

HELPED OUT REIGNING BULL

Kindly Act of New Member of Herd Something the Keepers Had Never Seen Before.

Usually when a new bull is taken into the buffalo herd at Golden Gate park in San Francisco his standing is promptly decided by a challenge from the head of the herd. The newcomer either wins the fight and in turn is entitled to the rank of sovereign or he is defeated and shown his place. But a new bull, Mogul, recently proved to be an exception. He was two years old, a fine example of what a young buffalo should be, and he seemed thoroughly content to mind his own business and to let the other bulls mind theirs. No one would have known that there was a new buffalo in the herd.

One morning the keepers saw that there was something in the air. Mogul was sniffling round the reigning bull. They were apart from the herd, heads down, and were moving round slowly. It was the queerest beginning of a bullfight that the keepers had ever seen. It appeared as if Mogul would knock out the old bull with one toss.

As they moved round and round Mogul seemed to be hounding the other bull in the eye, and the other bull did not seem to be making the least resistance. Then they pulled apart and Mogul put down his head.

The old bull had a bunch of thorny cactus sticking over his right eye, and Mogul was hounding it off as best he could with his clumsy short little horns. Finally, after two more attempts, circling round as before, he got the cactus off, and each moved away about his own business.—Youth's Companion.

FIRST UNITED STATES COINS

"Fugios," Made of Copper, Were the Earliest Issued by Direct Authority of Congress.

The "Fugios" were the earliest coins issued by the authority of the United States, and were of copper. It was in April, 1787, that the congress of the United States authorized the board of treasury to contract for 300 tons of copper coin of the federal standard "agreeably to the proposition of Mr. James Jarvis, provided that the premium to be allowed to the United States on the account of the copper contracted for be not less than 15 per cent." and that "it be coined at the expense of the contractor, but under the inspection of an officer appointed and paid by the United States."

It is presumed that this copper coin contract was made as directed for on Friday, July 6, 1787, the congress adopted this resolution: "That the board of treasury direct the contractor for the copper coinage to stamp on one side of each piece the following device, viz.: Thirteen circles linked together and a small circle in the middle with the words 'United States' around it, and in the center the words, 'We are one.' On the other side of the same piece the following device, viz.: A dial with the hours expressed on the face of it, a meridian sun above, on one side of which is to be the word 'Fugio' and on the other side the date '1787'; below the dial the words, 'Mind your own business.'"

Autograph Hunter's Coup.

Autograph hunting sometimes proves a most profitable pursuit. Ludovic Pierrel, a French Bohemian of the '70s, made a steady income out of it for several years.

One of his most successful coups was accomplished with a letter in which he posed as "a member of the unhappy race of the unappreciated who is meditating suicide and seeks for counsel and aid in this hour of sore distress."

This drew a number of celebrities, including Berenger and Deino. Accordingly sent him ten closely written pages, which were promptly converted into cash.

Pierrel also fell a victim of his wiles and took the trouble to answer him in French. Eventually Pierrel was blown up in the press by Jules Guillaud and had to seek another occupation.

Englishmen on Paper Thorns.

These children of Eve by birth are Englishmen, and the only way that their Englishness can be concealed is the paper thorn. He was a writer of London, who was known in the States. He was born before A. D. 1799, his first name being Thomas. He was said to have left England of a fugitive, and to have become a good citizen in the States. He was said to have been in the States in 1872. He was said to have been in the States in 1884, and to have been in the States in 1894. Upon his return to London he was said to have been in the States in 1894. He was said to have been in the States in 1894. He was said to have been in the States in 1894.

Alarm Clock for the Deaf.

An alarm clock which will prove useful to the deaf and also to those whose ordinary alarm clock fails to arouse has recently been patented. At the hour at which the alarm is set, not only does the bell ring but a sound is made upon the strongest metal in the house with the "vocal action" being in effect. This should prove efficacious except for those who sleep with their heads under the bed clothes. The invention has received the patronage of the American Association of the Deaf and Dumb.

$50 PUT IN BANK IN 1847;
VALUE GROWS TO $1,382.

Winsted, Conn.—Fifty dollars placed in the savings bank in Ansonia in 1847 gradually grew until President William A. Nelson of that institution recently paid the sum of $1,381.50 for the bank book, which it was worth after its 73 year's service. Twice within a period of twenty years the sum of $2 was placed on the account, but nothing more.

A SQUARE DEAL IN REAL ESTATE.

What has brought the real estate business largely into disrepute is that all the failures who have tried nearly everything else and most of the professional liars ultimately drift into the real estate game. They would skin their own mothers-in-law to get a commission. Of course they don't last long, but others come to take their places, and the public has become leary of buying or selling land through real estate agents.

There are some Straight Shooters in the Real Estate business the same as in the mercantile business, the banking business or in any other legitimate line of endeavor in which men have reputations to uphold and defend. Ask my clients on both sides of the numerous real estate deals I have made, and in every instance they are satisfied customers. It is the only way. When you have any land to sell or buy, come in and see me.

The Moral Risk

When the time comes to seek credit, a bank will want to know what you ARE as well as what you HAVE. That's where the moral hazard comes in.

And you can't establish credit over night. Rather, it is a matter of becoming KNOWN at your bank, of establishing confidence by the way in which you have kept your account, regardless of the amount you have to your credit.

Get acquainted—that's the first thing. Then develop that acquaintance into friendship. It will stand you in splendid stead when the time comes. Remembering also, that this bank offers you a complete banking service.
