CLETRAC TRACTOR GIVES SAT-ISFACTION

T. H. Lowe, of Cecil, who is Morrow county distributor of the Cletrac Tank Type Tractor, reports that wherever in use the Cletrac is giving excellent satisfaction.

Henry Streater, of Fourmile, Gilliam county, who has been using a Cletrac for two years, reported to Mr. Lowe that the has not had to take up a single bearing on the machine in that time. He is highly pleased with the big machine.

Henry Miller, of Cecil, who bought a Cletrac from Mr. Lowe this season, says: "No man could be better pleased with a tractor than I am with the Cletrac.

Mr. Lowe went to Portland last Thursday on Cletrac business. He expecs to establish an agency in Heppner and perhaps at other points in the county at an early date.

THE MORNIN'S MORNIN'

With the compliments of Hugh Clark

This is the story that Cassidy told, In his halls a sheen with purple and gold; Told as he sprawled in an easy chair, Chewing cigars at a dollar a pair; Told with a sigh, and perchane a tear, As the rough soul showed through the cracked veneer;

Told as he gazed on the walls near by, Where a Greuze and a Millet were hung on high; With a rude little print in a frame between, A picture of Shanahan's ould Shebeen;

"I'm drinkin' me mornin's mornin'; but it doesn't taste the same. Though the glass is of finest srystal, and the liquor shlips down like crame;

NOTE-This poem appeared some years ago in T. P.'s Weekly. Mr. O'Connor, in introducing it, says he heard it recited first by the Canadian actress. Margaret Angliu. Its authorship was then unknown and, so far as I am aware, has not since been risimed. Mr. O'Conner regards it as the heat description of an Irishman transported from chill penurity to the lap of luxury and failing to only the changed cenditions.
