Edbert Young and his brother, well known Eightmile farmers, were in town Saturday. They report the wheat in their immediate section very good but a little pinched by the hot weather from what it might have been. Farther north, however, where the grain was farther advanced they say the crops are even better than was expected before threshing commenced.

Mrs. Blanch Watkins and son, Dale of Irigoin, former residents of Heppner, are here today on business.

The rain clouds have blown away and many of the threshing crews expected to resume work at noon today.

John Kilkenny left Friday for north Idaho to look after his sheep interests. Mr. Kilkenny will not ship any more of his sheep to the eastern markets this year but will return them to his winter ranges in Morrow county.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, of Medicine Lake, Washington, are visiting at the home of his brother, Judge Wm. T. Campbell. The Judge and his brother enjoyed a deer hunt at Penland prairie last week and the Judge says that while they seen lots of deer tracks they got no deer and that tho' they didn't see any fish tracks they got lots of fish.

S. J. Ritchie and Harry Duval were in from their ranches north of Lexington, Monday. That section has had copious rains lately and the outlook for next year's crop was never better. Their wheat is making around 20 to 25 bushels per acre this year. They still have several days combining to finish the season's run.

Ed Clark, who is engaged in the fancy chicken business a short distance below town, suffered the loss of a couple of dozen thoroughbred Barred Rocks the other night at the hands of chicken thieves. The birds were valuable ones and Mr. Clark is hot on the trail of the fellows who lifted them.

Nat Shaw, a pioneer of the Clarks canyon country, and one of the leading farmers of that section, was in town Saturday and met up with his former neighbor, Ralph Bengé. Thereupon Nat and Ralph proceeded to hold a little mass meeting at which it was unanimously voted that away back when Ralph and Nat and Bill Padberg and Bill Gammell were about all there was to the community it was about the best neighborhood on earth. If the two Bills had been present the motion would have carried unanimously—which it did anyway.

FORMER HEPPNER GIRL WED

A beautiful lawn wedding solemnized at the home of the bride in Redlands, California, at eight o'clock the evening of September 4, united Miss Clara Brown and Mr. James Donald. The bride is the youngest daughter of J. C. Brown, formerly of Heppner, and the groom is the oldest son of Davis Donald of Redland, California. The ceremony was spoken by Rev. Nathan Dushane-Hynson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. For the occasion the home was beautifully decorated with ferns, pink and white asters. The lawn was lighted with pink and white Japanese lanterns and the young people were married while standing under a bower of greenery tastefully decorated with pink and white asters. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white net over satin. Her long veil was caught with lilacs of the valley and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and baby breath. Her brother W. E. Brown was best man while Mrs. W. E. Brown was matron of honor for the occasion. She wore pink organza and carried pink carnations. Mrs. Donald is a graduate of Walla Walla

High School. Mr. Donald graduated from Redlands High School and was a student of the University of Redlands. He is now foreman for E. M. Cope Com. Co.

Mrs. Donald attended Heppner High School for three years and has many friends here. Her father, J. C. Brown, was a wheat farmer of the Black Horse section and lived for many years in Heppner. The family moved to Walla Walla, Wash., three years ago, going from there to California.

OLD TIME RESIDENT PASSES

Freeman L. Frye, an old time resident of Heppner, died at his home here last Wednesday morning at the age of 59 years.

Mr. Frye had been in poor health for some time but his condition was not considered serious. The end came suddenly, heart disease being the cause.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Harry Brown, of Lena, and one son, Maurice E. Frye, of Evanson, Illinois.

Mr. Frye was a highly respected citizen and was prominent in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He served as city marshal for some time and prior to that time was engaged in the transfer business here.

The funeral was held from the home Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge. Rev. Livingstone conducted the services and interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

SKIDDING CAR HITS LIGHT POLE

While driving out the Hinton creek road Saturday evening Ralph Jackson, well known young wheat farmer of Rhea creek had a mixup with a Light & Power Co. pole when his car skidded on a turn near school house. The pole was broken squarely off and in falling carried, two other poles with it. The car, which was a fine new machine making its initial trip, was badly damaged but fortunately the occupants were not seriously injured.

PLAYS WITHOUT A VILLAIN

It doesn't seem possible, but the new Dorothy Gish Paramount picture "Peppy Dolly", which is being shown at the Star theatre, Sunday, September 19th, is a screen play without a villain. For once there is no dark haired, squint-eyed backguard to grit his teeth and make faces at the heroine. Miss Gish says it isn't needed.

AT THE STAR SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18th

Max Linder has been absent from the screen entirely too long, and it is with pleasure that Pathe brings him back to their program in a five-reel feature comedy of the type of "The Little Cafe."

Linder was one of the earliest of screen comedians, and his name was among the first of fun makers to become known to the public. A native of France, Mr. Linder fought in the war and was wounded at Amiens and discharged as unfit for further service. He then came to the United States and made several comedies, but complications resulted from his wounds and he was forced to give up picture making and returned to France. "The Little Cafe" is his first screen appearance in several years.
