Stuffed Turkey with Heppner Bakery Bread

A majority of the Turkeys eaten in Heppner on Thanksgiving Day will be stuffed with Heppner Bakery Bread.

The clean wholesomeness and good taste that our Bread has, add a delightful flavor to the dressing. And be sure to order enough to have on the table, too.

See the special showing of pastries we will have for Thanksgiving.

Through Thrift

Our Forefathers Prospered

It was through stern necessity that the Puritans learned the valuable habit of saying:

Only their indomitable grit and determination separated them from starvation—for through Thrift they prospered and were Thankful. Now, with only a little self-denial, we can save what to the world have been a fortune. And how much more reason we have than they to be thankful.
