

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mr. Pruyn was out of the city for a few days this week.

S. A. Pattison spent a few days of this week in Portland on business.

Ben Cox, who recently leased the French ranch came in Friday to vote.

Have you the persistence to keep on trying after repeated failure?

Mrs. D. E. Gibson left Thursday for The Dalles and Portland to visit for a few days.

WANTED—One man job shearing sheep. E. C. Watkins, Heppner, Oregon. 52-4pd

June ball team cleaned up on Condon in a game at the Wheat City last Sunday. June has a bunch of goats on the diamond.

Andy Roof, Jr., reports that his wheat is looking fine and growing rapidly. Good prospects for a big crop thinks Andy.

Success is sold in the open market. You can buy it—I can buy it—any man can buy it who is willing to pay the price for it.—Exchange.

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING

Remodeling and Ladies Tailoring. Mrs. Curran, Church street. 371f

The Spanish government is supporting private plants to introduce cotton growing on an extensive scale in the Spanish area of Morocco.

R. J. Carsner returned from Portland Sunday after having shipped a car of veal calves to market. He reports a fairly satisfactory market for his stock.

Dan Hinshew, a Hineshorse farmer was in Friday and reports crop conditions good in his section. "Look out for a 25-bushel crop next fall," quoth Dan.

W. P. Mahoney drove to Portland last Thursday on a business trip making the run in about the same time required by the O. W. R. & N. He returned Sunday.

Allen McFerrin's hand shearing crew passed through town Thursday enroute to the Bruce Kelley ranch, on upper Willow creek, where they are shearing this week.

Bill Ayers, merchant of Hardman was a visitor in Heppner Friday. He reports everything fine in the Hilltop city, but says things are not just like they used to be around election time.

Will Hynd, of Rose Lawn, Sand Hollow, spent several days in Portland during the week, returning Sunday. Mr. Hynd is not much pleased with the slump wool took at Boston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cochran left on Monday morning for Ashland, Oregon, to visit for a while with Mr. Cochran's parents who reside there. They may decide to locate permanently in that city.

FOR SALE—Fifteen head of good registered Jacks. Will take male colts from these Jacks at $100 each in part or full payment for these Jacks. B. F. SWAGGART, Lexington, Oregon. 411f

Ralph Bengt, who came to the Heppner country when the town of Lexington was not, about 1884, and who made a success of the farming game, came up from Salem Sunday expecting to buy a home in Heppner and return here to live.

Mrs. Henry Denison left Thursday for an extended visit at her old home in County Leitrim, Ireland where she expects to remain several months. Mr. Denison accompanied his wife as far as Pendleton to see her well started on her long journey.

YOUR WEEKLY CHECK—Limited only by ability and time devoted to selling our trees. Complete line of all varieties backing you. Write for terms. Start immediately. SALEM NURSERY COMPANY, 477 Oregon Bldg., Salem, Oregon. 4-7

Claude Cox, manager of the Marrow County Creamery, returned Wednesday from a business trip to Seattle where he was called regarding some shipments of butter from his establishment to Seattle which were reported lost. The shipments were found and everything straightened out after a day's search.

Mrs. Allison came out from Portland Sunday to join her husband Dr. Allison, who has again located in Heppner in the practice of his profession. The Allison's left here soon after the war started when the doctor enlisted in the army medical corps but they all like to get back to the good old town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens were in from their home near Hardman Monday to meet their daughter, Miss Cecile Stevens, who returned on Monday's train after spending the winter at Salem. After spending a few weeks vacation at home Miss Stevens expects to go to Bellingham, Washington, where she will attend summer school at the State Normal.

Lew Babbee, Emmett Cochran, Henry Cahn and Jim Huddleston were visitors at Pendleton early last week being called there as witnesses in a damage case in which Dillard French sued the O. W. R. & N. Co. to recover damages on a shipment of cattle. The case was settled out of court, Mr. French receiving $11700 damages from the company.

J. D. Bauman was a visitor here Friday because he had to vote.

FOR SALE—Good tent and frame. Inquire this office. 41f

WANTED—Sewing. Prices reasonable. Call at red house above power plant. 4-7

Mrs. Kenneth Mahoney left Wednesday for a week or ten days' visit in Portland.

James C. Waid, of Stanfield, is here today making final proof on his homestead in the Lexington country.

Tom O'Brien and John Corrigan, two prominent young sheepmen of Butter creek were in town Saturday and Sunday.

Al Florence and Jim Kirk were in from Upper Willow creek on Friday exercising their franchise and attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ely, former residents of the Inas county, but recently of the state of Washington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sorrenson this week.

John McDaid, who raises wheat north of Ione, was in town Friday and reports a good stand of wheat in his section but says a good rain soon would help.

FOR SALE—Fireless cooker with cooking utensils, 1 parlor lamp, 1 rag carpet, 1 violin, 1 guitar, picture frames with glasses, 1 small rug. See Mrs. Katie Waters, Court street, Heppner. It

S. J. Ritchie and Crockett Duvall were in from their homes north of Lexington this morning and reported the wheat looking well. There are plenty of weeds mixed with the wheat plants but the wheat is rapidly getting the best of the game. Mr. Ritchie says there is plenty of moisture in the ground to make a crop but some warmer weather would be beneficial just now.

Mrs. J. L. Morris, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Moore hospital on May 8, was able to return to her Butter creek home today. Ten days after the operation was performed Mrs. Morris was able to be up and around and both she and her husband give much credit to the skill and care of Dr. McMurdo, who performed the operation for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Traver, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bettner and Ed. Sorber spent Sunday in the Slocum mill district whipping the sparkling waters of Upper Willow creek for mountain trout. They report a good catch, thanks to the skill of the ladies of the party who kept the fish baskets pretty well filled. The party enjoyed (?) the experience of fishing in a snow storm before the day was over, but the trout took the bait just the same.

THROUGH VERY SPECIAL EFFORTS WE SECURED THE MOST EXCEPTIONAL DISPLAY OF SILKS WE HAVE EVER BEEN ABLE TO OFFER.

AND TO GIVE OUR CUSTOMERS THE BENEFIT OF THIS SHOWING WE HAVE ARRANGED FOR A

Special Three Day Showing of Silks

DURING WHICH TIME WE WILL OFFER AT REMARKABLE PRICE CONCESSIONS YOUR CHOICE OF OUR ENTIRE STOCK.

- JAP-HABATIE SILKS, 27 INCHES WIDE, ALL COLORS, PER YARD $1.00
NATURAL PONGEE SILK, 34 INCHES WIDE PER YARD $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50
FANCY PONGEE SILKS, 34 INCHES WIDE NATURAL OR COLORED GROUND, PRINTED FIGURES, PER YARD $2.50
BLACK TAFFETA SILK—A SPECIAL SOFT LUSTROUS SILK FOR DRESSES AT PER YARD $2.90
COLORED TAFFETA, PER YARD $2.50 to $3.50
SATINS—BLACK AND COLORS PER YARD $2.50 to $4.50
GEORGETTE CREPE, CREPE DE CHINE, PER YARD $3.00
FANCY GEORGETTE CREPE, 40 INCHES WIDE, PER YARD $3.50 to $4.50
KIMONA SILKS, 35 INCHES WIDE, BRIGHT AND FANCY PRINTS, PER YARD $1.25

MINOR & CO. GOOD GOODS

Big Reduction on Men's Shoes

All of my present stock reduced from 10 to 20 per ct.

All kinds of Work Shoes, Harvest Shoes, and Dress Shoes go on this sale. Shoes from the Manufacturer are not dragging so this sale will end when my present stock is sold out. If you are in need of shoes this is your opportunity to get them at a big saving. Get yours while they last at

Bowers Shoe Shop

We do all kinds of repairing

EWES FOR SALE
100 Ewes from one to five years old, two-thirds fine, with lambs following. Call on or address S. W. Florence, Box 155, Heppner, Oregon, or call at "Butcher Bill" ranch on Upper Willow creek. 4-7

NOTED CALIFORNIAN WILL SPEAK AT JOHN DAY PICNIC

An additional attraction at the coming John Day picnic and barbecue to be held at Boardman next Monday, not mentioned on the advertising matter already issued, will be an address by Mr. Henry Gaines Hawn, of San Francisco, who is connected with the American City Bureau. Mr. Hawn is recommended as one of the leading thinkers of California on state and community building and it is understood his address on that occasion will deal with the development of this big western country.

His attendance was arranged for by George Quayle of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce.

The Misses Lois and Lola O'Neill, charming twin daughters of Jack O'Neill, of the Central Market, left for their home in Portland Monday morning after a pleasant visit of a week with their father and other Heppner friends. While here they were the house guests of Mrs. Vennis at the home of Rev. Father Cantwell.

Pat Brady, prosperous young sheepman of the Alderdale, Washington, country, was a business visitor here Monday. Mr. Brady will range his sheep in the mountain back of the Bickleton country during the summer.

The Old Roman Household.

In the days of old Rome the culinary department of an elegant establishment boasted pans lined with silver and pots of various descriptions richly plated. There were egg frames that would cook twenty eggs at once, and pastry molds shaped like shells, and an infinite assortment of griddles, frying pans, cheese graters and tart dishes.

Jewels of the Night.

Do you know that the ancient astronomers were very much interested in jewelry? They said that a ruby represented the planet Mars; a sapphire, Jupiter; a diamond, Saturn; an emerald, Venus; an amethyst, Mercury. Gold represented the sun and pearls the moon.—Boston Post.