Individual Styles Are the Rule This Season.

Frocks Constructed on Lines to Suit One's Figure, Resulting in Greater Satisfaction.

With captivating crispness do the newest taffetas swing their way to fame, and indeed one needs but little inspiration to create lovely frocks, so simple are the modes and so lovely the materials. Individual styles with lines to suit one's figure are the rule this season.

One frock that was especially designed for the girl with rather plump proportions was really a masterpiece for clever lines. Navy blue with smart touches of brick red and overdrapes of georgette-crepe form a pleasing allience, but it was the model selected that was so appropriate.

This smart figure frock was a long-waisted affair, semi-fitted to the hips, and there completed by a smart two-piece skirt, also of the taffeta. And there was a bit of a frill with a dash of brick red trimming at the square neck.

Over the skirt was a full tunic of the embroidered crepe looped under at the bottom, zouave effect, and finished with an elastic band. As a final note she added a narrow sash to the taffeta and tied it back and allowed the ends to float quite snugly at the bottom of the skirt.

The slowness of the Jeanne file would be improved by a smartly draped frock of tulle taffeta and French blue ribbon. The front of the bodice crosses itself at the breast with religious fervor, but is quite frivolous when it comes to the skirt. It begins demurely with an underskirt of narrow proportions, not too long, and then hangs a looped tunic over it.

The skirt, hip design, and sleeves of this model all have peculiarities which make the dress distinctive. It is made of dark green taffeta with lighter bindings.

Some Colors You See.
Egyptian designs and Egyptian colors are leaders for spring, and the dressmakers have gone back to real Egyptian prints and patterns for their inspiration, and the colors that seem to take precedence are chameleon, which is copper-ocher, a peculiar opaque blue, citron color and green. Then there is a second blue that suggests the turquoise. The green is sometimes combined with blue, but as a matter of fact it is lighter and possibly yellower than the color actually seen in Chinese jades.

The Moral Risk

When the time comes to seek credit, a bank will want to know what you ARE as well as what you HAVE. That's where the moral hazard comes in.

And you can't establish credit over night. Rather, it is a matter of becoming KNOWN at your bank, of establishing confidence by the way in which you have kept your account, regardless of the amount you have to your credit.

Get acquainted—that's the first thing. Then develop that acquaintance into friendship. It will stand you in splendid stead when the time comes. Remembering also, that this bank offers you a complete banking service.
