NOTICE OF CONTEST

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office at La Grande, Oregon, August 6th, 1919.

To Harry McDevitt, of Pilot Rock, Oregon, Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Phil Higgins, of Lena, Oregon, who gives Lena, Oregon, as his post office address, did on June 19th, 1919, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your Homestead Entry, Serial No. 019190, made June 14th, 1918, for Lots 3 and 4, S 1/2 NW 1/4 Sec. 1, Lots 1 and 2 and SE 1/4 NE 1/4 Sec. 2, Township 4 South Range 29 East Willamette Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said Harry McDevitt has abandoned said homestead, has not built a house on same, nor made any improvements at all, that he is not in the employment in military service in connection with operations in Mexico, or along the border thereof, or in mobilization camps elsewhere in the military service of the United States or the national guard of any of the states.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be cancelled without further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office, within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Speed of Birds.

The speed of birds is often overrated. The swift, for instance, has been credited with a speed of 150 miles an hour, and the popular imagination compares the flight of a sparrowhawk with that of a cannon ball. The homing pigeon can be relied on under fairly easy conditions to make 60 miles an hour, or considerably more.

Had Origin in America. There has been much controversy over the song, "The Red, White and Blue," but the logical conclusion is that the English adapted their words from the American song, which was written by Thomas A. Becket, an Englishman, after he had made America his home. Before this song was written, in 1800, no similar version was known in England.

Ladies' Fine Hosiery

Fine hosiery is a very necessary part of every well-dressed lady's wardrobe—in fact just as important as good shoes or a nice hat.

Our showing of Ladies' Hosiery is exceptionally fine, when you consider how uncertain the hosiery market has been in the past—and still is for all that.
