LADIES ENTERTAIN AT BRIDGE

A pleasant social event of the past week was the party given at the home of Mrs. H. F. Butler, last Wednesday afternoon when some 24 ladies were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Butler, Mrs. S. A. Pattison and Mrs. F. A. McMenamin. It was a joy of entertainment provided and a most pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. W. P. Mahoney was fortunate in capturing the first prize an artistic landscape in oil which was painted by Mrs. Butler for the occasion. Mrs. H. Hughes secured the second prize, a choice bit of hand painted china.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers and following the games delicious refreshments were served.

IN TERMS OF INVESTMENT

Education, just as capital, pays interest when invested and counts as an economic factor when it is allowed to sit idle. There is a loss of time, interest and results a loss resulting in greater loss of capital, less education, less knowledge. A college educated in a course may at best return 22 per cent, but a college educated in education can quickly double itself.

Take the youth from school ages he has completed the academic grades let him work for the rest of his life and he will receive, on the average, $750 a year. Give him the four years of high school and he will produce $1200 a year, or add 24 per cent more. Give him a technical or professional training, such as law, or in a college or university, and his productive power is $1500 a year, or 26 per cent more for the added four years.

Or take, if you will, $1.50 out of every $1000 on which you may invest. Is there any place it can be invested to give a greater return than in educating young men and women to properly touch the growing generation? Is there any place it will in four years increase by 26 per cent the producing power of a young man or woman for the rest of his or her life? The higher educational field asks for that $1.50 now so that Oregon may have $2100 citizens next year and for years to come instead of $1250 citizens.—East Oregonian.

FUDGE PARTY

Miss Dorothy Pattison entertained at her home Saturday evening with a fudge party. Eight girls were present and enjoyed a most enjoyable time. The evening was spent in making candy and playing check.

Those present were Helen Curran, Kathleen Mahoney, Esther Neel, Bernice Woodson, Elsie Shuey, Fay Hitchie and Mary Van Vactor.

RUNNING THE COUNTRY

When the recruits were gathered upon the training grounds, orators told them that after the war the soldier would "run the country". In response to this information, the recruit uttered the word, "Gut!" in a strictly undisguised tone of voice.

Nevertheless, we know that for many years after the Civil War, the former soldier did run the country. But the country did not come to the soldier and say, "Please run me." Nothing can be accomplished except by organization. The census of 1917 or 1918 can "run the country" and can "run it right" if it wants to; for the organization is offered him in The American Legion. The time to join is now.

THE USE AND MISUSE OF THE FLAG

In these days when all Americans are proud to see our Flag with its stars flying to the breeze, I wonder how many of us realize how often it is used in an improper manner.

To quote briefly from "The Correct Display of the Stars and Stripes," as given in the "National Geographic Magazine": It should not be allowed to touch the ground, or trail in the dust or water. An old, faded, or worn out Flag should not be used.

When no longer fit for display the Flag should be destroyed properly, preferably by burning.

It should not be draped over chairs or benches for sewing purposes, and no object or emblem of ill usage should be placed upon or above it.

It should never be used as a cover for any table. It naturally follows that the Flag should never be used as a cover on the top of an automobile, spread over the radiator or trail in the mud behind the car as the writer has seen done on too many occasions.

To quote further, and let me emphasize this strongly, "when the National Colors are passing on parade, or in review, the spectator should, if walking, halt; if sitting, arise; stand at attention and uncover." In other words, take off your hat and show respect for your Flag.

This Flag is—or ought to be—the most sacred thing in earth to us. Men have lived it enough to go into hell for it and die for it and give for it and what it represents, the least we can do is to show our love and reverence for it by our care in displaying it and a respectful attitude when it passes by.

This Flag is—or ought to be—the most sacred thing in earth to us. Men have lived it enough to go into hell for it and die for it and give for it and what it represents, the least we can do is to show our love and reverence for it by our care in displaying it and a respectful attitude when it passes by.

On this coming Memorial Day when the Flag flutters not only above the green tents where so many thousands of the brave defenders of the Union lie sleeping, but also above the thousands of newer graves in the fields of France, let us with tender reverence, show our love to Old Glory by our scrupulous care in its display.

People of Heppner and Morrow county, let us lead in a crusade against the slightest misuse of our Flag: Many times it is done unintentionally or ignorantly, therefore let us show, by precept and example how reverently our Flag should be treated.

When we look at its glorious colors, let us remember the awful price that has been paid to keep the stars in the field of blue, and the white pure and without stain.

"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet."

Let us forget, let us forget.

body, the Heppner band will lead the procession from this city and there will be a big dance pavilion provided for those who enjoy the terpsichorean art.

There will also be several speakers of statewide reputation and altogether the affair will be the biggest thing of its kind ever attempted in this country.

The full program will be published in the Herald next week and a special meeting of the Commercial club will be called the middle of the week to complete all necessary arrangements.

ELECTION, MAY 21

STATE ROADS

Vote 302 X Yes
For 4% State Road Bond Limit

VOTING TITLE IS AS FOLLOWS:

302 X Yes
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—Submitted to the people by the Legislature.

303 No
LIMITATION OF FOUR PER CENT STATE INDEBTEDNESS FOR PERMANENT ROADS.—Purposes: To amend section 7 of article 1, section 1, of the Constitution of Oregon relating to the creation of debts and liabilities including permanent roads for the purpose of levelling and maintaining permanent roads to the amount of four per cent of the assessed valuation of all the property in the State of Oregon, instead of two per cent as now provided by law.

NO PROPERTY TAX—NO DIRECT TAX
NO INCREASE IN AUTO LICENSE FEES
NO INCREASE OF GASOLINE TAX

Keep these three facts in mind. The present auto license fees and gasoline tax will pay both the principal and interest on all the bonds under this amendment, and will yield an annual surplus besides for other state highway work. No additional taxation of any kind.

FEDERAL FUNDS MUST BE MATCHED

Oregon must have sufficient Highway Funds to match Federal apportionments or Oregon cannot get the funds of Federal money for Oregon Roads. Increasing this constitutional limit is a necessity. Unless limit is increased, other state roads cannot be completed for many, many years, or must be finished by direct property taxation. This measure averts direct property tax for state highways and makes early completion possible. Let's get the roads built now.

Income from Present Sources Sufficient to Pay Principal and Interest.

The fact that revenues from auto license fees and gasoline tax, without increase of present rates, will be ample to pay both principal and interest on these bonds in coming six years, makes it unnecessary to levy any new taxes. Refer to State Pamphlet for verification. It shows that no property tax is required and that present rates for auto license fees and gas tax will suffice to pay principal and interest and yield surplus besides.
