IONE

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Frank and little son came last Tuesday from Kennewick, Wash., and will enjoy a few weeks' visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Frank. Mr. and Mrs. John Zink have been enjoying a visit with the former's brother, A. L. Zink. They left Saturday for their home in Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Zink had been visiting in California and Utah with relatives. J. D. Land returned Sunday after spending a few days at Portland and Hood River with relatives. He will leave in a few days for Hood River to spend a few months with his nephew, Mr. Warnstaff.

Bunch Grass Rebeka lodge installed the following officers last Thursday evening: Mrs. Lelah Moore, Noble Grand, Mrs. Ethel Warfield, vice-Grand; Mrs. Ethel Gambell, secretary and Joe Mason, treasurer. On the 29th of this month, that being their regular meeting, the Rebekas have about 20 new candidates to initiate. At the close of lodge, refreshments will be served.

Miss Mabel Wilcox, a former Ione girl but now of Estacada, visited a few days last week with her friends, returning Thursday to her home.

Miss Olive Wade, who has been spending the past two months with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Bristow, returned Friday to her home at Walla Walla.

Among the Ione Rebekas who went to Heppner Friday evening to attend the Rebeka lodge, were, E. J. Bristow and wife, Mrs. Mayme Moore and Mrs. Ed Miller. After the installation of their new officers, a dainty lunch was served. They report a swell time. Just ask E. J. if he did justice to the lunch.

Mr. Hanna of Moro, is spending the week in Ione. He is attending to some business matters of the Northern Grain and Warehouse Co., of Portland.

Mrs. Jennie Smith and little daughter left Friday for Dallas, after enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Schriver. Mrs. Smith will resume her work in the Dallas schools.

Rev. Storm, a Baptist minister of Weston, supplied the pulpit last Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church. Rev. Storm expects to return to Ione and begin a series of meetings on Monday evening the 17th and will announce later how long these meetings will continue. He is a very interesting speaker and all are cordially invited to come and hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Biddle returned home Saturday from a two-weeks' visit spent with relatives in the valley. They report a very enjoyable time. They were asked if it rained while there and they replied, "No, it simply poured down."

State Highway Engineer H. G. Smith was joined a few days ago by his wife and little son of Pullman, Wash., who will make their home in our city for the present.

Born in our city Saturday, January 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith, a nice baby daughter. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. E. J. Klemme will lecture at the Ione rink on Tuesday evening, January 11th. His subject will be, "Parental Responsibility." Mr. Klemme lectures under the auspices of the Bellingham normal school. All come and hear a treat as he is a very forceful entertainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark are being congratulated on the arrival of a bouncing baby daughter, born on Wednesday, January 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engelman left a few days ago for Portland where they went for the benefit of Mr. Engelman's health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNameer returned Friday from Portland, after spending a few days on a business and pleasure trip.

The high school basket ball team was defeated last Friday evening by the single men's town team. The score was 26 to 23.
