

PETITION

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Morrow. In the matter of the organization of John Day Irrigation District in Morrow, Gilliam and Umatilla counties, in the State of Oregon.

To the Honorable County Court of Morrow County, Oregon:

The undersigned petitioners respectfully show:

That petitioners are more than fifty of the owners of land irrigated or susceptible to irrigation within the boundaries hereinafter described and desire to provide for the construction of works for the irrigation of the same and to provide for the reconstruction, betterment, extension, purchase, operation or maintenance of works already constructed and for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness on account of district lands to the United States under the Federal Reclamation laws, and petitioners do now propose the organization of an irrigation district to be known as the John Day Irrigation District, within said counties and State under the provisions of Chapter 357 of the General Laws of Oregon for 1917.

That the lands of your petitioners are included within the boundaries as hereinafter described and are susceptible of irrigation from the waters of the John Day river as a common source and the major portion of said lands are included within the boundaries of Morrow county and a small portion thereof is included within the boundaries of Gilliam and Umatilla counties, in the state of Oregon.

That the boundaries of the proposed irrigation district are described as follows:
