BOARDMAN IS PROSPEROUS AND PROGRESSIVE

Prof. F. E. Burns, principal of the public schools at Boardman, was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday bringing glowing reports of the progress and prosperity of his community.

Many new people are coming in and buying farms in the West Umatilla Project and improvement and development are noted on every hand. Several new buildings have gone up recently and others are contemplated.

At a meeting of the school board a few days ago it was decided to submit to the voters of the district the question of authorizing the issuance of $28,000 in school warrants for the purpose of completing the fine school building now in use. Prof. Burns expects the measure to carry as the present quarters are inadequate for the school at present and by next term a largely increased attendance is expected.

While here Prof. Burns interviewed the county court regarding the improvement of a section of county road near Boardman which will facilitate the operation of the school busses which carry the children to and from school. County Roadmaster McCaleb went to Boardman Sunday to look over the road and arrange for the needed improvement.

As an indication of the successful work Prof. Burns is doing in the Boardman schools the school board at a recent meeting entered into a contract with him for a period of two years at a salary of $2200 a year.

Prof. Burns received a letter from the office of the state superintendent a few days ago stating that the Boardman school enjoys the distinction of being the only school in Oregon showing 100 per cent of pupils engaged in school club activities.

Mrs. Mable Settlemeyer, of Woodburn, grand worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, was in Heppner Sunday night the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers. Mrs. Settlemeyer has just visited more than 100 lodges of the order in her official capacity during the past few months.

Wm. Hill and Joe Armstrong were before-breakfast subscribers to the Herald Monday morning thereby insuring themselves all the Morrow county news while in the mountains the coming summer. Mr. Hill will look after the horses and cattle of the Hardman Stock association in the Parkers Mill district and Mr. Armstrong will be with sheep somewhere within reach of the Heppner postoffice.

BEHOLD THE BOLSHEVIK!

We received a communication from J. A. Huddleston asking us how to pronounce Bolshevik and Bolsheviki. We referred the matter to a local authority who says:

Behold the gentle Bolshevik, Whose hair sticks out straight as a stick; Whose business is to "revolute," And pull the world up by the root.

Behold the gentle Bolshevik, Whose beard has grown full many a week; Whose mane is long and grizzled grown, And by a mower should be mown.

Behold the gentle Bol-she-(vee)-ki, Whose voices are both shrill and squaky; Whose hair and beard like brush-heaps are, When lively breezes blow them far.

Behold the bold Bol-she-i-ki, Whose hirsute locks no heavy key Can e'er unlock; whose tangled beard Give to the face a look quite weird.

Bol-she-(vee)-ki, Bol-she-(veek.) Bol-she-i-ki, o'er bold or meek. Bol-she-vik, lion or lamb. Just as you please, who gives a cent?

Printing that pleases. The Herald.
