HOTEL CO. ORGANIZES; OFFICERS ELECTED

OLD BUILDINGS TO BE REMOVED AT ONCE

John F. Vaughn Heads New Company—Three-Story Structure to be Rushed to Completion

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS HEPPNER HOTEL CO

President—John F. Vaughn
Vice-President—R. F. Wiglesworth
Secretary-Treasurer—C. L. Sweek
Directors
W. P. Mahoney, J. W. Beymer, John F. Vaughn, Jack Hynd, R. F. Wiglesworth.

At a stockholders meeting of the Heppner Hotel company held in this city last Tuesday afternoon, permanent organization of the company was effected and a board of directors of the corporation was elected as follows:

W. P. Mahoney, J. W. Beymer, John F. Vaughn, Jack Hynd, R. F. Wiglesworth.

Following their election the directors organized and elected the following officers:

John F. Vaughn, president.
R. F. Wiglesworth, vice-president.
C. L. Sweek, Secretary-Treasurer.
The company is incorporated for $50,000.

The purchase of the Mrs. George Fell property, on the southeast corner of Main and Willow streets, was completed and plans for the demolition of the old buildings and immediate commencement of active construction operations were discussed and tentatively agreed upon. An offer from Frank Roberts and Orve Brown to remove the buildings from the ground for what material they can salvage from the wreck was considered and it was agreed to accept the offer if none better is received by May 3rd.

Plans for the new structure, which will be strictly modern in every respect, are now being prepared by several well known firms of architects and will be submitted in a few days when a selection will be made and a contract will be let for the new building.

The site of the new hostelry has a frontage of 62 feet on Main street and a depth of 132 feet on Willow street. This ground will be covered with the exception of six feet in the rear which will be left as an alleyway to give access to the hotel from the rear.

The building will be three stories in height, of fire-proof construction, and will be strictly modern in material, finishings and equipment.

It is not definitely known at this writing, where the present occupants of the old buildings to be razed, will find quarters. Manager Sparks, of the Star, it is known, has secured a lease on the pavilion at the fair grounds, and he may temporarily install the theatre in that building.

The Elkhorn restaurant, all agree, must be allowed to remain in business without interruption as that is the principal eating place in the city. It is possible that the building occupied by the Elkhorn will be moved back on the Vaughn lot immediately east of the hotel site and there continue in business until a more suitable building is erected.

What Mrs. Luper's plans for her mill store are is not known.

CONDON ELKS COMING

A big bunch of Condon members of Heppner Lodge of Elks are coming over Thursday evening with several victims for the sacrificial fires. Any Heppner member who fails to be on his toes during the ceremony will always regret it.

VICTORY PRIZE WINNER ONLY 10 YEARS OLD

Attention of the Herald has been called to the fact that a typographical error was the cause of giving the age of Gladys Rippee, of District No. 2, one of the prize winners in the Victory Liberty Loan contest, as 16 years instead of 10 years old. The Herald is glad to be able to correct this error.

PARK IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM MEETS FAVOR

FIRST CIVIC CLUB BENEFIT IS GREAT SUCCESS

Screen Stars, Local Artists Vie In Entertainment of Record Crowd At Star

We told you so.

The Herald has frequently remarked that when the women of Heppner set out to do something that thing is practically accomplished.

When these same ladies made up their minds that the comfort of Heppner people demanded a park they set about getting a park and about the first discovery they made was that the project would require some money, and they immediately set about acquiring the necessary bunch of kale. Manager Sparks, of the Star theatre, as well as his efficient and obliging local manager, B. G. Sigbee, were appealed to and as neither of these gentlemen have had any previous home training in the stone age art of refusing the demands or requests or innocent blandishments of a charming woman, they at once tendered the use of the Star for last Wednesday evening for a benefit performance for the park fund.

The result was exactly as was to be expected. Record-breaking crowds of delighted citizens jammed the theatre at two shows and the desired kale aggregated a sum well in excess of $100.

Depletions of the loves and hates and other intensities of the screen stars were varied with a number of splendid musical and literary selections by local talent, the real artists being a bevy of tiny tots from the lower grades of the Heppner school, who, under the direction of Miss Radabaugh, their instructor in music rendered the "Park Song," which was composed for the occasion by Miss Radabaugh and which took the audience by storm. The song follows:

We know the most horrible secret—
It's something you folks ought to know;
Some people say they don't like Heppner, because there's
No place they can go.
No place to sit around in the evening,
No place we can hear our band play.

Where we kids can all scream and tease dad for ice cream—
Can't you see things are not what they seem?
Chorus

We little boys all want a park in Heppner,
We little girls all want a park in Heppner;
Why don't you get it,
We'll advocate it;
We want a place where it is soft and green,
The streets are nothing but sharp stones and cobbles.

They hurt our feet so much—we limp so much and wobble,
We want a play ground,
Some place to play round,
Why not have a little park in Heppner?

So now you all know what we are here for—
It's something you'll all work for,
So strangers can say they all like Heppner and feel welcome to come and go.
We'll have a nice park in our city,
We'll enjoy to hear our band play;
Us kids'll yell, romp and scream,
Sis'll sit there and dream,
Life will be just one glorious dream.

SOCIAL EVENTS of the WEEK

Last week was another busy one in Heppner social circles—hardly a day passing without one or more interesting affairs. The approaching commencement season in the high school brings with it a train of social festivities for the younger set, some of which, by the way, are reported to vie in pretentious arrangement with the regular functions of the real society people.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the Dahlia social enjoyed by members of the Civic club at the hospitable home of Mrs. Sam E. Van Vector, Thursday afternoon, at which about 45 members of the club enjoyed a number of delightful musical numbers while spending the afternoon socially.

Tea was served during the afternoon and dahlia bulbs were distributed to each member with which to demonstrate the Dahlia committee's slogan, "Plant a Dahlia."

Another delightful affair of the week was the bridge party given by Mrs. Phil Cohn at her charming home Friday afternoon. About 50 guests were present and all enjoyed the spirited play, handsome prizes being awarded the successful contestants. Mrs. C. L. Sweek received a beautiful ivory piece and Mrs. W. S. Prunz a handsome olive spoon.

Following the card games a short musical program was given in which Mrs. Roy Cochran and Miss Gladys Lane favored.

Delicious refreshments were served the guests and the affair throughout was most successful.

In the domestic science dining hall at the high school Thursday evening was held the annual junior-senior banquet on which time-honored occasion members of the junior class were hosts to a farewell party to the upper classmen prior to their advent into the big, wide world.

The dining hall was beautifully decorated in black and gold, the junior colors, the floral decoration scheme being ferns and lilacs, with the exception of the May Queen's throne, which was decorated with Oregon grape.

The table decorations were three May-poles with black and gold streamers which were held by an encircling horde of stiken Kewpies, also wearing the class colors. Menu cards were fashioned after the senior cap, the cover being also in black and gold, with wonderful Ophelia roses as place favors.

The dinner itself was an elaborate one of five courses, and bore high testimony to the efficiency of Miss Martha Struck's domestic science class who prepared it under her supervision.

Mrs. Roy Cochran, Miss Gladys Lane and Dorothy Pattison, while Miss Blanch Minor gifted elocutionist of Heppner and Portland, delighted the audience with several inimitable readings.

The affair was a wonderful success in every particular not the least being the practical demonstration that the time is fully ripe for the people of Heppner to get behind any meritorious proposition having for its object the civic betterment of the city.

S. Everett Pattison, president of the junior class acted as toast-master for the evening and on behalf of his class made a short address to the guests of the evening, the seniors and faculty.

The response was made by Miss Ruth Van Vector, president of the senior class, who in words well chosen for the occasion expressed the appreciation felt by herself and fellow students for the cordial hospitality shown them.

Other speakers of the evening were Edward Notson '19, who spoke on "Senior Class Colors," Superintendent Boltcott, "Heppner High School," Miss Thiele, Miss Struck, domestic science, "Our Girls," Miss Johnson, commercial, "Address to Seniors," Miss Hughes, "School Friendships," Miss Ethel Copenhaven, '20, "Class Advisors in General and Miss Struck in Particular," Paul Gammell, '19, "My Experiences in the United States Navy," Miss Radabaugh, music, "Music," Miss Cyrene Ljeuallen, '19, "The Class of '19 Ten Years Hence: a Dream," Miss Neva Chidsey, '19.

Friday evening at the high school the student body entertained the members of the Moro ball team and their friends at an attractive four-course dinner served cafeteria style. The occasion was an enjoyable one, those present report, and the members of the Heppner HI are said to be never better pleased than when entertaining their Moro friends.

DR. TURNER COMING

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist will be in Heppner again Tuesday and Wednesday, May sixth and seventh. Consult him in the New Case Building on Main street.

Dr. Turner will also be in Ione Thursday, May eighth, one day only. Consult him.

For Sale—Eight-year old horse; gentle; weight about 1100 pounds. Will sell at a bargain. See D. J. Donhouzer at Second Hand Store.

ALL-STARS vs ARLINGTON GIANTS

Don't forget that big ball game on the Heppner diamond next Sunday afternoon when the Arlington Giants will tackle the Morrow County All-Stars and everything indicates that the fur will fly proper. This will no doubt be the greatest game played east of The Dalles for ten years and if the rumor that the All-Stars have secured one of McCreddie's star twirlers for the occasion is true there will sure be somethin' doin'.

VICTORY LOAN LAGS

As we go to press Chairman McCarty, of the Victory Liberty Loan committee is out of town and no late report of Morrow county subscriptions is available. It is enough to say that if this county is to go over the top as most of the other counties of the state have already done a lot of deep-pocket digging must be done. We are still far from the goal.

HONOR FLAGS TO BE AWARDED BOND BUYERS

BUY A BOND AND GET A FLAG

Nation Delighted to Honor the Citizen Who Puts His Money Up

HONOR FLAGS TO BE AWARDED

Headquarters for the Twelfth Federal Reserve District in the Victory Loan drive has announced that five different types of honor flags would be awarded for meritorious work during the campaign.

The five flags are, a community flag, industrial and organization flag, subscriber's window emblem, household 100% emblem and industrial flag for individual names.

The community flag will be given to cities and towns which raise their quota in the drive. It will be a white flag with a red border and a blue V in the center. A blue star will be added for each fifty per cent that the community oversubscribes. Counties will be given a similar flag if they reach their quotas.

A special honor flag will be given by the Treasury Department to each state exceeding its quota. In addition each state raising its quota will have its name inscribed on the roll of honor to be hung in the Treasury Department building in Washington, D. C.

The industrial and organization flag will be awarded by the county committees to all lodges, organizations and industrial concerns seventy-five per cent or more of whose employees subscribe to the Victory Loan.

Each subscriber to the Victory Loan no matter what the amount of his purchase may be will be given a loan flag to hang in his window. The flag will be given to the individual subscriber at the time he makes his initial payment on his Victory note.

The 100% household honor flag will be handed to the head of each family when a subscription has been received by the local district committee from each member of the household.

An industrial honor flag will be given to every lodge, organization or industrial concern making subscriptions to the Victory Loan with room on the flag for inscribing 100 names of subscribers of the concern.

The national honor flag will be awarded by the Treasury Department to the state making the largest oversubscription to the loan. The flag will be the American flag which flew over the capitol at the time war was declared, when the armistice was signed and on other famous days of the war.

HEPPNER ATHLETES BRING HOME BACON

IONE FIELD AND TRACK MEET FINE EVENT

Heppner Lads Carry Away Cup and Medal and Cover Themselves With Glory

"Wasn't it a gr-r-r-and and glorious feeling?" queried the Heppner Hi lad in his deepest bass. You bet it was," shrieked the Heppner Hi girl, "Heppner, Heppner, 'rah, 'rah, 'rah," and they both stopped to get their breath for the next round.

That was the way all Heppner youthdom felt about it as they autoed or railroaded their way home from the field and track meet at Ione Saturday evening, for, according to the Heppner delegation that was about the most wonderful athletic event ever held in the good, old U. S. A.

It seemed to be Heppner day. Fate dealt them a full house in the first round and then, to show that she was a good sport slipped in an occasional royal flush for good measure, the result being that when the final count of points was made Heppner walked away with the big silver loving cup and Pattison, '20, of Heppner, was awarded the gold medal for the highest individual score 20 3/4. Notson, '19, also of Heppner was a close second for the medal with a score of 18 3/4.

Following is the events with the winners of first, second and third places. The three contesting schools are indicated by initials; H, Heppner, I, Ione, B, Boardman:

300 Yard Run
First, Brown, H; second, Packard, I; third essner, I.
Heppner won all-up Indian club race.

In the forenoon at Ione the Moro ball team again showed their metal by winning a closely contested game from Ione in a score of 5 to 6.

The entire Heppner delegation speak in highest terms of the royal reception accorded them by Ione and say it was the most enjoyable event of the kind they ever had the pleasure of attending, and the Herald has private information from the Egg city that the high school population of that town say it is all right this time but that Heppner should look to its laurels next year for it will be different then—that Ione can never be downed and kept down.
