LABOR RULES BURDEN COSTS OF R. R. SERVICE

U. S. Railroad Labor Board Asked to Stop Payments for Work Not Done.

WOULD SAVE $300,000,000

Lower Cost of Service Can Be Secured Only by Cutting Expense, Atterbury Says.

Urging emergency action by the United States Railroad Labor Board to end "gross waste and inefficiency" prevailing under present working rules and conditions, General W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, in a statement to the board in session at Chicago said in Many railroads are not now earning. and with present operating costs and traffic have no prospect of earning. even their bare operating expenses. leaving them without any net return and unable to meet their fixed charges. The emergency presented can be met this waste would reduce rallway operating expenses at least $300,000,000. It would be far better to save this sum by restoring conditions of efficient and economical operation than to reduce

We believe that as the wages of railroad employees were the last to go up they should also be the last to come down, but we do insist that for an ample wage an honest day's work shall be given. The public has the right to insist that this must be obtained.

The public has also the right to expect that the railway executives, with co-operation of the regulatory hodies and the employees, will as rapidly as possible reduce the cost of railway operation so as to insure eventual-by a reduction in rates. Ultimately a and particularly bounded and de-rendjustment of basic wages will be scribed as hereinafter and forch-required. Meantime it is to the inter-ests of all concerned, including labor, assessed for the year 1914 to the My a reduction in rates. The Labor Board can prevent this catastrophe by declaring that the National agreements, rules and working canditions coming over from the war and Arvid Haryu, Southeast quarter of Section 33, Tp. 6 S., entastrophe by declaring that the Na-question of reasonable and economical rules and working conditions shall be remanded to negotiations between each conter and its own emplayees; and that as the lassis for such negotiations, the aureements, rules, and working conditions in effect on each railread as of December 31, 1917, shall be re-exablished.

If the board will do this, the Labor Committee of the Association of Rullway Executives will urge upon every railread company a party to Decision No. 2. that no proposed for the reduction of basic warms shall be nade within the next succeeding ninety days. This will afford an opporfunity to gauge the economies which can be accomplished through more efficient rules and working conditions. also will afford additional time.

equitable. The War Labor Board declared that the war period was un interregnum, to be used notitier by employer nor employee for the purpose of bettering or impairing the position of either. To perperuate as the normal rule and working conditions on the rallreads, the extraordinary provisions of the war period in a distinct violation of all promises. The war has now been over more than tire years. The time has come when, if the rallways are to be efficiently and economically operated, in accordance with the provisions of the Transportation act, normal conditions of employment and or working conditions must be restored and increased officiency of labor be secured.
