A. B. Robertson, grain dealer of Condon spent Tuesday in our city.

Miss Doris Frank has been quite sick for some days but at last reports she was improving.

Mrs. Zelma Read and little daughter of Weston arrived Tuesday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown.

Mrs. Milt Morgan was taken quite ill a week ago last Sunday while in church, and has been confined to her bed for several days. We hope for her speedy recovery.

J. H. Bryson and family who have been living in the rooms over the Independent garage have moved into their own home on Third street formerly occupied by G. F. Steele.

J. T. Knappenburg visited a few days with his family in Portland. He returned the other evening and reports his wife's health improved since she has been in Portland.

E. A. Poe is wearing a broad smile as he received a telegram from his wife at Outlook, Washington, stating the arrival of a daughter at 4:30 a. m., Sunday morn. All are doing fine.

Frank Wilson just finished Tuesday afternoon heading 735 acres. He thought the general average would be from 10 to 12 bushels per acre. He expects to begin threshing the 31st of July, having about one week run.

The new Holt combine arrived on Tuesday evening for Chas. Nanneman. It was unloaded and set up in a few hours and ready to be taken out home that evening. Mr. A. B. Amy, agent for these combines, went out with Mr. Nanneman to help adjust the machine.

Dr. Evans of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is visiting relatives in Portland, preached in the Ione Congregational church Sunday morning and evening. Sorry more were not out to hear him, as he preached two splendid sermons. He returned to Portland on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Norton left Wednesday morning on the local for a two weeks vacation. While away she expects to visit her daughter Mrs. Bessie Dundas and other relatives living near Oregon City and on returning will stop at Portland and visit her niece Mrs. Ida Ames.

Miss Eva E. Swanson who formerly taught the seventh and eighth grades here has been visiting the Misses Margaret and Catherine Jones Miss Swanson recently returned from California, having visited San Francisco, Los Angeles and Riverside. Her parents were with her.

E. J. Bristow, the local merchant, and E. E. Miller, the hardware dealer, left Sunday morning, with some traveling salesmen, who were passing through in their car enroute for Portland. They will attend the Buyers' convention which will be held there this week.

G. F. Steele and family have moved into the residence on Second street owned by Mrs. Garfield of Portland. The place has been thoroughly renovated, repapered and painted on the inside and a new coat on the outside which certainly improves the appearance. The work was done by Mr. Fenwick.

Charles Gray has sold the dray and his house and lot on Second street to Harry McCormack of Lexington. Mr. McCormack has moved his family and household goods to Ione, where he expects to make his home. Mr. Gray has purchased his brother's ranch one mile below Morgan. He moved the next day after disposing of the dray.

Mr. and Mrs. John Will, of this city, and Mrs. C. C. Chick and son Charles, of Heppner, left Sunday in the Wills car for Portland. When they reached The Dalles they decided to ship the car and the remaining part of the trip was made on the train. They returned Friday evening in Mr. Will's brand new Mitchell car, having traded the old car in on the new one. They report a grand trip with the exception of bad roads.

JOHN CHRISTOPHERSON RETURNS FROM FRANCE

John Christopherson, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Christopherson of the Gooseberry country arrived home Sunday evening, July 27th. He left home July 22nd, 1918, and was discharged at New York just one year from that date. He was in France about eight months and while there served in the infantry.

BE NATURAL--

Lay Something Away for the Future

It is natural to save—to provide for the future. The squirrel gathers nuts—the bee honey, to provide for the days when they cannot work.

The day will come when you will not be able to work—start NOW to provide for this time. If you have no account, open one here now. If you have one, add to it regularly, and watch it grow.
