Tassel in Cloth Dressing.

Few people probably have heard of tassel, which is grown for the purpose of cloth dressing. The wild tassel is found in English hedges and copses and bears a purple flower in July. The function of the tassel is to raise the nap of the cloth, although to some extent it has been superseded by the use of wire brushes.

Man's Friend. The funeral of Harold Bannister, an outlander of Leyland, was followed by his favorite dog. It entered the church with the mourners, and sitting by the bier, occasionally sniffed at the coffin. At the graveside the dog sat still while the coffin was being lowered and then put its paws on the edge of the grave and took a farewell stroll of its late master.—London Express.
