ALIEN ENEMY RULES CALLED OFF

By order of President Wilson, upon recommendation of the Attorney General, all regulations imposed on German alien enemies of both sexes, except Regulations 9, 10 and 12 of the Proclamation of April 6th, 1917, are discontinued on and after December 25th, 1918, says a letter from G. F. Alexander, U. S. Marshall for Oregon.

Regulation 9 provides that no alien enemy shall depart from the United States until he shall receive such permit as the president shall prescribe, or except under order of a court, judge or justice under Section 4069 and 4070 of the Revised Statutes.

Regulation 10 provides that no alien enemy shall land in or enter the United States, except under such restrictions and at such places as the President may prescribe.

Regulation 12 provides that an alien enemy whom there may be reasonable cause to believe to be aiding or about to aid the enemy, or who may be at large to the danger of the public peace or safety, or who violates or attempts to violate, or of whom there is reasonable grounds to believe that he is about to violate, any regulation duly promulgated by the President, or any criminal law of the United States, or the States and Territories thereof, will be subject to summary arrest by the United States Marshal or his deputy, or such other officer as the President shall designate, and to confinement in such penitentiary, prison, jail, military camp or other place of detention as may be directed by the President.

As noted above Regulations 9, 10 and 12 continue in full force and effect, and all German and Austrian aliens are still subject to the regulations quoted.

By the same order all prohibited and restricted areas, such as the water front and the army zones, are abolished and all passes and permits heretofore required for such zones are likewise abolished.

The power to arrest any German or Austrian alien enemy considered dangerous is, however, retained, and all such enemy aliens now arrested or interned shall remain in detention, and all paroled enemy aliens must strictly observe the terms of their parole until finally discharged.

All operators of waterfront facilities within the district and state of Oregon are hereby notified that all waterfront regulations are by this order abolished from and after December 25th, 1918.

DIED Sunday evening, December 29, 1918, Walter, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Purdin, aged about two years. Mr. Purdin moved his family here from Marshfield some three weeks ago, having accepted a position as foreman in the Herald office. Soon after their arrival the family was attacked by influenza from which the others soon recovered. The baby, however, failed to rally and passed away as above stated. The funeral was held Monday afternoon interment being in the Masonic cemetery.

Charles Hoy, a well known resident of the Monument country, died yesterday at his home near that city of pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza. Mrs. Hoy died in this city a few weeks ago leaving a young baby. Funeral arrangements are not obtainable at this writing.

Herbert Walbridge and Fred Tague came in from Camp Lewis the day before Christmas to enjoy their holiday furlough with Heppner friends. They leave New Year's morning to return to their duties.

FORM IRRIGATION DISTRICT

Through the untiring efforts of the Committee on Irrigation of the Morrow county Farm Bureau, of which S. H. Boardman, of Boardman, is chairman, preliminary steps have been taken towards organizing an irrigation district under the John Day project. Petitions are now being prepared and will be circulated next week asking the county court to call a special election at which the creation of the district will be authorized by the voters and officers will be elected.

Mr. Boardman has been a consistent worker for the John Day project since its inception and he is to be congratulated that his efforts are so quickly beginning to bear fruit. County Agent Brown has also been active in the work and has had no small part in getting early action.

The Herald is naturally pleased to be able to make this announcement regarding the John Day project as this is the first newspaper in the county, that has, in recent years urged the importance of the project and consistently kept the matter before the Morrow county public.

Watch the Herald for all future development of the biggest thing for Morrow county and Heppner that has ever been proposed.

BAPTIZING AT CECIL

Preaching services have closed which were begun in the hall at Cecil after a continuation of four evenings which were well attended by the people of the community. Some coming many miles to the services which were conducted by Elder A. N. Dugger of Missouri.

On Monday afternoon baptismal services were held and a young man from Washington was baptized just below the bridge at Cecil. The ice was broken for the ceremony and the weather was rather cool as well as the water, but no harm was done, and no ill effects came from these extremes. It was a solemn and very impressive service, showing the unwavering faith of the candidate, and bringing to the audience anew, the force of the statement of Jesus while on earth. "Thy faith hath made thee whole." No harm will come to anyone who through faith in the savior of the world, follows him whithersoever he leadeth them.

Elder Dugger expects to return sometime in the future and continue the meetings which were nicely begun when the health officer closed all public gatherings in the county. An audience of about 80 persons voted the last night of the services that they wished to have Mr. Dugger finish his course of sermons sometime in the near future.

Professor Currier, who keeps rather close cases on the every day happens in Heppner, is authority for the statement that General William O'Rourke and staff, arrived in the city Monday evening to spend the holiday season in Heppner on official military business. The Herald does not undertake to vouch for the professor's statement but it is a fact that a certain irrepressible, red-headed Irishman, who answers to the cognomen of "Billy" O'Rourke, blew in from Camp Lewis to eat Christmas turkey with Heppner friends while spinning a few modest yarns of army life.

Guy Boyer has purchased the Whitestone land, on Hinton creek, known as the Elder ranch, and which has recently been operated by John Schutte. The tract contains 4000 acres and is reckoned as one of the best stock ranches in the county.

A GERMAN HOPE DISPROVED AND A GERMAN FEAR CONFIRMED

A statement made by a prominent German official soon after this country was declared in a state of war with Germany shows that even in the enemy country clear thinking students did not undervalue the strength of the American republic. Only in his confidence that we could not land in Europe sufficient troops to affect the final decision was this German mistaken.

"I do not fear the American soldiers," he told a high official of our government, "because they cannot arrive in time. What I fear is the intelligence and devotion of one hundred million original minds and people trained to a faith in individual initiative. The day that these people, now so materialistic in outward appearance, are stirred spiritually, that day is the day of Germany's doom."

We Thank You

The closing of another year could not be satisfactory to ourselves without an expression of appreciation for the Good Will and confidence expressed towards this Institution by our patrons and friends.

In the spirit of thankfulness, we extend to you our best wishes that each of you may be blessed with your share of prosperity during nineteen.

Our desire is also that the present relations of the past may continue.

RETURNS FROM CAMP LEE

Arthur McAtee who has been in the service since mid-summer, returned to Heppner Saturday evening wearing his civilian clothes and he does not attempt to disguise the fact that he is glad to be at home again. Mrs. McAtee went to Portland to meet her husband and they spent several days with friends there before coming on to Heppner. Mr. McAtee was at Camp Lee Virginia, when he received his discharge and was fortunate in being one of fifteen who were given discharges out of more than 190 applicants. He visited New York City several times while in the east and got to see a lot of country on his trip east which was made via the northern route and across into Canada and down the Hudson to New York. Returning he came by Cincinnati and St. Louis. Arthur commenced boasting for Heppner before he got past Ione on his way home and declares that the good old town is going to beat all past records in building and general improvements next year.

REPORT OF DEATH CONFIRMED

Complete confirmation of the latest report of the death of Millard Gates has been received by the young man's parents at Hillsboro. The young soldier, who was the grandson of H. V. Gates, president of the Light & Water Co., was wounded and gassed at Chateau Thierry last July and since that time his name has twice appeared in the casualty list among those who died of wounds and his parents, on both occasions received official notification of his death but each time letters from the wounded boy proved that an error had been made. His death occurred at the hospital at Orleans, France, November 17 from the effects of the gas his shell wounds having completely healed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to tender to our many friends in Heppner, our sincere thanks for their kindness and sympathy in our recent sad bereavement, the death of our beloved brother, Michael Whitney James Whitney Nellie Whitney.

Roy Cochran, army musician at Seattle, spent a few days at home during the week.

Andy used to buy the biggest plug for the money

'till one day Barney gave him a chew of Real Gravely.

It was an hour or more before Andy said anything. "How much longer does this Gravely hold its good taste?" he says.—"Two or three little squares last me all morning," answers Barney. "This class of tobacco lasts so much longer it costs no more to chew it than ordinary plug costs."

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
