BOARDMAN ITEMS

Mr. Williams was watering his horses when one of them kicked him breaking his leg. He was immediately taken to a hospital at Pendleton.

Mrs. Roy Rand entertained at a luncheon last Sunday to a party of women and children who were homebound from church. All enjoyed her hospitality and the nice dinner that was served.

Rev. Amos, assistant superintendent of the Home Mission Board, who preached here last Sunday came out with a view to placing a minister in charge of our community church. A good sum has already been subscribed for the support of a pastor.

Mrs. Rand's mother, Mrs. Hiatt, left Boardman Sunday to visit the rest of her children before returning to her home near DuBois, Idaho.

Mrs. Jenkins sister, Mrs. Morgan, has been visiting her the past ten days. She has been taken to the hospital. Her little daughter is staying with Mrs. Jenkins and attending the Boardman school.

John McHugh was in Heppner on business last Tuesday.

Alex Wilson was here on business last week. He now has charge of Mr. McNeas' band of sheep near Castle Rock.

Mrs. Mefford went to Condon last Sunday to be with her mother and daughter. They are still visiting relatives there.

Miss Winona Rand was the guest of the Misses Sylvania and Alberta Edmonds last Sunday.

CLEAN UP WAR DEBRIS

Many of the war posters were stuck on walls, fences and posts; they have now been removed; leaving all sorts of specks and marks on the structures to which they were attached. Start a clean-up campaign and get rid of this debris of war, which spoils the appearance of the community.

A clean city really reflects the habits of its people, and in the final analysis the people themselves are the ones who can get the right results by simply giving thought and refraining from contributing to municipal disorder so far as streets are concerned. The cleanliness must be a daily habit. Annual clean-ups will not save the day. For years the American Civic Association which has been such a useful agency in arousing and aiding cities to their finest physical development, has been sending out the message of "year round" cleanliness as a substitute for any prodigious effort once or twice a year, at what has been called a municipal "clean up" season.—Portland Commerce.

A duck may lay a bigger egg than the helpful hen can lay, but when she's through she cackles not, but simply walks away. And so we scorn the silent duck—but the helpful hen we prize. This is only another way to say that it pays to advertise.—Ex.
