

Big Price Reductions In Custom-made Clothing

I have just received the following advice from Dundee Woolen Mills, world's largest Wholesale Tailors:

Chicago, Ill., November 1, 1920

Mr. Lloyd Hutchinson, Heppner, Oregon.

Dear Sir: Effective November 5th, we are pleased to advise you that the following deductions will be made on our entire line, as follows:

- Class B—C—D—E—G—H. . . . 10 per cent
- Class L—M—N—O—P—S. . . . 15 per cent
- Class T—U—W—X—Y—Z. . . . 20 per cent

We wish to advise you that in making these big reductions, our prices are way below cost, but we feel that we would rather take a loss and give our customers an interesting proposition to work on and help stimulate business.

Very truly yours,
DUNDEE WOOLEN MILLS

This means a substantial saving to my customers in addition to my former reasonable prices, and it will be well for you to call and leave your order at once.

The Dundee Woolen Mills are in a class by themselves in the manufacture of woolens and the tailoring of men's high class clothing.

I am their exclusive agent in Morrow County.

Let me show you my samples and reduced prices. Compare my $72.00 Suit with $100.00 to $135.00 Suits bought elsewhere.

Claude L. White of Portland is busy around Cecil vicinity taking orders for winter clothing during the week. He was the guest of Mrs. Jack Hynd during his stay in Cecil.

Cecil was a lively spot on Tuesday during the election. Many little incidents occurred during the day. Most conspicuous of all was when Leon Logan of Four Mile and Kenneth Logan of Cecil were seen mounted on the top of the depot. Spectators were ready for speeches from either party, but none were forthcoming. These gentlemen had ascended to remove a baggy, hen crates, sacks of food, etc. which we presume they had placed there on Halloween, as they were so keen to remove all things into their places again. J. W. Osborn and also

T. W. May of Lone Star ranch assisted in the removal.

"You Save Money" says the Good Judge

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco.

This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.

And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
