

Pacific International Livestock Association

An organization composed of stockmen of the Pacific Northwest of which Portland is the natural marketing center.

An organization which has for its object the development of the Live Stock Industry in Oregon, Washington and Idaho on such a basis as will insure to the stockman the stabilizing of his business not only in production, but in shipping and marketing.

An organization which will be an educational factor in helping the producer to put out a better grade of product that will insure him the highest possible return from his labor and investment.

Pacific International Livestock Exposition Building

A building being erected by the stockmen of the Pacific Northwest at North Portland, Oregon, as a Stock Show Home, costing $250,000 and covering seven and one-half acres and which will be the biggest and finest building of its kind in the country. An educational and development center of tremendous importance to the livestock industry of the entire Pacific Northwest.

This gigantic building, now in course of construction, is about 70 per cent complete and every effort is being made to have the entire structure down to the last nail complete before the morning of the opening of the big Livestock Show next November.

The cost of this wonderful building has been apportioned among the stockmen of the different counties of the states interested.

Morrow County's Quota is $2,500.00

This advertisement is intended as an appeal to the stockmen and every citizen who is interested in the better development of the livestock industry to subscribe this amount without further delay. Most of the Oregon counties have long since completed their quotas.

Will Morrow County stockmen, bankers and business men longer allow this matter to drag? NO!

Stock in the Pacific International Livestock Exposition Building has been issued in shares of $25.00 each.

As soon as you read this advertisement call W. B. Barratt, S. W. Spencer or W. P. Mahoney who are in charge of the stock subscriptions in this county and say how many shares of stock you will take. DO IT NOW.

Let the world know that Morrow County is no piker.

Buy some stock in a proposition that will help your own business and the business of every man in the county. BUY STOCK IN

CECIL ITEMS

David Hynd and his sister, Miss Annie Hynd, who have been visiting various parts of Canada, spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. T. H. Lowe at Cecil, before leaving for their home in Sand Hollow. They have thoroughly enjoyed their two months trip, but still have seen nothing to come up to Morrow county.

Miss Georgia Summers of the Last Camp, spent several days in Heppner during the last week returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Miller and son, Alvin, of High View, were calling on Mrs. R. S. Wilson of Ewing on Saturday and also on J. M. Melton at The Lookout.

Mrs. Jack Hynd of Butterby Flats, who has been visiting with her mother in Arthur, Ontario, Canada, for the past few weeks, returned to her home on Tuesday. Mrs. Hynd was accompanied by one of her nephews, Russell Shaw, who has seen service in France and has just been discharged from the Canadian army and will visit around in Oregon for some time. Mrs. Hynd declares no place seems so good to her as her home on Willow creek among so much fine alfalfa.

A. R. Finlay, who has finished building the new house at the Lookout, for Jack Hynd, left for Portland Friday.

Geo. and Henry Krebs, Walter Pope, Otto Finley, Roy Stende, Mrs. Bennett, Miss A. C. Lowe and Miss Juanita Crabtree were among the Round-up visitors from Cecil.

Melville V. Logan of Portland, is visiting with his brother, Leon, at Four Mile.

J. W. Osborn who has been kicked on the knee by one of his horses, paid a visit to Dr. Chick at Heppner and had his wound attended to.

Krebs Bros. have been busy moving a house from the Molton place to one of their sheep sheds during the week. We heard it has been called the "Shepherd's Rest."

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Farnsworth and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wilson.

Everett Logan, of the Willows, was a caller at Mr. J. H. Franklin's Sunday.

Mr. Gorton accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hardesty, of Morgan, spent Sunday visiting their Cecil friends.

John Vekers, who has been working on Skinner creek, arrived on the local on Monday and will work at the Last Camp for Minor and Kregg.

Mrs. Winton Jefferson and son of Heppner, are visiting with Mrs. Ben Barnes of Poplar Grove.

Miss Clarice Middlewait will teach at the Rhea school for the school term. She will make her home with Mrs. H. Farnsworth.

Frank Engelman of Ione, made a short call in Cecil Monday.

Mrs. A. Blahn arrived in Cecil on Monday from Heppner. She will work at Butterby Flats for Mrs. Jack Hynd.

Miss Hazel Winter of Shady Dell, who has been visiting friends in Ione, returned home Sunday.

J. H. Miller of Boardless Barn, left on a business trip to Freewater Saturday.

His Language.
Mother told sister that baby came from heaven, so when baby was eight months old sister said to a playmate: "Our baby is talkin' now, but we can't understand him, 'cause he talks sky talk."

Daily Thought.
The one thing in the world which is of value, is the active soul.—Emerson.

DON'T KNOCK

If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing. If you like it or you love him, tell him now. Don't withhold your approbation, till the parson makes oration. As he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow,

For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it; He won't know how many tear drops you have shed, If you think some praise is due him, Now's the time to pass it to him. For he cannot read his tombstone when he's dead.

Pity He Didn't Miss Them.
Entomology does not record the first appearance of the cootie, but we suppose that they were not slighted in the trip Noah made to save two of every living thing.
