FLASHLIGHTS

When a good woman gives up a man as hopeless he usually is.

Nowadays a tightwad has to be thick-skinned to get away with it.

When a woman hasn't anything else to do she sits down and writes a letter to somebody. When a man has nothing else to do he goes out and shakes somebody for the cigars.

The worst notion that was ever put into a young man's head is that it is necessary for him to sow a crop of wild oats.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

True politeness is often equivalent to a free pass.

Justice may be blind, but she has a good memory.

Too many of the things we ask for are not worth having.

Only a dyspeptic can eat his cake and yet feel as though he had it.

The pace that kills wouldn't be so bad if it killed only the pacemaker.

After a strenuous effort to acquire fame many a man finds himself infamous.

If you get all of your knowledge out of books you might just as well leave it there.

At least the husband of a woman who is speechless with rage gets a temporary respite.

Nothing seems to please the relatives of a man's wife so much as a chance to step on his corns.

Nothing disconcerts a girl more than to brace herself to meet the shock of a marriage proposal if the shock fails to materialize.

This is the time of the year when the man of the house expects to be surprised "good and plenty" and isn't feeling any too good over the prospects.—Chicago Daily News.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

The Young Women's Christian association of Calgary, Canada, is asking that women be appointed to patrol the city.
