Mrs. Lee Howell went down on Sunday's train to meet her husband who is returning to Ione after several months in the service of Uncle Sam. When he received his discharge he was stationed in Camp Lee Va.

Victor Reitman returned to Ione Christmas day having been discharged from the army a week or so ago. Mr. Reitman has been stationed in various camps since leaving Ione and was at a training camp in Virginia ready to go across when the armistice was signed.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Blake returned to Ione Sunday of last week from Eugene where Mr. Blake was enrolled in the S. A. T. C. On their way home they stopped for a few days visit with Mrs. Blake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook of Washougal Washington.

Walter Duncan returned from Cottage Grove Friday where he went to look at some property for which he was figuring on trading his Heppner home. After looking over that country for twenty-four hours, however, Walter was not on the trade and ready to take the next train back to Heppner. He says he would not trade his house and lot for that whole darned country if he had to be obligated to live there for the rest of his life. Every thing is closed down there now and that sticky red clay don't look good to a man from God's country.

County Agent Brown informs us that three districts have been organized for the coming rabbit poisoning campaign and big results are expected when the first good snow comes and the campaigners get united action on bunny and his bunch.

Tom Standiff was in town yesterday attending to important business matters incident to the New Year season not the least of which was having his subscription account with the Herald pegged up two homes worth.

WANTED—General housework on farm, for family, or widower, or butcher. Have experience in work. Am widow with one girl of school age. Mrs. Lizzie Hecker, Talent, Ore., Box 27.

Mrs. Bowker, who is an expert shot, won a one turkey against some of the best shot on the coast. Dr. Cathey, formerly of Condon, won a special purse on the same day by breaking 25 out of 25 clay pigeons.

Having sold my property and about to leave Heppner I wish to announce that all accounts due me have been left with E. A. Pattison, at the office of the Heppner Herald where payments may be made and receipts received. The fire caused me heavy loss and I need every cent due me to help re-establish myself in business. Please call and give this matter your early attention.

GEORGE W. VERDOT.
