MARINE ENLISTMENTS

By an order of Major General J. E. Lejeune, Commandant of the Marine Corps, all units of the former Marine Brigade of the Second Divison have been thrown open to enlistment by men who have had prior service in the Army, Navy or Marine. The Fifth Marines were reorganized few months ago and the ranks filed so speedily that the Sixth Reginent and the Sixth Machine Gun Battalion are now to be recreated. The Fifth and Sixth infantry reginents were cited three times by the French high command, and the Sixth machine gunners twice, and all units wear the coveted fourragers. In addition to reviving the Fourth Brigade the Tenth Artillery regiment is also to be reorganized at Quantico,
