BEST COWS BEAT GOOD COWS

The 4296 Oregon cows tested in September gave an average of 533.8 pounds milk containing 24.63 pounds fat. The best herd gave an average of 830 pounds milk yielding 43.74 pounds fat. The best single cow produced 1479 pounds milk carrying 85 pounds fat. Association men bought 3 pure bred cows, built 2 silos and sold 15 loafers for beef. In giving out the figures E. L. Westover, federal and college dairy extension specialist, asks all dairymen who can to go to the Pacific International Livestock show at Portland November 17-22. It will be the biggest livestock show ever held in the west, he says.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mesdames Chas. Vaughn and Earl Gilliam were hostesses last Wednesday afternoon at the Vaughn home when about 50 guests were charmingly entertained at bridge. Eleven tables were occupied during the afternoon following which delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Johnson, of Portland, was winner of the first prize and Mrs. C. Darbee captured the second honor, the consolation prize going to Mrs. Fred Luce.

These present report a most pleasant afternoon.

Mesdames Clyde Wells, D. M. Ward and A. L. Ayers were hostesses to a large party of ladies at the Wells home last Thursday afternoon when a particularly interesting session of bridge was enjoyed. About 50 guests were present and all report a most delightful afternoon.

Honors were awarded Mrs. H. C. Bean, first; Miss Mary Farnsworth, second; Mrs. Farrier, consolation.

Mrs. Darbee favored with two delightful solos during the afternoon and the guests enjoyed delicious refreshments following the games.

Active grading work on the highway was begun this week at Morgan, where the first camp has been established. Contractor Oscar Huber was here the first of the week accompanied by his general manager, field superintendent and foreman, and announced that the work would be pushed with a view to finishing the contract by April 1, next. The main camp will be at Ione, crews working in both directions from this place.—Independent.
