OFFERS TO SELL SELF FOR $2,500

Jack Tar's Body and Soul Goes for Year to Man Who Will Put Up the Money.

STICKS FOR HONESTY ONLY

Will Do Anything to Help Him Care for Wife and Baby—Goes Supperless to Buy Milk for Infant.

Chicago.—For those who like to ponder the riddle of existence there is presented Overt Pirmin, who offers himself for sale, body and soul, for one year. Price, $2,500.

His only stipulation is that his purchaser shall not expect him to participate in any unworthy action. He will go anywhere in the world upon the most hazardous adventure. He says he will labor "at any task that 100 pounds of brain, two capable hands, and a clear brain can perform."

But he insists he must sell himself. There are two reasons. You will find them in a one-room housekeeping apartment on the third floor, back at 1252 West Madison street. One is the nineteen-year-old wife he eloped with three years ago. The other is Martha, thirteen months old and undernourished.

A Married Jack Tar. It is the story of a Jack Tar married among landlubbers. Pirmin was born in St. Johns, New Brunswick, Canada. His father was a deep sea sailor. As a boy Pirmin used to go out with the fishing smacks. He could navigate a deck before he could walk a pavement.

As soon as he was old enough he went to sea. He has circumnavigated the globe five times. He has been in every nook and cranny where ships wander. He enlisted for the navy when the United States entered the war, but the shipping board diverted him to the merchant marine.

In the fall of 1917 a freight packet on which he was serving as quartermaster touched at Cleveland. Pirmin had shore leave of five days. He met Myrtle Smith. They loved. Her parents objected. They were married secretly. His time expired last November. He went to Cleveland. They notified the parents of their marriage. Forgiveness was refused. They came to Chicago.

"I've Tried Everything."

"But I don't belong on dry land," he said. "I've tried everything. My wife is not well and I didn't want to leave her and baby. I finally began washing windows and cleaning flagpoles. I'm pretty handy at clubbing. But the money didn't come in.

"Tonight we got down to our last cent. We were able to buy milk for baby, but we went supperless. So I decided the thing to do was to go back to the sea again. There I'm at home. On dry land I'm as handy as a fish out of water.

"So that's why I offered myself for sale for a year for $2,500. I'm well worth it. All I want is assurance the wife and baby will be cared for. About myself I'm not worrying. I don't care where I go or what I do, just so I'll be honest.

"Please get this straight: I don't want any charity. I just want a chance to make good for the $2,500."

MORE WIRELESS FOR BRAZIL

Bill in Chamber of Deputies Aims at Service to Reach the West Coast Nations.

Rio de Janeiro.—Increased wireless communication with neighboring American republics and within the vast territory of Brazil itself is the aim of a bill just introduced into the chamber of deputies.

It provides for the installation of high-power wireless stations in the federal district, and by arrangement with Paraguay, in Assuncion, and at convenient points in the Brazilian states of Mato Grosso and Rio Grande do Sul.

The measure states that this means of communication would be more economical than by the present land telegraph or cable systems. It suggests the possibility of wireless communication between Brazil and the countries on the west coast through the erection of stations in the interior.

CHINA BARS REDS AND KINGS

Neither Has Chance to Return, Says Dr. Philip Tyau of the Foreign Office.

Peking.—Neither Bolshevism nor monarchism has a chance in China, in the opinion of Dr. Philip Tyau, assistant undersecretary in the foreign office.

Doctor Tyau, who is a student of international law, refutes "erroneous reports and inspired statements of a damaging nature, which have been circulated recently, both in China and abroad, and which not only mislead public opinion, but have a serious reaction on trade."

Seniors Enjoy Big Chicken Dinner.

Sunday, the 23rd, was a great day for the seniors of Heppner high school. At 9 o'clock in the morning they gathered together their ranks and started in the Cess bus for the R. A. Tompson ranch, where they were royally entertained by their classmates, Reita Neil. Due to the usual car trouble, and being lost upon the hills, about 12 o'clock they were to be seen in town, a thoroughly hungry bunch. But when their trouble they arrived in time to appease their sharpened appetites at a real country dinner.

A Real County Newspaper

THE province of a local county newspaper is to give, as nearly as possible, all the news of the county in which it is published every week. To render such service to its subscribers it is necessary to maintain a corps of correspondents in all parts of the county. This is the plan followed by and the steadily growing circulation of this newspaper in Morrow county is the best evidence that the plan is a success. Take a look at page 5 of any issue of the HERALD and see for yourself if the above statement is not true. If you want ALL THE COUNTY NEWS every week in the year

You Want The Herald

The price is $2.00 a year, $1.00 for 6 months and you have to subscribe for the Herald to get it. The HERALD is forced on nobody. We want only willing subscribers who want the paper because they like to read it and who are willing to pay for it because they think it is worth the price charged. If you are not now a subscriber or if your subscription has expired we will appreciate your check and order. Thank you.
