

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Frank Glascock was in from Eightmile Tuesday.

D. O. Hall was in Heppner from Newberg early last week.

Mat Healy started his sheep to the mountains a few days ago.

Tom Matlock was down from his Hinton creek ranch Wednesday.

J. D. Brown of Portland was a visitor here during the week.

Mrs. A. C. Smith, of Portland, is the house guest of Mrs. Emmett Cochran this week.

Ed Neff, well known sheepman of Butter creek was in town during the week on business.

Wilbur Browning of Toppenish, Washington, was a visitor here last week.

Ralph Adkins, wheatgrower of the Butter creek country was a visitor here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chapman of Long creek were in town last week with a load of wool.

Charles Jones, Heppner Flat farmer was in town Friday attending the funeral of Mrs. Emmett Jones.

WANTED—2 or 3 nicely furnished housekeeping rooms by refined couple (no children). Address M. Boehmer, care of Herald office

Art Finley was in from Sand Hollow during the week and was looking mighty cheerful over the crop prospect in his neighborhood.

John Curran, well known sheepman of Sand country, was here during the week getting ready for the mountains.

H. M. Cummings, who was formerly cashier of the Bank of Lone, now engaged in the insurance business, was a visitor here Thursday.

A marriage license was issued on Saturday to Mr. Ray M. Taylor and Miss Loa E. Briggs, both of this city.

Peterson & McCully, of Eugene, have notified the Commercial club that they are in the commercial airplane business and solicit a contract with Heppner for a visit to this city.

Mrs. Herman Driscoll, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Moore hospital, is recovering rapidly and will soon be able to return to her home.

Mrs. W. Neal left Monday for her home in Oakland, Oregon, having been called here by the serious illness of her father, A. H. McFerrin who is now improving slowly.

Mrs. Chas. Sorber, of Washougal, Washington, and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence of Portland, mother and sister of Mrs. Gay Anderson arrived Thursday for a week's visit with the Anderson family.

Mrs. Ray Moore has recovered from an operation to which she recently submitted and is again in charge of affairs at the Moore hospital. During her illness Mrs. White supervised the hospital work.

Ed. Adkins, who is operating a wood camp on upper Willow creek in an effort to supply Heppner people with home grown fuel, says the recent heavy rains have well nigh made the county road impassable for heavy hauling.

Those who visited the Chautauqua last evening speak in highest terms of the entertainment afforded by Elsie Mae Gordon, impersonator and the Hebrew male quartette. The entertainments all promise to be of high merit during the week.

"Rap" Woods was in town from Lone Thursday and reports that it fairly rained life insurance premiums in that ballwick last week. Most every wheat grower feels able to take out $10,000 or $20,000 more this season than the first rain. Rap says.

W. D. Cook, Morrow County manager for the Tim-a-Lum Lumber Co has married the Wm. McRoberts resident here and will have some reports made before moving his family into the home.

Miss Helen Barrett returned last evening from Corvallis where she has just finished her freshman year at O. A. C. She will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Woodard and little son Dan, and Mrs. Wm. Tracy, left Monday morning for their home in Shoshone, Wyoming. B. W. Gaunt accompanied the party as far as Spokane on his way to Montana for the sheering season.

Everybody says that when the John Day project is all under irrigation the wheat belt of the county, not under irrigation, will get more rainfall and consequently bigger wheat crops. Sure. Just notice the effect the organization of the district and one good sized picnic is having on the country this year.

Mrs. C. C. Chick and son Charles, who have been spending the winter in southern California, returned to Heppner Thursday evening. Charles left for Moscow, Idaho, Sunday, where he will enter the six weeks summer school at the Idaho University.

Mrs. C. M. Sims, Mrs. F. E. Farver, Mrs. Bert Stone and Mrs. C. H. Cox entertained a party of some forty ladies last Friday at a lawn party at the Sims home. Bridge was played during the afternoon and following the games delicious refreshments were served.

P. T. Magruder, representing the State Chamber of Commerce, was in Heppner Thursday evening conferring with a committee of the Commmercial club regarding the proposed drive for a promotion fund of $450,000 the state chamber proposes to raise in Oregon within the next couple of months.

Peter Curran, foreman on the John Sheridan estate ranch, of which W. P. Mahoney is administrator, left yesterday for the summer range with the Sheridan sheep. He will spend the summer near Whitney, Baker county.

John Kilkenny was in town Friday trying to discover the difference between receipts and expenditures in the sheep business. Incidentally John boasts for H. Johnson because, he figures Ireland should have some sort of a look-in in any league of nations that is framed.

The Herald reporter got mixed up last week in recording the marriage of Miss Daisy Barlow to Mr. Earle Gilmore in stating that the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Barlow. As a matter of fact she is a daughter of J. F. Barlow and a sister of Charlie who was made to feel quite aged by reading that he had a daughter of marriageable age.

Mrs. M. D. Clark and daughter, Miss Mary Clark, went to Portland Sunday where they expect to spend several weeks remaining until after the Shriners' meeting. After getting settled in an apartment they will be joined by Mr. Clark and Major and the family will have as their guests during Shrine week Mr. Clark's three brothers who reside in Canada.

Dan Stalter, president and general manager of the Mayflower Mine, in the Greenhorn district, has gone to the mine for the summer and expects to have a large amount of development work done during the summer. The tunnel is now in more than 500 feet and the intention is to make an effort to block out the work this season to determine just how much of the ore he has now in sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eskelson and daughter were in town Wednesday morning on a shopping trip trying out a new car. Mr. Eskelson recently purchased. Mr. and Mrs. Eskelson recently returned from Tacoma, Washington, where they were called several weeks ago by the serious illness and death of her brother, J. W. Phares. Miss Phares, a sister of Mrs. Eskelson, returned with them and will spend the summer with them.

Mrs. Eugene Campbell has received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Anderson, written at Nimath Falls, saying that she and her husband are having a fine trip. The Andersons left here a week ago for Mr. Anderson's old home in South Dakota, for a months visit with his parents. They started to go via California but after reaching southern Oregon decided that on account of the gasoline shortage they would cut out that part of their trip until another season.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday, June 20, 1920

Bible school at 10 o'clock a. m. Communion service and preaching at 11 o'clock; the morning talk will consist of a report of the District Convention being held at Pendleton this week.

Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p. m. and preaching at 8 p. m. This address will embody Dr. McMurtry's psalm, a matter of intense interest to every Bible student. Every one is cordially invited to attend. If of these services, a cordial welcome awaits you.

W. O. Livingstone, Moderator.

WHEAT GROWS TOO FAST.

Joe Eskelson, who was in town the other day is in a peak of trouble. Joe says that rain of last week simply made his wheat grow so fast that it is crowding through the fence on to the county road and he is worrying about getting arrested for obstructing the public highway. But what's a fellow to do? Joe asks when he lives in a country where the soil is so productive as it is in that Lexington district?

HORSES ASTRAY. REWARD.

Strayed from near Boardman, Oregon, 1 black gelding, three years old with one white hind foot and one black mare with one front and one hind white foot. Both branded with hatchet on right stifle. Reward. Notify J. A. Howell, Boardman, Ore. 7-9

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING

Remodeling and Ladies Tailoring. Mrs. Curren, Church street. 37H

FOR SALE CHEAP

One registered Percheron stallion. For full information inquire of or write to Walter Road, Heppner, Oregon. 50H

FOR SALE

One 12-foot McCormick Header in good condition. Two good drapers. Price $200. Full terms to responsible parties. A. W. GAMMELL, Lexington region. 52H

LOST

At John Day barrow a No. 1 Eastman Autographic Kodak. Finder notify W. O. King, Boardman, Oregon, and receive reward. 71H

FOR SALE

Deering binder Practically new. For further information call at my place at South Springs. Also 3in. Mitchell wagon. 7-4pd. CHRIST MOEHNKE

MINOR & CO. "GOOD GOODS."

Calling your Attention to "BEAU BRUMMEL" SHIRTS

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED OUR NEW SPRING AND SUMMER DRESS SHIRTS AND ARE SHOWING AN ASSORTMENT OF PRETTY PATTERNS THAT IS CERTAINLY WORTH YOUR INSPECTION.

SHOWN IN

SILKS, SILK STRIPES, MADRAS AND PERCALE

You have good reason for wearing

"BEAU BRUMMEL" SHIRTS

They fit: The shoulders are rightly proportioned—the sleeves and cuffs are tailored for Style and Comfort—in fact it is

A REAL SHIRT FOR REAL MEN

YOU MAY HAVE THEM PLAIN, FANCY, OR EXTRA FANCY — COME AND SEE

MINOR & CO. Heppner, Ore.

