G. W. Milbolland returned Friday from a business trip to Portland.

Do you want to catch the morning train? Call F. A. Case, Main 524, 509 Mr. Devine, of near Ione, was here Saturday attending the Farm Bureau meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor and children went to Portland Wednesday for a few days visit.

Dick Swift, well known resident of Hardman, was a visitor in Heppner several days last week.

Are you going to move? Call F. A. Case, Main 524. 3011

Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Whiteley went to Terrebonne Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carter were in town Saturday doing some shopping and looking after business matters.

Have you baggage to move? Call F. A. Case, Main 524. 3011

Ed Rugg was in from his Rhea creek ranch boosting for a real county fair while attending the Farm Bureau meeting.

Do you need a load of wood coal or any kind of hauling? Call F. A. Case, Main 524. 3011

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer have gone to Portland for a month's visit and will stay at the Imperial hotel while in the city.

Sam E. Van Vactor went to Condon Sunday to be present at the regular term of circuit court in session in that city this week.

Cecil Ahalt, Whit Ewing and Clifford Hendriksen were up from Cecil Thanksgiving evening taking in the grand ball at the pavilion.

Ed Reisman, of near Ione, was a visitor in Heppner Saturday coming up to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Farm Bureau of which organization he is vice president.

Miss Gwendolyn Darbee, who is a student at Lincoln high school in Portland, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. Darbee.

Heppner didn't miss one of Portland's celebrated "silver thaws" but by a small margin last Saturday night. We call it a sleet storm up in this old fashioned country, however.

Mrs. W. B. Barratt and two daughters went to Portland Wednesday where they will join Mr. Barratt, who has been in Portland for a couple of weeks and Garnet and Miss Eileen who are students at O. A. The family will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in the city.

Students of Reed college in Portland have asked permission to send additional delegates to the religious conference to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, during the Christmas vacation. The students have already subscribed more than enough to pay the expenses of their delegates and at least five will be sent.

Ors L. Barlow was in from his Eightmile ranch home Friday and among other errands called at the Herald office to have his copy transferred from the tone list to Heppner. Mr. Barlow, who lived at Ione before going into the service, went out on the ranch after getting out of the army last summer.

R. W. Turner heard a committee of the Farm Bureau that will appear before the county court tomorrow to present the bureau's plan for the re-organization of the Morrow County fair. The Farm Bureau, it may be added, is about the only live promotion organization now functioning in this part of Morrow County.

Federal Judge and Mrs. R. S. Bean, of Portland, came out from the city Thursday for a short visit with their son and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bean. Judge Bean, who is now one of the most eminent jurists on the coast, first visited Heppner in 1880, when he had to "stage it" into the town which was then not very big, but probably prolific in activities that made business for young lawyers. Judge Bean was in search of evidence on the occasion of his former visit and he must have found it the best trip as he did not come back for almost 40 years.

MARRIED

Meads-Strickler

A quiet wedding was solemnized in this city yesterday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Glend Cox, when Miss Mabel E. Strickler became the bride of Mr. George H. Mead, Rev. H. A. Noyes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony.

Both of the high contracting parties are well known and popular residents of the Blackhorse neighborhood, the groom being the son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. W. Mead, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strickler. The happy young couple will reside in the Blackhorse section.

GIVE THE OLD MEN A CHANCE

Having reached that age where men are not wanted in either commercial or industrial life, being turned down in favor of younger men, but feeling that I am not yet ready to be laid on the shelf, I am now going to specialize in insurance and ask your patronage.

LEON W. BRIGGS, Heppner, Oregon.

TO MY CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS

Having sold my harness and auto-top business to Mr. Bert P. Stone, better known as Signey, I take this method of thanking my many friends for the nice business and many favors extended to me in the past.

I retain the saddle business, in fact all that pertains to the wants of the cowboy, will continue to manufacture the famous Noble saddle which is ridden in all parts of the civilized world.

Our old friend, Stoney, who has been in my employ for sixteen years, is a postmaster in the harness and auto-top business, and his integrity as a man is beyond reproach, give him a chance when you are in trouble he will fix you up.

Thanking you again for the many favors, I am Yours respectfully, F. G. NOBLE

Wirthmore Silk Blouses Your choice for only $5.00

As their name indicates, they are—as always—Worth More—Much More—

They are made of Georgette Crepe, Crepe de Chine and Tub Silks of Splendid Quality.

The price of Silk Fabrics is excessively high—"Women's Wear" of November 5, reports advances of over 200 per cent in Silk Fabrics.

On today's market, the price at which these Blouses are being sold would not pay for the material.

FOR YOUR OWN USE OR FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS Buy These Wirthmore Blouses Now

As these are positively the last that can be sold at this very low price—and only because contracted last May at prices then prevailing. These materials have been used up and prices must advance, which is not surprising—rather it is surprising that the price has been kept down so long, but it is in accord with the Wirthmore policy—"KEEP PRICES AS LOW AS YOU CAN, AS LONG AS YOU CAN."

MINOR & COMPANY

Mr. Man Without a Home

Have you noticed in your daily work that things always go better when you sorter plan your work ahead the night before?

At first, more than half the work we do is the thinking over the planning one must do in connection with it.

After a while doing it the same way becomes a habit—then the work comes easy.

But in building a home you have little or nothing to guide you, for unlike your other daily work, you cannot profit by the frequent mistakes. This makes it all the more necessary for you to do a lot of planning before you start to build.

The kind of planning that takes into consideration all the good things you have promised your-self all these years that you have been looking forward to putting into a new home.

When you get ready to plan your new Home, we would like to have you call on us, as we have number of good plans to choose from, from which you can secure some good ideas.
