

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A good many of the Eightmile ranchers were in town Saturday.

Wm. Kirk was down from his Balm fork ranch Thursday.

Fred Ashbaugh was in from the Ashbaugh sawmill Saturday.

Dr. R. F. Butler returned Friday evening from a business trip to Salem and Portland.

Mike Marshall, prominent sheepman of Boardman, was a business visitor here Saturday.

F. A. Case and family are preparing to move to the Luper residence in southeast Heppner.

Frank Borg and little son, of Missoula, Montana, are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Borg.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Barratt returned Sunday from Portland where they spent last week.

Miss Faye Keat of Bonners ferry is spending a few weeks with Miss Vera Mahoney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckett of the Eightmile country were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Van Vactor went to Portland Thursday. Mr. Van returned today.

Miss Mary Van Vactor is spending the week at Ione with her sister, Mrs. Ella Minor.

Walter Luckman, farmer of the Butter creek section, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Fred Lucas was up from his Lexington ranch Wednesday and reported everything lovely in his section.

It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Borg will move into the Joe Waters house on Court and May streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, of Eileen, came in Thursday and were the guests of Judge and Mrs. W. T. Campbell.

J. W. Whideman, an extensive wheat raiser, was in town Saturday getting ready to commence harvesting his wheat crop which he says promises to be very fine.

Miss Bulaha Butler entertained at tea Tuesday afternoon in honor of her friend Miss Alta Lydon, of Tacoma, who is spending a few weeks with Miss Butler.

E. L. Keithley, of the local office of the Foresters, who was supposed to be transferred to Pendleton some time ago, is still in Heppner and expects to remain here at least until fall.

Miss Epesony Cole was the charming young hostess at a party celebrating her birthday last Wednesday. Several of her little girl friends were present.

W. B. Cronk, who recently purchased the W. T. Meltobergs property, is having the place remodeled. A basement is being excavated and the house is extensively being made over.

G. Fraxten, whose merchant tailoring establishment has been closed for several weeks on account of small pox in his family, was on the street again Saturday happy in the knowledge that the quarantine has been lifted and his place of business is again open to the public.

L. N. Traver, the efficient contractor who built the Elks' building and the new hotel was in town for a few days during the week from Corvallis, where he has secured a three-year contract from the Oregon Agricultural College.

Cris Maddock, who used to help Joe Williams run the Palace hotel, but is now a student at the University of Oregon, arrived in Heppner a few days ago and may spend the summer in this county.

H. G. Sigston, owner and manager of the Star Theatre, returned from Portland Sunday evening after spending a week there on business. Mr. Sigston expects to move into the new theatre in the Elks building within a few days.

E. White, of near Lexington, has purchased lumber for a new residence from the Heppner Chop and Planing Mill and will proceed to erect a fine dwelling.

John Huston, of Hot Lake, Oregon, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Huston, recently.

Ed. Hudson and family left this morning for Albany, Oregon, on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Blanche Pickett, of Arlington, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reid during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pickett and Mrs. Martin Reid and daughter Louise drove to Arlington Saturday, returning Sunday.

F. A. and M. I. Case received word Monday of the death of their brother William Case at Juneau, Alaska. Mr. Case visited Heppner a few months ago during the illness of his brother F. A. Case.

At the Star this evening, July 20, Carl Lomax offers Kenneth Harlow and Helen Eddy in "The Trembling Hour". It's a universal feature and a universal favorite and if you fail to see it you will miss something also - real Comedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson, who left Heppner some time ago expecting to locate at Salem, have finally located at Enterprise, Wallowa county, where Mr. Johnson writes to have their copy of the Herald forwarded. Mrs. Johnson, who is a professional trained nurse, has accepted a position as school nurse in Enterprise.

Jeff Beamer, formerly of Heppner, recently bought the Eph Eskelson ranch on Wilcox creek between Heppner and Lexington, and will make his home there. Mr. Beamer and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reid Friday and Saturday.

Many local subscribers to the first issue of bonds of the Irish Republic, received their bonds during the past week. The bonds are attractive in appearance and six months after the Irish Republic is internationally recognized, they will draw 5 1/2 per cent interest and will be redeemable within one year.

W. P. Dutton, former prominent resident of Heppner, now living at Portland, came out last week for a few days visit with old friends while looking after business interests here. The judge is quite delighted to see the ruins of the old Palace hotel still in existence and as usual tied in to the Herald men for not having a sidewalk built around that important corner long ago. After mature deliberation the h. m. is convinced that Judge Dutton is right about the matter and that this improvement should be made at once.

W. B. Irwin, returned Thursday evening from Rockaway Beach, on the Tillamook coast, where the Ir-wins have a summer cottage. Mr. Irwin says the weather was delightful while he was at the coast and the beach dwellers put on a most wonderful celebration July 4th. Mrs. Irwin, Ellis and little Miss Betty will remain on the coast until late September.

Sam E. Van Vactor returned from Portland Monday and reports the roads over Sherman county in bad shape due to washouts in the recent cloudburst. Mrs. Van Vactor who accompanied him to Portland last week will remain in the city for a couple of weeks under medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hainey and little son, left Saturday evening for the Oregon coast where they expect to spend a three week's vacation. Mr. Hainey holds a responsible position in the First National Bank. They expect to spend most of their time on the coast a few miles south of Newport.

Miss Gladys Lane has accepted a position with the F. & S. Bank to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Florence Neel who will take a position in Tacoma.

S. W. Spencer returned from McDuffee springs Monday after spending the week end there. Mrs. Spencer will remain at the springs for a couple of weeks.

Once there was a woman who believed that her husband's folks were quite as good as hers. Her name was Eve.

Dr. D. R. HAYLOR Eye Specialist will be in Heppner the first week in August. 11/14

FASHIONABLE DRESSMAKING - Remodeling and Ladies Tailoring. Mrs. Curren, Church street. 37r

Fine Ranch For Sale

I am offering my ranch, 5 miles southeast from Heppner, at a good bargain. The place contains 440 acres, 250 of which is good, tillable land with 200 acres now in cultivation. New 4-room house and good barn 32x45. Several good springs on place with spring water piped to house. Price $15 per acre. Terms on part. Also Overland car in good condition. Wm. Soukup. 15r

FOR SALE OR TRADE - Nice little team of sorrel mares with butt chain harness and light buggy. See E. C. Bedwell, Heppner, Ore. 12-13

FOR SALE - A house and two lots. Fruit, shade trees and an excellent garden. Mrs. A. E. Binn. 11/13 pd. 6r

SUITABLE REWARD for information regarding or return of white saddle horse branded PL S the PL connected. E. F. Clark, Heppner, Oregon. 10-12

FOR SALE - A-1 grade Holstein heifer giving 4 gal. daily. $100 cash. A. L. Strait, Ione, Ore., Box 373

BARGAIN - Two second hand Ford cars, suitable for rouabout work. $2.50 each. Heppner Garage. 11tof.

FOR SALE - Ford car in fine condition. New engine, Cord tires, thoroughly overhauled recently. Call on or address L. Van Marter Heppner, Ore. 12tr

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING rooms. See Mrs. C. L. Keithley; phone 664 11/12

FOR SALE - Doering binder Practically new. For further information call at my place at South Springs. Also Lin. Mitchell wagon. 7-49d CHRIST MOEHNKE

FOR SALE One 12-foot McCormick Header in good condition. Two good drapers. Price $200. Fall terms to responsible parties. A. W. GAMMEL, Lexington region 6r

Beautiful Fabrics for SUMMER WEAR

Whether in cottons or silks, we can surely please you. -- Our stock is very complete for these times of scarce merchandise and you can find almost anything you wish to supply your needs.

Flaxons, Organdies, Voiles, Ginghams and Tissues
Silk and Georgette Crepes
Satins, Chiffons, Laces
Silk Nets

Wirthmore and Welworth Cotton Blouses $1.50 and up.
Wirthmore Silk Blouses -- the Silk Blouse Bargain -- $6.25
Willwear Outing Garments for Men and Women
The Garment that excells all others.
Childrens' Gingham Dresses and Rompers -- New Colors in Shetland
Floss for Sweaters

MINOR & COMPANY HEPPER Oregon