

NEWS of IONE NEIGHBORHOOD

Butter Nut BREAD

Try Franz' Butter Nut Bread Today
FRESH SHIPMENTS DAILY TO
BRISTOW & JOHNSON
IONE, OREGON

BE NATURAL--

Lay Something Away for the Future

It is natural to save—to provide for the future. The squirrel gathers nuts—the bee honey, to provide for the days when they cannot work. The day will come when you will not be able to work—start NOW to provide for this time. If you have no account, open one here now. If you have one, add to it regularly, and watch it grow.

BANK of IONE

IONE GARAGE

C. L. O'NEILL, Proprietor, Ione, Oregon
Automobile Accessories and Supplies
Filtered Gasoline Station

Paul G. Balsiger

Farm Implements, Vehicles, Windmills, Pumps, and Gasoline Engines. We Sell Winona Wagons Tank Building Agency for Mitchell Cars.
Main Street Ione, Oregon

Frank Engelman

CONFECTIONERY, CIGARS, TOBACCOS AND SOFT DRINKS

Billiards and Pocket Billiards. Ice Cream Parlor in Connection. Latest Magazines and Periodicals. Oregonian Agency. Columbia Phonographs

Ione, Oregon

DR. CLYDE R. WALKER F. H. ROBINSON
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON ATTORNEY AT LAW
Phone Connections Ione, Oregon Main Street Ione, Oregon

CECIL ITEMS

J. H. Miller of Boardless Barn spent Sunday at the Franklin home.
E. J. Fairhurst of Busy Bee ranch was doing business in Cecil on Monday.
R. S. Wilson and sons of Rhea, were visiting friends in Morgan on Saturday.
Joe Marcus, who is working on the Fair View ranch, was an Ione visitor on Tuesday.
G. W. Witcomb also Mr. Gray of Morgan were business men in Cecil on Thursday.
F. R. Brown of Heppner was a busy man in Cecil and vicinity on Friday and Saturday.
Ralph Winters of Shady Dell, accompanied by his father, was an Ione visitor on Monday.
W. G. Hynd and A. C. Lowe of Sand Hollow, spent the week end in Cecil and took in the dance.
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Logan and family of the Willows spent Sunday with J. W. Osborn of Cecil.
Jack Hynd of Butterby Flats, left on the local on Wednesday for Heppner returning home on Friday.
J. E. Crabtree of Dotheboys Hill, and J. H. Miller of Boardless Barn, were doing business in the Eightmile district on Tuesday.

Mrs. Peter Nash and grandson, Francis, who have been visiting at the John Nash home for the past few days, returned home on Friday.
Geo. Krebs and sister, Miss Margaret, of the Last Camp, accompanied by Miss Etta Barnes of Poplar Grove, left on Friday morning for Portland.
Grover Curtiss of The Grand Dalles, who has lately been discharged from the army spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Nash of Ewing.

Glen Van Schoick of Dorena, arrived in Cecil on Monday and spent a few days at the Last Camp before proceeding to his brothers on Skinner creek.

A. Henriksen of Willow Creek, and Gilbert Mahoney left for Heppner on Tuesday, Mr. Henriksen will proceed up to the mountains to assist his son Clifford with the cattle.

Clifford Henriksen of Willow Creek left for his mountain ranch on Monday where he is going to round up a bunch of cattle ready to ship to Portland markets.

J. J. McEntire who has been up in Washington visiting his sheep camps, returned to Cecil on Thursday, John reports that the feed is very good where his sheep are at present.

Russell Ross who has been visiting among some of his friends around Heppner spent the week end with his brother, A. E. Ross, at the Bungalow previous to his return East.

A lawn party was held at the Last Camp on Thursday evening. The honor guest being Miss Margaret Krebs of Portland. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present. Games and amusements of all sorts were indulged in and refreshments served during the evening.

O. W. Barber of Mahomet, Ill., accompanied by Chas. H. Rickman, of Goleta, Calif., who are taking an auto trip, camped in Cecil Thursday evening, leaving for Portland Friday. Mr. Barber said that with what their expenses were at Cecil amounted to $145,000, since starting on their trip over the continent in a Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mahoney returning on Sunday to Heppner after their wedding trip were invited to leave the train at Cecil for a few moments, they were greeted by friends with all good wishes, feed lemonade was also handed to the happy couple, old shoes would have followed, but owing to the high cost of living not a sole was to be found in Cecil.

G. F. STEELE

WATCHMAKER and JEWELER

Fine Repairing of all Kinds

Ione Oregon

IONE ITEMS

Mrs. Walter Cason of Heppner, came down on the local Monday to spend the day with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield of Portland, arrived Sunday evening to make a short stay at the home of L. P. Davidson.

Joseph E. Cronan, president of the Bank of Ione, left Sunday for his home in Portland after spending several days here.

Miss Gladys Capen who has been visiting friends for the past two weeks, left Thursday morning for her home in Portland.

Miss Mira Frank returned Friday evening to her home in this place after spending several months with Mrs. Johnny McIntire of Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Rhea and little son arrived Tuesday evening from Stiles, Idaho, to visit with Mrs. Rhea's mother, Mrs. M. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield have been visiting relatives near Mechem and Lewistown, Idaho. They left Monday morning for their home in Portland.

Mrs. Celestine Balsiger, mother of Paul Balsiger, returned some days ago to her home in Ione after visiting relatives at Portland and White Salmon.

Miss Ruby Anderson of Harrisburg arrived Friday evening to visit at the home of G. F. Steele, Miss Anderson will teach at Joseph, Oregon, this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Franfl and little son accompanied by Doris Frank, a sister of Mr. Frank, left on Sunday morning for Kennewick, Wash., to visit relatives.

Ione Rebekah lodge initiated two new members last Thursday evening. In spite of the warm weather we had quite a good attendance. Refreshments were served.

Miss Florence Turner of Enterprise, arrived Thursday to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Douglas, of Ione. Miss Turner had been visiting relatives at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. McNamer accompanied by their friend, Miss Lucy Butler, went to Heppner Saturday afternoon on business. Miss Butler is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McNamer.

Mrs. Leonard McNabb and daughter, Olive, accompanied by her niece, Miss Dorothy Eastburner and father-in-law, Mr. Hicklen McNabb, who is now 82 years old and very active, arrived Monday from Delta, Iowa, and are guests at the home of Mrs. McNabb of Ione.

Mrs. W. T. McNabb and son, Wesley, returned Tuesday evening from a nine weeks' vacation spent at Portland, Corvallis, Junction City, Alesia and Wallport. They report a delightful trip. During their stay in Corvallis they visited Mrs. Gus. Read a daughter of Mrs. McNabb.

Rev. T. S. Hansaker of San Diego, Calif., will speak on the work he is now doing in the interest of the soldiers and sailors who come to San Diego in large numbers, Sunday evening, August 31, at the Ione Christian church. Everybody come.

Mrs. Chas. Onell received word from her folks at Kelso, Wash., stating her mother, Mrs. Hartwell, was seriously ill. Mrs. Onell and children and sister, Bessie Hartwell, left Sunday morning for that place. Mrs. Hartwell's former home was at Ione where she has many friends who are sorry to hear of her illness.

Miss Beatrice Spearry, who recently resigned her position with the Ione Bank, left a few days ago to visit friends and relatives at Eugene and Brownsville and probably will go to the coast for a short time. After Miss Spearry is through visiting these valley towns she will stop off at Portland and take a review course at Binke Walker college.

Lawrence Shutt and his friend, Mr. Sanders, who have been visiting the past few days at the Ellis Minor ranch, better known as the Shutt ranch, left Saturday afternoon for Heppner. Mr. Shutt is well and favorably known in this place and while waiting for the train the time was spent making pleasant calls. He made the remark to one of his lady friends that he felt at home at Mr. Minor's ranch, it being his former home and the peaches and cream tasted as good as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gammell, who have been living at Tumalo, Oregon, for several years, have leased the Gammell ranch on Heppner Flat and will reside there. They arrived from Tumalo a few days ago.

J. W. Stevens and son, Edson, of near Hardman, were in town Monday on business. Mr. Stevens says the harvesting is almost finished in his neighborhood and threshing is starting. The wheat crop is fair making around 15 bushels per acre.

Read the classified and find what you are seeking.

Read 'em to your profit. Classified

N. H. Whetstone, a veteran of the civil war, expects to attend the national re-union at Columbus, Ohio and will leave in a few days for the east.

Miss Louvella Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas, expects to leave for Portland in a few days where she will enter St. Mary's academy for the coming school year.

J. C. Ballenger, lumber dealer at the thriving town of Boardman, was a business visitor in Heppner Friday. Mr. Ballenger says everything is thriving at Boardman and the drought so much complained of in other sections of the country is not noticed there. The ditches are always filled with an abundance of water and the crops thrive accordingly.

One cent a word for classified. Try one.

Mrs. Bartholomew, of this city, accompanied by her son, Fred, of Portland, expects to leave in a few days for Columbus, Ohio, where they will attend the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. They will visit many eastern points before returning to Oregon.

A. F. Bremer, who came to the county last winter and bought the Redmond ranch below Ione was a caller Monday evening arranging for advertising an auction sale which he will hold September 6th. He wants to sell his dairy herd and give all his time to wheat. "Too much work, too long hours milking cows," says Mr. Bremer.

Classified ads on page 5.

"OREGON"—YOUR UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

SCHOOLS AND DEPARTMENTS: The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, and the special Schools of Law, Medicine, (at Portland), Architecture, Journalism, Commerce, Education and Music.

SPECIAL FEATURES: A beautiful campus, facilities of special-ists, modern facilities, low cost, with many opportunities for self-help, "athletes for everybody." A really democratic atmosphere—and the famous "Oregon Spirit."

For a catalogue, illustrated booklet or specific information, address: THE REGISTRAR, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, OREGON.

The Heppner Garage

Vaughn & Goodman

Successors to Albert Bowker

We will endeavor to carry a complete stock of tires, tubes, accessories and parts and will appreciate your patronage.

Our shop is operated by Messrs. Inman & Thornton, expert mechanics, for several years with the Covey Motor Car Company, of Portland.

WELCH AND LININGER

Best Auto and Tractor Work that Skill can give

SERVICE RENDERED WHEN YOU NEED IT MOST

Repair Department McRoberts-Cohn Auto Co.

PENNY A WORD

Advertisements under this heading one cent a word for each insertion. No ad for less than 15 cents. Ads are invariably cash in advance unless given by persons with duly established credit.

MISCELLANEOUS

WANTED—Married man wants position on ranch. No objections to stock ranch. Can operate truck. Box 175 Ione, Oregon. 16-17

FOR A SQUARE DEAL see Mrs. E. L. Bucknum for rooms by the night, week or month. Reasonable prices. Near First National Bank. 15-17

PHONE 842—J. O. Hager to have your wood sawed before it rains. -24

NOTICE—The young man who took the razor and home from hotel wash room at Parkers Mill hotel the night of the dance is known and to avoid trouble should return the article to the postmaster at Parkers Mill without delay. 14-17

WANTED—Lady bookkeeper wants a few hours work after supper. Enquire at Herald office. 12-17

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Good second hand range. Inquire of Mrs. George Swagert. 11-17

TRUCK FOR SALE

Three ton Packard truck in A No. 1 condition $1800. For particulars call on or address the Heppner Herald, Heppner, Oregon. 61-17

FOR SALE—Latest Werner edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica; 22 volumes; one more volume will bring it down to present date. Good binding. A bargain at less than one-half first cost price. Enquire at this office. 6-17

POSTS FOR SALE AT 90 CENTS EACH at Herrin Mill on Willow creek. Tamarac or Fir, or will cut on reserve for 75 cents. 16-19 I. D. BASKY.