UNPROFITABLE AS WELL AS WRONG

It is unprofitable as well as wrong to borrow your neighbor's newspaper as the following from the Sebree, (Ky.) Banner very clearly proves:

A man who was too stingy to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by a neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His father ran to his assistance, and failing to notice the barb wire fence ran into that, cutting a hole in his anatomy and ruining a $5 pair of trousers. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing a racket, the wife ran out, upset a four-gallon churn full of cream into a basket of little chickens, drowning the entire hatch. In her haste she dropped a $35 set of false teeth. The baby, having been left alone, ruined a brand-new $25 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up 11 setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts on the clothes line.

SNIPING THE PRESIDENT

At a recent meeting of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce Thomas A. Dunn, a director of the chamber severely criticized Senator Poindexter of the State of Washington for taking advantage of the celebration of Constitution Day in Pittsburgh, at which he delivered an address and which had for its theme: "The Constitution," but which degenerated into a harangue against the League of Nations and the President of the United States. Director Dunn said that never again would the chamber submit to such an outrage. A leading paper of the city had said that Senator Poindexter indulged in sniping the President of the United States. Mr. Dunn said this performance was in exceedingly bad taste, and he did not think it would ever again be permitted.—Eastern Exchange.
