

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Burnett, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cochran for some time, left for Arlington Thursday where Mr. Burnett has been appointed as receiver for the Hotel Grande. The hotel has been owned and operated for several years by E. L. Maddock, formerly of Heppner. Emmett Cochran drove to Arlington Friday returning to Ione for the Elks' dance that night. Mrs. Cochran met him at Ione returning with him in the car.

WHO CAN SYMPATHIZE?

The following letter was quoted at a recent convention of the Iowa State Retail Merchants' Association by Senator George M. Peterson, who is secretary of the Minnesota association, as one he received from a member of the association in excusing his inability to pay his association dues, says the Silverton Appeal. Possibly it may strike a responsive chord in some other weary mercantile heart.

Dear Senator:—For the following reasons I am unable to send you the check asked for.

I have been held up, held down, sand-bagged, walked on, sat on, flattened out and squeezed.

First by the United States government for federal war tax, the excess profit law, the Liberty Bond loans, thrift stamps, capital stock, merchants' license, auto tax and every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can construct to extract what I may or may not have in my possession.

From the Society of St. John, the Baptist, the Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief, the Navy League, the Red Cross, the Double Cross, the Children's Home, the Dorcas Society, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Young Men's Christian Association the Boy Scouts, the Jewish Relief, the Belgian Relief, and every hospital in town.

The government has so governed my business that I don't know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined and re-examined, informed required and commanded, so I don't know who I am, where I am, or why I am here. All I know is that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race, and because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow or steal money, money to give away I am accused, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied to, lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined, and the only reason that I am clinging to life is to see what in hell is coming next.—Exchange.

WAR RISK INSURANCE

The American Legion through the office of Department Adjutant of Oregon, 225 Morgan building, Portland, is doing an enormous insurance business.

A steady stream of former fighters of the army, navy and marine corps are receiving advice and attention on matters of their war risk insurance. The insurance department is also handling the claims for additional overseas pay, travel pay, allotments, liberty bonds, and also compensation matters that are not settled after original claims have been filed.

The records of the insurance business from the 11th of March to the 21st show a total amount of re-instatements of $425,500.00 and the conversions to United States government life insurance, amount to $129,500.00 making a total business in re-instatements and conversions for 21 days of $555,000.00

E. J. Evers, department adjutant and service office of the American Legion at 225 Morgan building, Portland, is making every possible effort to acquaint former service men and women with their rights and benefits under the war risk insurance act, and all concerned are urged to call or write to the above address where individual service awaits any claim they may have against the government to their service or counsel and advice in matters of their government insurance. Information on the above can be also obtained from the war risk officer of any post of the American Legion in the department of Oregon by any ex-service man or their relatives interested in the same.

"A Word to the Wise" says the Good Judge

You want real chewing satisfaction.

A little of the Real Tobacco Chew lasts so much longer than the old kind.

You don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—so it costs no more to chew this class of tobacco.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
