For Sale—Two Firestone Tires, 32x4 in good condition—at the Second Hand Store.

Mrs. J. W. Stephens of Hardman, and her young son, were Heppner visitors Saturday, the boy going to Jone for the track meet.

F. A. McMenamin and Michael Kenny toured the Juniper canyon district Monday in the interest of the Victory Liberty Loan.

Mrs. Minerva Eaton, of Salem, came in Saturday evening to visit her son, E. A. Patterson. Mrs. Eaton is a pioneer of the Grand Round valley and is one of the best known women of eastern Oregon.

Hugh C. Githens is in the Heppner hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis which was performed last Thursday. His condition was regarded as serious for a while but he is now improving.

Mrs. A. L. Ayers president of the Civic Improvement Club wishes to publicly express the thanks of the club to C. A. Minor, Mrs. W. B. Barratt and Mrs. Kelly for dahlia bulbs furnished the club for distribution to members.

An extra train has been put on the O. W. R. & N., from Pendleton to Portland, for the accommodation of eastern Oregon travel. People in Heppner who wish to avail themselves of the service will take an airplane to the Junction as no mention is made of improved service on our branch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinkle of Hermiston were Heppner visitors yesterday. Mr. Hinkle being in attendance before the county court in the matter of the proposed West Extension Irrigation District, at Boardman. Mr. Hinkle is connected with the legal department of the reclamation service and is considered an expert in irrigation law.

J. C. Battenger, R. L. Brown, A. W. Cobb and T. E. Hendrick, prominent citizens of the Boardman project were here yesterday putting through the West Extension Irrigation District project and talking good roads. They received the assurance of the county court that the county will furnish Boardman with a rock crusher at once for use in that district.

Ed. Huston returned Thursday from Albany where he was called a week earlier by the serious illness of his father, John Huston, who is one of Linn county's oldest and most highly respected citizens. Mr. Huston, always hale and hearty until attacked by the influenza last winter is suffering from the results of that disease and his recovery is hardly hoped for.

M. D. O'Connell, publisher of the Hermiston Herald, was a Heppner visitor Sunday evening and while in town made a fraternal call at the Herald office. Mr. O'Connell reports business in all lines active in his town with good prospects for the future. Under Mr. O'Connell's management the Hermiston Herald is one of the best local newspapers in this part of the state and he is disposed to keep on improving it to keep up with the development of his section.

Harold Cohn drove to Portland one day last week in his old Cadillac in eight hours and ten minutes and returned two days later in eight hours flat. Who says a good paved road from Heppner to Portland will not make the O. R. W. & N., including the Heppner branch, look like a piker in the way of speed. John Eider and Alva Jones, who have been in France helping put the Hun out of business, recently returned from overseas and discharged from the service, returned to Heppner with Mr. Cohn.

HEPPNER VETERAN AT O. A. C.

The Sunday Oregonian of this week carried a picture of the members of the "S. and S. Crip Club"—Soldiers and Sailors Cripple Club of the Oregon Agricultural College of which Alexander Brander of Heppner is a member—and who stands out conspicuously in the picture.

Mr. Brander was a member of the first draft contingent to leave Heppner and was the first over-seas veteran to return. He received his qualifications for membership in the S. and S. Crip Club in the shape of a piece of shrapnel in his back on July 20th, 1918, on the Marne front in France a detailed account of which appeared in the Herald at the time of his return.

BIG PUBLIC SALE NEXT SATURDAY

The Farmers' Exchange announce a big auction sale of farm machinery and livestock at the Rugg ranch on Rhea creek next Saturday. A big list of fine property will be sold and there will be a big free lunch at noon.

BAND BOYS DANCE SUCCESSFUL

The band boys dance Saturday evening was a very pleasing affair and drew a large crowd to Heppner from all over the county. The Beaver State Orchestra, from Portland, augmented by band members furnished music that drew many expressions of approval from the dancers—those from the band participating were Mr. Cochran, trombone; Mr. Godfrey, clarinet, and Mr. Weint, saxophone.

HEPPNER HI VS HAS-BEENS

It will be some game Thursday afternoon when the Hasbeens including such old stiffs as E. M. Shutt, Gay Anderson, Stoney and a few other relics like those will try to do up the high school boys. This game will be worth four or five dollars, but if you haven't a cent with you come along.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD"

The greatest film picture ever produced, is coming to the Star Saturday evening, May 17. This is "The Heart of the World," D. W. Griffith's master production.

The only picture ever produced which shows actual hand to hand bayonet, grenade, pistol and fist fighting on the battlefield. Continuous run for a year in the east at prices reaching $2.50.

Watch for big announcement next week.

COUNCIL MEETING QUIET

It was rather a quiet council meeting last evening no quorum appeared until almost nine o'clock and not a committee report was ready. Mayor Vaughan wore a rather bored look and perhaps had a touch of that tried feeling which comes to most of us who try to do things and see failure ahead because of absolute lack of co-operation on the part of those who should help us.

Current bills were allowed and some desolatory talk had about the streets, etc., and the council adjourned.

And there are so many things needing to be done to make Heppner the kind of a town it should be.

CONDON WILL HOLD RACE MEET

J. E. Sparks, movie magnate of Condon and Heppner, was over from the Summit city yesterday and reported that his town will hold a big race meet June 11 to 15 inclusive. A lot of good stock is in training and some fine events are promised.

MEXICAN PROBLEM COMES FROM BOARDMAN

Deputy Sheriff Voyce, of Boardman, brought over a Mexican problem from that live town yesterday in the persons of Santiago Brazil and Seleco Larus, sons of the land of many rebellions and submitted the same to the Morrow county Peace conference at the court house.

Seleco, it appears, swatted Santiago on the bean with a brass-headed paving rock intended for use on the Columbia Highway and Santiago, protesting, had him arrested.

CIRCUIT COURT WILL MEET MONDAY, MAY 12th

The regular May term of Circuit Court will meet next Monday morning for what is expected to be an unusually prolonged term. No term was held in November because of the prevalence of influenza at that time and considerable business has accumulated.

An important civil case which has been transferred here from Grant in which James T. Johnson seeks to recover some $32,000 from Ben Colvin will also probably come on trial this term and is expected to consume a week or more in hearing. The Morey manslaughter case will also come to trial.

JURY LIST
