss Gwendolen Jones of Lexington spent Saturday and Sunday in Ione.
Mrs. Roy T. Cochran came down from Heppner Saturday for a few days visit.
F. H. Robinson returned Wednesday from a few days trip to Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Low and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Howe were visitors in Heppner for a few hours Wednesday.
Miss Mable McElligot who has been here on a furlough to take care of her mother who has been seriously ill returned to her post Tuesday.
Jesse Agee who has been in the service at Camp Lewis the past few months has been released and returned to Ione on Friday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilcox returned to Ione Friday evening from a months visit in valley points. They report a very enjoyable vacation.
Miss Nellie Hart teacher of a school near Dry Fork, returned on Sunday of last week from a two week vacation spent in Hood River.
Howard Brown came up from Portland for a visit with his sisters, Mrs. M. B. Haines and Miss Elsie Brown, Saturday evening.
Jesse Dobyns who has been a member of the S. A. T. C. at Eugene this fall returned to Ione Friday evening having been released from duty there.
A deal was made in Ione during the week whereby Archie B. Cochran is made proprietor of the Ione meat market. Mr. Cochran took possession of his new business on Monday morning.
Mrs. Mary Millorn came over from Pendleton on Thursday for a visit with her mother. Her visit was cut short by the news that her husband was ill, which caused her to return Saturday.
The Ione and Lexington High School football teams met for a battle on Lexington grounds Saturday. The teams seemed well matched as the resulting score was a tie 6 to 6.
Mrs. J. P. Wells, who has been visiting in the east for the past two months arrived in Ione Friday evening Mrs. Wells plans were interfered with to some extent by the "flu" epidemic. Having intended to return by Louisiana she thought it best under present conditions to return by the shorter route.
A very tragic accident occurred on the H. R. Smith ranch south of Ione Saturday afternoon when Francis Fenwick the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fenwick, of this city fell into a large grain bin from which his father was taking wheat, and could not be gotten out before he had suffocated. The boy was playing around the bin and evidently lost his balance and fell in and the suction caused by the grain running out of the bin seemed to pull him down under the wheat. Doctor Chick was immediately called but was unable to start respirator after such a long time. The people of Ione extend sincere sympathy to the parents in their sorrow.

Miss Ruby Martin, teacher of the Fairview school, left Saturday to spend her vacation at her home in Newberg, Oregon.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller and daughter, Neva, left for Portland Saturday to spend the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Hennis.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lovegreen took Sunday's train to Portland where they will spend the holidays.
Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Higgs left Ione Tuesday for Portland where they will spend a few days with their brother and sister Dr. and Mrs. Higgs before going east where they intend to make their future home.
C. N. Hardy was an outgoing passenger on Sunday's train, after a few days visit in Ione.
A. R. Finley is again in Ione after doing his bit in the Portland shipyards this fall.
Miss Bertha Emmerick left for her home in Eugene Saturday. She will spend the holidays there.

ing for Jack Hynd on Butterby Flats left on the local for Portland Friday.
Miss Matilda Bjork who has been for sometime on the Hendricksen ranch left Sunday to spend a few weeks with her friends at Yoncala.
Leonard Barr who has been herding for Messrs. Minor and Thompson of Ceell, was suddenly called to the death bed of his brother in Seattle, Saturday.
W. G. Hynd of Sand Hollow took a trip over to Ceell Saturday, accompanied by his niece, Miss Annie C. Lowe, returning Sunday accompanied by his nephew Herbert Hynd.
Miss Georgia Summers was awarded a certificate of Honor, Friday, for first honors in the Junior 4 minute mens speaking contest, and has been selected as Junior minute speaker Call 1918.
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Logan and family of the Willows also Mrs. Falconer and Mrs. Dempsey were seen among the crowd in Ceell hall Wednesday evening taking in Mr. Dugger's inaugural lecture.
Mr. Dugger, of Stanberry Mo. and Mr. Snider of Challa Wash. who arrived Tuesday and are the guests of J. W. Osborn, are giving a series of religious lectures in the Ceell hall. Mr. Dugger has already found many listeners to his interesting and instructive addresses.

CECIL ITEMS

George Wilson returned from Heppner Monday.
Miss Ettie Barnes was the guest of Miss Annie Hynd Friday.
J. H. Franklin of Rhea Siding spent Saturday in Arlington.
Art Minor was a Ceell caller on his way from Portland Wednesday.
Mrs. Bennet of the Last Camp spent Sunday and Monday in Arlington.
Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick of Ione are visiting with the Winter's family of Shady Dell.
S. M. Morgan of Rhea Siding was in Heppner during the past week doing business.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nash and J. H. Pepper were doing business in Arlington Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom were in Ceell and took in Mr. Dugger's lecture Friday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion VanScolack and son of Arlington were visiting in and around Ceell Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. Ed Farnsworth were visiting with Mrs. Hynd Thursday afternoon. Charley Smith who has been work-

100 PER CENT RED CROSS
Dr. R. J. Vaughn, campaign manager for the Red Cross Christmas membership drive for Morrow county reports that while all sections of the county have not yet reported officially on account of the influenza, bad roads etc., close estimates made Monday evening assure between 1500 and 1600 members signed up for the county. This is up to the expectations of those in charge and is said to practically make the adult population of the county 100 per cent Red Cross.
Wanted—First-class woman cook for country home. Kitchen and living room for cook detached from house. Permanent situation for right party. Address or call John Kilkenny, Heppner, Oregon. Phone 27-F4. 261f

CHAS. M. HOWE
THE AUCTIONEER
who will treat you right.
I want your sales whether large or small.
Call or write me at IONE, OREGON

Lines That Lead
Superior Grain Drills
Canton and McCormick Disc Harrows
Success Fan Mills
Moline and Vulcan Gang Plows
Universal and Perninsular Ranges
FOR SALE BY
Peoples Hdw. Co.

Holiday Greetings
I TAKE this method of extending my heartiest Holiday Greetings to all my friends and patrons and to wish for each and every one of you a most Merry Christmas and a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.
Trusting that the New Year will bring much good to Heppner and to all of her people.
Respectfully,
C. W. BOWERS, 'The Shoe Man'