SNAPPY SAYINGS

A boss is one who gets things done. None of us can buy good will; we must earn it.

If you must have wrinkles, get them from laughing.

The man that everybody likes usually likes everybody.

Anyhow, the rolling stone gets the rough corners knocked off.

Beauty is only skin deep but meanness goes clear to the marrow.

Evidently Russia's idea of democracy is that everybody should be poor.

Never put off until tomorrow what should have been done yesterday. Often the man who is most down on a thing is the one who is least up on it. The two great causes of human misery are these: To want a thing and not be able to get it, and to get a thing and find you don't want it.

Better wages and working conditions were never obtained by a brick-bat and dynamite brigade, but by an honest leader capable of tempering the action or his followers, and who didn't get red and belier at the sight of a rolltop desk,-The Finder.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

In the United States every ninth marriage ends in a divorce.

There are 12,000,000 wage earning women in the United States. In India only 12 women in every 1,- 000 of full age can read and write. Texas was the ninth state to ratify the federal constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women.

Of the 400 members of the teaching staff at Columbia university this summer, 110 will be women.

Mayor Hylan of New York city, will employ a woman lawyer to defend wemen in the women's court.

Although the late Amella E. Barr, was the author of more than 75 novels, she left an estate valued at only $550.

The Women's Trade Union league with over 500,000 members has pledged its support to the American Laborparty.

Four women are members of the first class to be graduated from the law department of the University of Egtherine P. Edson of the industrial welfare commission, says that the cost of living for women has increased 41 per cent since 1914.

At the request of the French government, United States women expert canners have gone to that country to teach their methods.

The divorce rate in Canada is about one divorce for every 100,000 of population, while in the United States it is 112 per 100,000 of population.
