

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class of the Heppner High School will present the laughable three-act comedy

"Mrs. Briggs OF THE Poultry Yard"

At the High School Auditorium
Friday Evn., April 16

Curtain 8:00 P. M.

Admission 35c and 50c

If you want to enjoy a good hearty laugh don't miss this play

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson drove to Pendleton Saturday afternoon returning Sunday evening.

Pete Farley was in town from his ranch Monday looking well pleased with the fine growing weather.

WANTED—Respectable woman as housekeeper and cook on small ranch. Call or address this office. 41tf

Jim Farely was up from Willows where he is running his sheep, spending the week end with his family.

Frank Cramer and Mr. Myers were over from Boardman Saturday on road business with the county court.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING—Remodeling and Ladies Tailoring. Mrs. Curren, Church street. 37tf

Dr. B. F. Butler left for Portland this morning on a business trip which may keep him in the city for some time.

Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Vaughan returned from Baker Sunday evening where they spent the Easter holidays with relatives.

Harvey McRoberts of near Lexington, was in town Saturday making final profit on his homestead before County Clerk Waters.

WANTED—A Good Second-hand Bed, Springs, Mattress; also One Good Rug and Dresser. Inquire at the Herald office. 48tf

Van Marter's shearing crew left this morning for Alderdale, Wash., where they will start shearing tomorrow. The crew expected to open the season March 1st but inclement weather held them back for six full weeks.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred S. C. Rhode Island Red eggs for hatching. $1.50 per setting of 15 eggs. Call Main 92. Mrs. Roy Whitels. 47-50

Morrow county soil is soaked to bedrock farmers tell us and the prospects for a bumper crop were never better. During the storm last night 65-100 inches of rain fell and indications are that more showers are in store.

W. H. Stewart, of Boardman, was here during the week representing his community before the county court while that body was considering the proposed road to connect the north end of the county with the county seat.

The sidewalk builders are making a big change in the appearance of upper Main street. New walks are all upper Main street. New walks are almost completed to the power house in front of the McNamee lot at Main and May streets.

Dan Stalter, who has been visiting his daughter at Payette, Idaho, for some time, returned to Heppner on Wednesday evening. Mr. Stalter says the Idaho country is booming, especially the city of Nampa which is rapidly becoming a business rival of Boise.

Joseph Eskelson was in town last Wednesday arranging some business affairs before leaving with Mrs. Eskelson for an extended visit at Tacoma where the critical illness of a relative calls them. Mr. and Mrs. Eskelson are also planning an extended trip east a little later in the season.

Oscar Borg went to Portland Sunday where he will join Mrs. Borg who has been visiting in the Rose City for some time and together they will enjoy a pleasant trip to San Francisco and other California points where they will remain for a couple of weeks.

The plate glass front is being placed in the north room of the new Elks' building today by workmen sent out by the W. P. Fuller Co., of Portland. The room will be occupied by M. L. Curran as a billiard parlor. A new plate was also put in the Gilliam & Bisbee front replacing one broken while being set last winter.

B. G. Stigsbee, Heppner's movie magnate, went to Portland Sunday on business connected with the furnishing and opening of his new theatre in the Elks' building which auspicious event in local filmdom will take place about June 1st. This new theatre will be second to none in a town of equal size in the northwest when opened and Mr. Stigsbee, during his connection with the Star, as local manager, has proven that he knows how to not only give good entertainment but also to treat the public right which is worth something.

Mrs. Ed Curran, of Vancouver, Washington, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Alice Curran, were here for a few days during the week visiting Mrs. Curran's mother, Mrs. Meek, and her sister, Mrs. W. P. Servino, at the latter's home here.

Last Sunday was Mrs. Meek's 54th birthday and the happy event was celebrated by a family dinner party at the Servino home. Mrs. Meek is remarkably active for a woman of her years and celebrated the day (Sunday) by walking to Christian Science services at I. O. O. F. hall in the morning, and in the afternoon by walking to the cemetery and back.

Mrs. Curran and daughter left for their home Monday morning.

S
A
F
E
T
Y
&

S
E
R
V
I
C
E

Cultivate Your Money

WHEN YOU PLANT GRAIN OR GARDEN TRUCK YOU NEVER KNOW WHETHER YOU WILL GET A GOOD CROP OR A POOR ONE.

WHEN YOU PLANT YOUR DOLLARS, NICKELS OR DIMES AND QUARTERS IN THIS STRONG SAFE BANK YOU CAN BE SURE THAT IT WILL BRING BACK A NORMAL CROP OF INTEREST YEAR AFTER YEAR—AND WITH NEVER A WORRY.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR NEW LOT OF SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES. WE WILL BE PLEASED TO SHOW THEM TO YOU.

First National Bank

HEPPNER, OREGON

Star Theatre

Rupert Julian

Creator of "THE KAISER the Beast of Berlin" in an amazing pieturization of Wm. J. Neidig's great Saturday Evening Post Story

RUPERT JULIAN in "THE FIRE FLINGERS"

See this amazing picture filmed from Wm. J. Neidig's wonderful Saturday Evening Post story that created a sensation. If you've read the story you'll be thrilled by this great pieturce play. If you haven't read it you'll enjoy it just the same. It's great! See it!

"The Fire Flingers"

The story that made a Nation lose its sleep.

Thursday, April 15

Olive Thomas in

'The Follies Girl'

A daring dancer defies dignity

Friday, April 16

Vivian Martin in

"Jane Goes A-Wooing"

A stenographer who chews gum, but is spunky and high spirited

Saturday, April 17

Sunday, April 18

"Confession" A De Lux Special

Prices 30c and 50c

Heppner high school ball team went to Ione Saturday where they lost a game to the Ione school team in a score of 14 to 15.

Never before has there been so much moisture in the ground in that section as at present. Mr. Ritchie says and the prospects for a bumper crop for the wheat country north of Lexington are good.

Mrs. Ada Woodward who formerly resided on Butter creek in this county, was here from Hermiston Monday on business. Mrs. Woodward purchased an irrigated alfalfa ranch on the Hermiston project last year and is well pleased with her new location. The alfalfa is making a fine growth now, Mrs. Woodward says and the county looks very promising.

"A Housewives' dream" —realized

HONESTLY — haven't you always wanted a sweeper that "cleaned deep" and yet required no "connections", "plugs" or other time-consuming annoyances?

It's here now—and it's surprisingly low in price is not an electric yet it gives you a strong suction to lift up the dust, dirt, and ravellings which are loosened and swept up by the revolving bristle brush. Like most good things, it is amazingly simple and so free from complication and bulky "machinery" that a child can operate it.

One demonstration completely convinces

Case Furniture Company