HOME SHOULD COME FIRST

Proper Habitations Most Important Things in the Development of a Nation Worth While.

Better homes make better people and, therefore, a better nation. Education which will bring about a general appreciation of absolute justice is the need of the world.

Centuries ago all the laws necessary for the good of mankind were summed up in ten brief clearly stated laws. Ever since that time the politicians of the world have been trying, without success, to make better laws. Laws there are without number, but not one is an improvement, not one is necessary if the original ten were generally observed.

The second is "Love thy neighbor as thyself." And in referring to the first: "On these two commandments the whole law hangeth."

Get out the Bible and read the first two and then the other eight.

Rural adornment through gardening is one way to make better homes. Give the family an attractive abiding place—outside and in. Not wealth alone can make a home. There are many attractive and beautiful homes where money is scarce. The memory of a beautiful home is a power for good as long as one of the family remains, or any who know them.

Growing things have a tendency to elevate one's thoughts and aspirations. They cause us to think of better living and show that really beautiful things may be ours for a little effort.

DON'T NEGLECT THE GARDEN

Country Will Be Benefited if Each Lot Is Made a Permanent Food Producer.

If you started a home garden last season how about making it a permanent food producer?

A bed of asparagus is known to have given continuous service for more than thirty years, and asparagus is one of the first of the spring vegetables. A row of blackberries along a garden fence has produced abundant crops for twelve successive years. A few hills of rhubarb have provided delicious sauce and helped with the making of pies season after season, with very little cost or attention. Strawberries require more care, but they furnish the first ripe fruit in the springtime, and a very small plot of ground in one corner of the garden will supply the family.

Put into a home garden a little money, knowledge gained from competent advice and your spare time. Draw from it an insight into the workings of nature, healthful exercise and a reduction in your food bills. A home garden is a good thing to keep going year after year.

Own a Home.

The Chicago real estate board has decided to launch an effort to encourage home ownership throughout the city, that Chicago may regain its title of "The City of Homes."

The department of labor at Washington is engaged in a national campaign to encourage the construction of homes for the purpose of avoiding any disarrangement of our business fabric, because of the discontinuance of war work, and to provide employment for our boys returning from the army.

The idea has been tried with astounding success in many cities. The advantage to the city as a whole, from the standpoint of better citizenship alone, is so great as to more than justify all the efforts that may be expended.

Urges More War Gardens.

Increased efforts of horticultural societies to co-operate with war gardeners and thus continue the fruitful backyard gardening which attained such prominence during the war emergency was advocated by Leonard Barron of Garden City, N. Y., authority on garden topics, in a lecture before the Massachusetts Horticultural society. "Gardening," he said, "is a national asset because it gives outdoor occupation, production, occupation, with recreation, education and profit, all at the same time." He believes that the gardening movement will continue.

His Sweet Disposition.

"So you lost your case in court, Mr. Gloom?" said an acquaintance. "Yes," replied J. Fuller Gloom. "And still I am not soured by it; I do not think all lawyers are dishonest. Lincoln was a lawyer, and he was honest. Rufus Choate was honest. Probably some of the signers of the Declaration of Independence were lawyers and honest. And I know the names of several other lawyers, also dead, who are honest."—Kansas City Star.

Buy Good Trees.

It does not pay to purchase poor trees of any kind. Real economy consists in paying reasonable prices for high grade trees. A few good trees are better than more purchased at the expense of quality.

Two Good Ideas.

A splendid plan is for planting memorial trees by church congregations and for planting trees along motor highways.

ATTEND IONE GRADUATING EXERCISES

Rev. F. A. Andrews, Mrs. Lena Snell Shurte and Francis A. McMenamin, drove down to Ione last Wednesday evening to attend the graduating exercises of the Ione High school. Mr. McMenamin delivered the oration of the evening to the graduating class. Rev. Andrews pronounced the invocation and Mrs. Shurte was there in her capacity of county superintendent of schools. They report a splendid program and one which reflects credit not only on the members of the class but also Superintendent Wells and his corps of efficient assistants. Mr. Wells has accepted a position as principal of the Klamath high school at Klamath Falls for the coming year.

BE CONSISTENT IN PROHIBITION SAYS SCHWAB

If national prohibition is to be the lot of the nation, Charles M. Schwab chairman of the board of directors of Bethlehem Steel corporation, wants prohibition enforced on a basis which would make the wine cellars of the rich disgorge their hoarded stocks of good cheer. That is what Schwab told the members of the second Pan-American congress today in referring to the prohibition question, says a recent dispatch from Washington.

"I am one who believes in being consistent," he said. "Someone said to me the other day, 'Are you a prohibitionist?'"

"I said 'Yes' under one condition, that everybody is treated alike. I don't believe in prohibition that will enable me or Vanderbilt or other rich men of the country to store their cellars with wines and whiskeys for the rest of their lives, while the other ordinary people, who haven't the money go without."

"I believe in fair play for all. If we are going to have something to drink, let's have it. If we are not, let's all do without it. I don't care which it is, but let's be consistent."

N. A. Clark who has been with the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company since their yard was opened in this city has resigned his position and will engage in some other line of business.

PRINCE ALBERT

Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

YOU can't help cutting loose joyous remarks every time you flush your smokespot with Prince Albert—it hits you so fair and square. It's a scuttle full of jimmy pipe and cigarette makin's sunshine and as satisfying as it is delightful every hour of the twenty-four!

It's never too late to hop into the Prince Albert pleasure-pasture! For, P. A. is trigger-ready to give you more tobacco fun than you ever had in your smokecareer. That's because it has the quality.

Quick as you know Prince Albert you'll write it down that P. A. did not bite your tongue or parch your throat. And, it never will! For, our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch. Try it for what ails your tongue!

Tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Spring Time is Paint Time

Say Mr. House Owner isn't this weather getting into your system and making you long to see the old home shine again like it did when it was new? Don't you realize that a new coat of paint would bring back all its freshness—that it would again have that new appearance of which you were so proud when you first built it? This is the time of the year to start out work—and you know how badly it needs it.

We wish merely to call your attention to the fact that we have a full line of standard paints—every color or tint that you possibly could think of. Besides every thing needed for the interior decoration of your home.

Of Interest to the Ladies

We have a complete line of Chinamel for touching up and refinishing those old pieces of furniture that you prize so highly—and this work will come right along with the spring house cleaning. These varnishes are prepared so that they do not require the services of a painter—and you've no idea the amount of good you can do in one room with a few of these colors. We've every one you could want.
