CORN COBS ARE DIET OF HUNGRY CHINESE

Oregon Nurse Writes That Misery Stalks Through North China.

That a steady diet of ground-up corn gobs and sweet potato vines is not conducive to an ideal physical condition is attested by Mins Murie Rustin, graduate nurse, well known in Oregon, who is now in charge of the Taylor Memorial hospital, under the manage ment of the American Presbyterian mission at Paotingfu, China

In a letter written by Miss Rustin Tess than eight weeks ago to the memhers of the Sangrael Christian En deavor noclety of the First Presbyterian church in Portland, Miss Rustin tells of the appalling conditions throughout North China, where 45, 000,000 men, women and children are confronted with starvation and where 15,000 are dying daily. Miss Rustin has been at Paotingfu for about three years and for many months past, like all other mission attaches and relief workers in China, has been concentrating all efforts on the task of lessening the suffering of the famine victims.

While Paotingfu is on the outskirts of the great drouth-ruthed famine district, just south of Pekin, Miss Rustin writes that even there all the missions and relief stations are literally swamped with the supplications of many thousand men, women and children who are half-clad in thin rags, weak from undernourishment and struggling desperately to keep alive on roots, bark or anything that offers sustenance. The situation in the heart of the famine section, she says, is simply beyond the imagination.

"We are doing all we can," writes Miss Rustin, "here in our hospital trying to build up the weakened bodies of famine sufferers who come to us in frightful condition. We are getting patients who have been trying to live on ground-up corn cobs and sweet po tato vines. We have all been asked to give until it hurts, and now that it has grown so cold we do not dure to I could get in and coming out it was the same way. They are so hungry and cold they are desperate. Personally I have gone without $3 worth of milk a month that I used to use, do not eat butter at all and have only eaten bread once a day for the last three months, in order to give to the famine poor. Through this personal sacrifice I have the joy of knowing that three girls who might have been sold have been saved from a life of shame and misery and that one man will be kept alive for five months.

State Manager J. J. Handasker, in charge of the executive work for Oregon for the combined China-Near East campaign, 606 Stock Eachange building, Portland, says the situation is no less serious in the mur cast than th China, and liberal funds must be raised for both causes if wholesale death by starvation is to be provented. or even tenamed.

Family of Selen Die Together.

Decause they could no longer stand the anonaes of marcatton, a Chinese trinily of soven committed saields. The father and mother first bound their tive children torrether, then inshed themself in to the children, and all loaped into a river. The seven budles, all bound together, ware soon by L. V. Lewis of Portland, who recently reterned from the famine section in North China.

"With 45,000,000 starving, the situation is a colossal tragedy," said Mr. Lewis, "and rather than see their children suffer any longer, parents all through the faming lands are killing their little ones and then themselves. There are millions of gavat, emaciated, half-naked men, women and children roaming the famine famile, chewing roots and bark, and hanging tenacloundy to life, in the effort to pull through until spring. The relief orgamirations are struggling against the overwhelming situation, and are saving some of those on the edge of the great famine district. Surely every man, woman and child in Oregon will want to give somothing towards the China Famine Fund."

Spreading over North China, with the speed of a hurricans, is a horrible calamity of suffering and starvation. of pestilence and death-all due to the most terrible famine the world has ever known. The following cable from Admiral Tsai Ting Kan, paints the Cortificate No. 204, A. B. Moses graceome picture
