THE WONDERFUL "BANANA BELT"

Dr. Conder came in from his Sand Hollow ranch Thursday forenoon and reported that the rain struck that favored community several hours before it reached Heppner. When the doctor left home at seven o'clock, he says, it was raining a pretty good lick and keep it up all day. "In that sand country that you people call a desert, it most always starts raining sooner and keeps it up longer than anywhere else in the county. Just keep your eye on the 'banana belt' for thrillers every time," says the doctor.
