HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students have been practicing for the coming track meet to be held at Lexington the first of May. All the students are anxious to see Heppner high take off the honors again this year.

The girls of the athletic association are busy selling tickets for the base ball games. The athletic association has offered prizes to the girls selling the most tickets.

The Student Body voted a fifty dollar liberty bond into the treasury of the athletic association. This is one of the bonds bought by the Hehlich fund. This money is to be used in buying new apparatus for gym work, both for the girls and the boys.

Mrs. Brunquist of Parkdale, Oregon, has been visiting her many friends in Heppner.

Bernice Githens entertained the Senior class at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Brunquist, the former advisor of the class, was guest of honor. Many plans were laid thru the course of the evening for the future activities of the class.

The ouija board class also caused much merriment. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Herbert Hynd rendered a saxophone solo; Bernice Githens a violin solo and Miss Silling a vocal solo.

The Sophomore class had their class party Friday evening, April 9, 1920. The class had a "hard time" party and the person who was dressed the most ridiculous received a prize.

The refreshments were cake, ice cream, sandwiches and chocolate. The class spent a jolly good time playing games.

HEPPNER FAIR COMMITTEE REPORTS GOOD PROGRESS

Chairman Clark, of the fair subscription soliciting committee reports good progress in the work.

The committee went out for a short time Saturday afternoon and again for a little while Monday and secured subscriptions amounting to something over $5000.

Mr. Clark says the committee is meeting with encouragement generally and he believes the quota will be raised in the Heppner district within a short time.

The stormy weather of last week interfered with earlier completion of the work not only in Heppner but in the outlying districts.
