Jury Opts Down Turner Claim

A damage suit involving a quantity of wheat, in which E. H. Turner was plaintiff and Gustave Friedwald was defendant, was tried in Judge Phelps' court last Thursday. The amount claimed by Mr. Turner was $840.00.

After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $375.00.

Woodson & Sweck represented the plaintiff in the case, and Sam E. Van Vactor appeared for the defendant.

The blue stone lime method of seed treatment is preferable to formaldehyde for late fall planting. This is one of the many helpful hints contained in the circular published by the department of plant pathology, O. A. C. This circular (No. 176) is on the treatment of seed for smut prevention, and may be had by writing the college.

Saved His Horse

Mr. R. L. McIntyre, of Albroons, Ala., says: "Dr. LeGear's Antiseptic Healing Powder quickly healed some bad wire cuts on my horse. I defy any stranger to find the slightest scar on him."

Dr. LeGear's Advice and Remedy saved this valuable animal. He warns you not to leave a wound, sore, or cut exposed, but to dust on Dr. LeGear's Antiseptic Healing Powder, which instantly forms an antiseptic protection and promotes healthy healing.

In his 28 years of Veterinary Practice and Expert Poultry Breeding, Dr. LeGear has compounded a remedy for every curable ailment of stock or poultry. Whenever they require a remedy, it will pay you, as it did Mr. McIntyre, to purchase from your dealer the proper Dr. LeGear remedy on a satisfaction or money back guarantee.
