OWN GAS KILLS HIM

Chemist Commits Suicide Under Dramatic Circumstances.

Pays All Debts and From Remaining Stock of Chemicals Mixes Compound to Generate Gas.

London.—Composing his own lethal gas, Constantine De Mereschewsky, a chemist and botanist of international repute, former professor in the University of Petrograd, committed suicide in a Geneva hotel under dramatic circumstances.

Mereschewsky escaped from Russia with a small fortune, which was exhausted after two years' residence in Geneva, where he continued his research work and wrote a number of scientific books. When his funds were gone he was too proud to appeal for help, though in view of his high standing he could have obtained a handsome subsidy to pursue his studies from scientific associations in America, France and England had he stooped to solicit aid.

He preferred to die. He scrupulously paid all his debts and then from his remaining stock of chemicals mixed a special composition which he poured into a receptacle, to which he attached a tube.

At the other end of the tube was a mask which he placed over his face, and then binding himself to the bed released the gas which was given off from the composition. He died from asphyxiation. Foremen had to wear smother helmets to remove the body from the room.

26,809 ALIENS IN SHANGHAI

Entire Population Estimated at More Than 2,000,000—No Census of City Taken.

Shanghai.—A quinquennial census taken in October in the French concession and the international settlement gives Shanghai a foreign population of 26,809, according to official returns.

A census of the entire city, native and foreign, has never been taken, but careful estimates place the population at more than 2,000,000.

The international settlement has a foreign population of 23,907 and the French concession 2,902. In the two concessions the Japanese lead in point of numbers with 19,221. British are second with 6,583, Americans third, 2,813, and Russians fourth, 1,292. There are 843 Frenchmen in the two districts.

The international settlement has 73 known different nationalities, with 18 unclassified nationalities. The German population, which in 1915 totaled 1,153, has dwindled to 289.

COMBINATIONS.

The following combinations may not appeal to everybody, but there will surely be one which will be worth while.

Chinese Chews.—Take one cupful each of dates, and walnuts chopped, one cupful of sugar, three-fourths of a cupful of flour (pastry), one teaspoonful of baking powder, two eggs, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Mix all the dry ingredients together; add the dates and nuts; stir in the eggs beaten well, and bake in as thin a sheet as can be spread. When done, cut in small squares and roll into balls. Roll in granulated sugar before serving.

Cheese Bundles.—Take neat strips of cheese cut half an inch thick, and roll each carefully in a thin slice of dried beef; lay on slices of well-buttered whole-wheat bread and bake in a hot oven six to eight minutes, or until the cheese melts and the bread browns. Garnish with parsley and sweet pickles and serve with hot chocolate for Sunday night lunch or supper.

Mashed Potatoes With Peanut Butter.—Boil and mash a half-dozen medium-sized potatoes; add two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half cupful of hot milk, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of peanut butter, one teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of white pepper. Blend a tablespoonful each of butter and peanut butter and spread over the top. The butter as seasoning may be divided and used as a top garnish. Brown in the oven.

Lemon Dumplings.—Mix the grated rind and juice of a lemon with one cupful of molasses, one-half cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter and one cupful of hot water, then add to this boiling mixture simple dumplings, using one egg, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one cupful of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt and milk to make a drop batter. Cover closely and boil 20 minutes, using care that the mixture does not burn.

Let me laugh when my heart is discouraged, Let me laugh when the thunder clouds roll, And the joy that I find to the earth as I sing Will return and give peace to my soul.

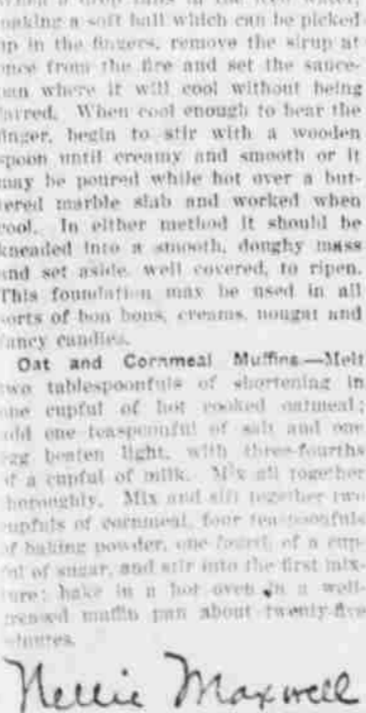

Let me laugh when I lose my possessions, Let me laugh at the grasping of men; For the heart that is strong will not suffer the wrong But will turn and reclaim them again. —George Liddell.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE FAMILY.

A candy that the children may be given in moderation may be made at home with little expense; flavors, fruits and color may be added to the variety.

Fondant.—This foundation is made by boiling, and it is wise to have a clear, bright day for making candy, and if inexperienced use but a pound of sugar at a time. To one pound of sugar add three-quarters of a cupful of boiling water and one-half teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Stir the sugar and water until well dissolved, then when beginning to boil do not stir or jar, to avoid granulation. Test by sking for water for dipping; this is the important moment in fondant making. When a drop falls in the cold water, making a soft ball which can be picked up in the fingers, remove the syrup at once from the fire and set the saucepan where it will cool without being stirred. When cool enough to bear the finger, begin to stir with a wooden spoon until creamy and smooth or it may be poured while hot over a buttered marble slab and worked when cool. In either method it should be kneaded into a smooth, doughy mass and set aside, well covered, to ripen. This foundation may be used in all sorts of bonbons, creams, nougat and fancy candies.

Oat and Cornmeal Muffins.—Melt two tablespoonfuls of shortening in one cupful of hot cooked oatmeal; add one teaspoonful of salt and one egg beaten light, with three-fourths of a cupful of milk. Mix all together thoroughly. Mix and stir together two cupfuls of oatmeal, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one fourth of a cupful of sugar, and stir into the first mixture; bake in a hot oven in a well-buttered muffin pan about twenty-five minutes.
