

PEACE TERMS RENDER GERMANY HARMLESS

WILL MAKE GERMANY THIRD CLASS POWER

Army Reduced to 100,000 Men—Navy to 24 Ships—No Subs Allowed

Under the conditions imposed by the terms of peace submitted to Germany that once vain-glorious world power whose ambitious dreams contemplated world dominion, is shorn of her former strength and reduced to the position of a third-class power among the nations of the world.

Her army is reduced to 100,000 including officers. All forts 50 kilometers east from the Rhine razed and all importation and exportation of war supplies and almost all manufacture of the same prohibited.

Her navy is to be reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers and 12 torpedo boats and no submarines will be permitted. No air forces are permitted except 100 unarmed planes which may be used for the next six months for the purpose of detecting mines floating in the sea.

France is to have Alsace-Lorraine and the Saar coal mines while the Saar basin and Danzig are to be internationalized. Belgium is to have a portion of Prussia and most of Silesia goes to Poland. Denmark is to have Schleswig-Holstein and Germany must recognize the total independence of German-Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland. Any violation of the terms will be considered an act of war.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD" ... GRIFFITH'S MASTERPIECE

The biggest event of the entire season in the world of motion pictures, will be the presentation of D. W. Griffith's latest masterpiece "Hearts of the World," at the Star Saturday, May 17th.

"Hearts of the World" required eighteen months in the making and many of the scenes were taken on the actual battlefields of France by Mr. Griffith, with the official aid and assistance of the British and French governments. Mr. Griffith, however, is anxious to remove any apprehension that "Hearts of the World" is primarily a war picture. It is, he announces, primarily a love story, in which war figures as the grim background. It may be called "the story of a village," and for more than forty minutes during the exposition of the story, there is not a cannon shot, nor a suggestion of war's alarms. There is the pretty romance of two girls each in love with the same man; there is the quiet and peaceful atmosphere of a small French town before the holocaust of the war. Then comes the conflict, with its ensuing effects upon the fortunes of those in the little village. The battle scenes shown are actual battle scenes taken right in the trenches during the death struggles of the French and the Germans; only occasionally has it been found necessary to piece the story of the battles together by means of acted scenes. Thus one sees the life in the trenches; the charges of the French soldiers; the thrilling hand to hand conflicts and the thrusts of bayonets; the murder of the shells; the great guns in action; the tanks; the attacks by liquid fire; the charges and the retreats; the German pill-boxes; the flight of the villagers the ruthless destruction of property; the treatment of young girls who fall into the hands of the Germans; and other things too numerous to mention, the whole culminating in the arrival of the American troops, of ultimate victory and a hint of future happiness for those who have endured this terrible struggle.

Mr. Griffith is anxious to have it understood that while "Hearts of the World" deals with war and love, it is a drama he has staged, rather than a propaganda film. Yet no one can sit through his wonderful pictorial representation of the tragedy of Bleeding France, without going forth more determined than ever of the right of the allies position in the great fight.

the great fight and that such grim horrors of war must never happen again in the history of the world.

Prominent in the cast of "Hearts of the World" are the beautiful Gish sisters, Lillian and Dorothy, Robert Harron, George Fawcett, George Seigman and other prominent players.

Dr. McMurdo, who with his family has been on an eastern trip for several weeks, wired Ben Patterson yesterday that he expects to be at home this evening.

ARLINGTON AGAIN WINS

"Speck" Aiken may not be the oldest baseball promoter and manager in the world but he proved last Sunday that he some "go-getter" when, in the face of the first real rainy Sunday of the year he pulled himself out of a hole that looked like bankruptcy and jollied his All-Stars along until they actually dragged in eight real tallies while the Arlington Giants scored a baker's dozen.

The only trouble with "Speck's" All-Stars was that they were not all stars, quite. Some were Has-beens others were Will-bes but Speck with the nerve of a real sport, declares that his team is all right and only needs a little training to make them world beaters.

Where the boys fell down was the lack of a hardened pitcher. Thornton, who was a real twirler several years ago first went into the box and pitched a pretty good game until his arm gave out and then Nicholson, who pitched for the high school team last year and made good and who hadn't touched a ball since had the same experience. Reitman, south paw from Ione, finished the game for Heppner and showed considerable ability. He is a shifty cuss and knows how to heap foole the boys with some good tricks.

Montague and Coons, Arlington's battery are both good men and have considerable training together and while our boys frequently "found" Montague, the Arlington team work was too much for Heppner.

A good crowd was present in spite of the fact that a heavy rain prevailed until after the time set for the game which was not called until nearly five o'clock.

The line-up and score follows:

Arlington	Position	Heppner
Montague	p	Thornton
Coons	c	Wilson
Wilson	1st	D. Reitman
Snell	2nd	V. Reitman
Gaunt	3rd	W. Reitman
Solvester	ss	Nicholson
Lawler	cf	Rood
Tatone	rf	Crawford
Youngquist	lf	Smith

Score—Arlington 13, Heppner 8. Manager Aiken announces that another game will be played next Sunday between Heppner and Wasco and he promises that his team will be in form the pluck the persimmons in fine style.

HEPPNER HOLD-UP AGAIN IN LIMELIGHT

One Julius Smith Ward, who was shot and slightly wounded by the Portland police recently while resisting arrest for alleged burglary, is said to have confessed to having held up and robbed 25 men in Jack Grant's gambling rooms in Portland last month and also to having been sent to the pen from Heppner two years ago for holding up and robbing a man in the Palace Hotel here, is probably the same man who was known here as Jack DuMont, or "Gentleman Jack." DuMont was a rather smooth article and being a fine singer cut considerable figure while in Heppner as a singer in the church choir and as a would be social lion. He drew two to ten years from Judge Phelps as a reward for his activities in the Palace matter but was paroled after serving a year.

IONE MAN ON TRIAL TODAY

Richard R. Turpin, of Ione, is on trial in the circuit court today on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The complaining witness is Annie Puyear, 11-year old daughter of Walter Puyear of Ione.

The state charges that Turpin invited the little girl into his barber shop one evening to look at pictures and while there attempted to take improper liberties with her. The defense resists this charge claiming that the girl went into the shop without an invitation, looked at some pictures and after some "joking" as she went out of the door Turpin slapped her playfully on the back.

District attorney Notson is prosecuting the case and Sam E. Van Vactor and F. H. Robinson are handling the defense.

G. F. Steele, jeweler at Ione, sustained a broken wrist and some minor injuries last Tuesday afternoon when the auto he was driving went off a bridge in the county road near Lexington. After leaving the bridge the car, a big Paige, turned over, pinning Mr. Steele beneath and it was fortunate that he escaped with no worse injuries.

HAS-BEENS VS WILL-BES

The Has-Been boys and the Will-Be fellows played a wonderful game on the local diamond Thursday afternoon and while the Has-Beens somewhat wiped the earth with the Will-Bes on this occasion the Herald good authority for the prediction that it will not be ever thus. Next year or the year after the youngsters hope to have taken on enough training as will enable them to put the everlasting kibosh on the Has-Beens and make them wish they had never heard of the game.

The game only lasted some four or five innings both teams insisting that real stars like themselves do not need to play ball all afternoon to get a considerable score and by the time the Has-Been team had chalked up 11 tallies and the Will-Be boys had packed in 7 they agreed to quit until the next time.

P. A. Anderson acted as umpire for the occasion and as he is a sort of has-been himself, the youngsters seem to think that he was, perhaps unconsciously, class conscious when making close decisions.

Following is the line-up and score:

Has-Beens	Position	Will-Bes
Elliott	p	Petersen
		Crawford
Rood	c	Notson
Sims	1st	Adkins
Stone	2nd	Irwin
Anderson	3rd	Pattison
H. Aiken	ss	Speck Aiken
B. Crawford
Cox	rf	Hynd
Crowell	lf	Gentry
Shutt	cf	Orr

Score 11-7 in favor of the Has-Beens.

Time: Less than four hours.

HEPPNER MOST EQUITABLE CLIMATE

A. M. Phelps of the Phelps Grocery company, is strong on Heppner as a place for all-the-year-round living, declaring that we have the most equitable climate on earth. He bases his claim on a big, advertising thermometer, furnished by an enterprising wholesale firm, that hangs in front of his store, the mercury in which, Mr. Phelps says, shows an unvarying temperature of exactly 68 degrees day and night; summer and winter for the past two years. Mr. Phelps does not attempt to explain the matter but he does say that he knows his thermometer is all right and a sure thing to bet on at any time.
