

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

F. R. Brown is spending a few days in Portland on business.

Ralph Justice drives over to Pendleton yesterday afternoon.

F. A. McMenamin went to Spokane last night on legal business.

G. W. Milneford, Standard Oil manager, went to Portland Thursday on business.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Butler spent the week end with friends on Rock creek, near Olex.

Frank Monahan, who has been seriously ill for some time, is reported much improved.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING—Remodeling and Ladies Tailoring, Mrs. Curran, Church Street, 37-41

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor spent Lincoln Day visiting their farm on upper Willow creek.

Ed King, prominent farmer of the Rhea creek section, was a business visitor to Heppner Saturday.

WANTED—Respectable woman as housekeeper and cook on small ranch. Call or address this office. 1111

J. W. Osborne, a well known citizen of the Coall country, was a business visitor to Heppner yesterday.

M. J. Clapp, one of the efficient corps of teachers of the fine public schools, was a visitor to Heppner Saturday.

Frank Hughes, who has been in Wyoming for more than a year, has returned to Heppner for a short visit with friends.

N. F. Lawson, who has been in quarantine for some time on account of small pox, is out again and says he is glad of it.

Percy Claud Cox and family have left for Western Oregon and will engage in the dairy business in the Siletz river section.

Dr. Beah reports the arrival of twins, a boy and a girl, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lieusden, on Rhea creek last Thursday.

WANTED—About 2 dozen pure bred White Leghorn pullets. Must be pure-bred, of good strain. Mrs. Viola Carter. 33-42pc

Mrs. G. H. Sperry, who with her husband and children resided on Rhea creek, is reported to have died this morning as a result of influenza. Other members of the family are reported seriously ill.

W. H. Cronk expected to leave this morning for Boise, Idaho, where he goes to attend a convention of the Western Retail Lumber Dealer's association as one of the representatives of the Touse-Lum Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno are moving to the B. J. Blittle ranch near Lone for the remainder of the winter.

The Coak property, 500 Terrace Heights, occupied by G. W. Milneford, and lately has been sold to Mr. Jackson, of near Hardman, who will occupy the property next fall.

Prof. Johnson, principal of the Lexington public schools, was here Saturday attending a meeting of the school principals of the county.

Jake Wells was off duty a few days last week on account of going out to his bee hives one warm afternoon to see if the busy little bees were working. They were.

FOR SALE—Fifteen head of good registered Jacks. Will take mule suits from these Jacks at $100 each in part or full payment for these Jacks. B. F. SWAGGART, Lexington, Oregon. 411f.

"Happy" Hayes returned from Portland Saturday evening where he has been attending the high school of commerce since September. He will remain here for a few months before resuming his studies.

FOR SALE—Or will trade for home and lot or a vacant lot in Heppner or for an automobile. 160 acres of good wheat land with 120 adjoining that can be homesteaded. See F. R. Brown, Brown Building, for particulars. 43-12

J. W. Morrow, who most old time Heppnerites still call "Billy," was out from Portland for a few days last week, looking after business affairs and creating his numerous friends. Mr. Morrow may be a native of Heppner, at least he is a son of "Uncle Jack" Morrow, for whom the county was named and who was for many years one of the county's leading citizens.

C. B. SPERRY OF LONE WILL RUN FOR SHERIFF

C. B. Sperry, pioneer of the lone section, and one of the leading business men of that city, has announced his candidacy for the office of sheriff of Morrow county and will seek nomination on the democratic ticket. Mr. Sperry is engaged in the grain business at lone and the farmers down that way are boasting for him strong which would indicate that he has treated them pretty good.

In a letter to the Herald received last evening in which Mr. Sperry announces his candidacy he says: "If I am nominated and elected I will certainly enforce the laws to the very best of my ability," which is about all any man can do. Further announcement of Mr. Sperry's candidacy will appear later.

Blouse Clearance

IN SPITE OF THE CONTINUALLY RISING COSTS OF EVERYTHING IN MERCHANDISE WE ARE ENABLED TO OFFER THIS WEEK AN EXCEPTIONALLY ATTRACTIVE LINE OF

Fine Voile Blouses $1.00

Come early while the assortment is good and buy several. You will not have another opportunity like this.

These Blouses are much cheaper than you can make

Another table full of remnants and other bargains.

Do Not Miss These Bargains

Minor & Company

Read the Herald, only $2.00 a year.

Judge F. H. Robinson, Frank Engelman, Charlie Perry, E. E. Miller and a few more representatives of Lone's society went, were in Heppner last Wednesday evening attending Elk's lodge.

Jack Hynd came up from Cecl on Wednesday to help make his brother, Dave, an Elk. As he had about 100 other members of the antlered tribe to assist with the ceremonies the job may be said to have been well done.

Lee Copenhaver, of Seattle, was here a few days last week attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Matt T. Hughes. Mr. Copenhaver returned to Seattle Sunday. He is engaged in the restaurant business in that city.

Star Theatre

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19th CONSTANCE TALMAGE IN
Up the Road With Sallie

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20th
Parent Teachers Program, 20-30 cts.
Pictures, Songs, Drills, Recitations

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21st
Parent Teachers Matinee 2:30 P. M.
10c and 20c

SATURDAY EVEN., FEB. 21st
CHARLEY CHAPLIN
In one of his late big pictures
"SUNNYSIDE"
and STELLIE TALBOT in
"The Price of Innocence"

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd
DOROTHY PHILLIPS in
"The Right to Happiness"

The Big Play of the Present Day, 30 and 50 cents

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd
Lyceum--"OLDFASHIONED GIRLS"

Out of the "Long Ago" step forth charming girls bewitchingly attractive in hoop skirts, hand mitts and "bunnits." In a minute they sweep aside the work-a-day worries, cares and troubles by carrying you back with them thru story and song to the olden days. Here are visualized for you the quaint pictures which thru all your years have hung on "Memory's Wall."

COMING, FEBRUARY 28th, "BACK TO GOD'S COUNTRY"

DO YOUR TIRES NEED ATTENTION?

HAVE YOUR TIRES AND TUBES RECEIVED INJURIES THAT SHOULD BE ATTENDED TO?

Maybe that left front tire has a break in the fabric and you are looking for it to blow out a perfectly good tube any day, or maybe that right rear tire has a bad cut in the rubber which is allowing the mud and water to rot the fabric or cords.

WHY NOT HAVE THOSE INJURIES ATTENDED TO WHILE YOUR CAR IS IDLE?

TIRES (Cords or Fabrics) TUBES VULCANIZED

YOUR WORK CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED. CALL MAIN 872. ALL WORK LEAVING THIS SHOP IS FULLY GUARANTEED

Stephen M. Irwin

GATES HALF-TIRES
Authorized Service Station

VULCANIZING

GILMAN BUILDING

HEPPNER, OREGON