Stories of Great Scouts

By Elmo Scott Watson

ROCKY MOUNTAIN TOM AND THE "BLOODY ESPINOZAS"

Back in the sixties in the Colorado gold camps around Pike's Peak the warning "The Bloody Espinozas are coming!" struck more terror to the hearts of the miners than the dread cry of "Indians! Indians!" The Bloody Espinozas were two Mexicans, brothers. The older, Juan Espinoza, believed that he had a special mission to kill all Americans. He ambushed them in the daytime and crept upon them at night. His record of murders is said to have totaled 32.

In 1863 he killed two well-known prospectors of California Gulch, near Leadville. Their comrades vowed vengeance on the Espinozas, and after a long chase and a hard battle, they killed the youngest brother, Juan, escaped and the next year he was back in his old haunts in the Sangre de Cristo mountains robbing stage coaches and wagon trains and murdering settlers and miners. He took his revenge with him on these raids, and they grew so bold that a reward of $1,500 was offered for their capture, dead or alive.

At this time there was living at Fort Garland a little Irishman called Rocky Mountain Tom. Tom Tobin was his real name, and he was a close friend of Kit Carson. He was one of the best mountain trappers.

When the report of the Espinozas' latest murder was brought to the fort Tobin immediately volunteered to go after the bandits. Settling out alone, he took their trail and stuck with it, although it led into the wildest parts of the Sangre de Cristos. Late one evening he saw from a distance two men encamped under the shelter of a shelving rock above a little stream. Stalking the two bandits as he would wild animals, the scout crept closer and closer. He knew they could not be taken alive, and he dared not take the chance of missing his first shot. The Mexicans were crouched over a tiny flame warming their hands, but in the dim light they offered a poor target even for so good a marksman as Rocky Mountain Tom.

At last Juan Espinoza rose. He stretched both arms wide, forming with his body a perfect cross and presenting a target which loomed up plainly against the background of a sky aglow with the sunset. Tobin fired instantly and the Mexican murderer fell dead across his camp fire. The scout scrambled to his feet. The scout fired again, and the last of the Espinozas dropped dead.

A few days later Tobin walked into Fort Garland, carrying a sack, and demanded a reward of $1,500. The sack contained the heads of the Bloody Espinozas.

"Bonanza" Signifies Good Fortune. "Bonanza" is a Spanish word meaning "fair weather" or a "favoring wind." It is used in mining districts to signify an abundance of precious metal or rich ore. The miners of Comstock Lake, a wonderful gold and silver mine in Nevada which yielded 340 million dollars worth of ore in thirty years, first used "bonanza" in this way. The word is now also used to signify any good fortune or successful enterprise.

By virtue of an execution, Judgment, Order, Decree and Order of sale issued out of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me directed and dated the 19th day of September, 1921, upon a Judgment and Decree rendered and entered in said court on the 7th day of September, 1921, in favor of Henry Heppner Estate Incorporated, a Corporation, Plaintiff, and against Oscar R. Otto, Defendant, for the sum of $5428.97, and the further sum of $400.00, and the further sum of $15.00, costs and disbursements, and the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of the following described real property, to wit:

The South five and fifty one hundredths (5.51) feet of Lots Three (3) and Nine (9) and the North Twenty-four and seventy-seven hundredths (24.77) feet of Lots Four (4) and Seven (7) of Block Three (3), of the Original town of Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon.

Now Therefore, by virtue of said execution, Judgment, Order, Decree and Order of Sale and in compliance with the commands of said Writ, I will on Wednesday, the 12th day of October, 1921, at ten o'clock A. M., at the front door of the County Court House in Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon, sell at public auction (subject to redemption) to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the above named defendant had on the 25th day of May, 1920, the date of the mortgage herein foreclosed, or since that date had in and to the above described property, or any part thereof, to satisfy said Execution, Judgment, Order and Decree. Interest, costs and accruing costs.

GEORGE McDUFFEN, Sheriff of Morrow County, Oregon. Dated this 12th day of September, 1921.

Carrying On With the American Legion

The mayor of Wenatchee, Wash., the county sheriff and all his deputies are members of the local post of the Legion.

Dr. A. A. Van Dyke, St. Paul, Minn., member of the national executive committee, has been elected commander of the Minnesota department to succeed A. H. Vernon, Little Falls.

More than 100 movie stars, members of Hollywood, Cal., post of the American Legion, will attend the reunion of the Ninety-first division at Los Angeles, September 24 and 25.

At least 11 bands from Missouri will attend the national convention of the American Legion at Kansas City, October 30, 31 and November 1. St. Louis will send a band of 100 pieces.

More than one-eighth of the population of Radcliffe, Ia., is enrolled in the American Legion. The town has 106 service men out of a population of 800, every one of whom belongs to the local post.

To teach children proper love and respect for Old Glory, state school leaders and a committee from the American Legion are writing a simple, impressive ceremony to be followed in every school room.

When violence was threatened against Mrs. Ida Crouch Hazlett, socialist speaker at Des Moines, Ia., recently, a group of American Legion men seized her and carried her to a police station for protection. Her sympathizers at first believed she was being kidnaped.

A meat cutter is the commander, a railroad switchman the vice commander and a bank clerk the adjutant of the American Legion post at Harlowton, Mont., which has the largest percentage of potential membership in the state. In a village of 2,500, the post has a 32-piece band.

Citizens of Ephrata, Wash., had been discussing a city park for years. One Sunday morning the local post of the American Legion turned out in force with wagons, shovels, rakes and picks and before the church bells rang had ground prepared for the park. The citizens will complete the work and stop discussions.

President Harding's call for a world conference on disarmament this fall is expected by officials in charge of the third annual national convention of the American Legion at Kansas City, October 30, 31, and November 1, to insure the presence of a number of distinguished foreign generals at the Legion convention.

There is no railroad, no post office, not even a town. But there is a thriving post of the American Legion in a farming locality 15 miles northwest of Palge, N. D. The men meet every week in a different farm house to hold socials and dances. The farmers of the area are furnishing the Legion posts with funds to erect a community house.

Following representations made to the United States Civil Service commission by the American Legion, disabled veterans of the World war who have undergone training by the federal board for vocational education will be allowed to enter examinations for any government position for which they have been trained if application is made within 90 days after completion of training.

Admiral Sir David Beatty, first sea lord of Great Britain, will attend the American Legion convention in Kansas City, Oct. 30, 31, and Nov. 1, according to a cable received by the convention committee from Ambassador Harvey in London. Admiral Beatty, fifty years old, is called the "infant prodigy" of England's naval forces. He was the youngest captain and the youngest admiral.

To jog the memories of members of congress deliberating on legislation for the disabled service men of America, James C. Russell, member of Blackhawk post, the American Legion, Chicago, recently sent a picture postcard to all of them. It showed a soldier, severely wounded in action near St. Souplet, France, Oct. 19, 1918, being helped from the battlefield by two hospital corps men, and smiling.

Wherever there are Americans, there is a baseball diamond. It cost the Ketchikan (Alaska) post of the American Legion $3,500 to construct a ball diamond upon which teams could play between the Alaska rains. Games start at six o'clock in the evening, and continue until midnight. A Legion baseball team recently spent 24 hours on a gas boat to go from Sitka to Juneau to play a game on schedule.

Seattle, Wash., where the Bolsheviks tried out their first American soviet government and met Ole Hanson, now is in the hands of the American Legion. The state's lieutenant governor, the mayor of the city, the attorney general, the prosecuting attorney and two city councilmen are members of Raintier Noble post of the Legion. The city's police force like wise is well represented in the post membership.

SHORT BOX COAT FOR FALL

The short box coat bids fair to be a popular style among the younger women this fall, for it accentuates the youthfulness of the figure. Here is shown a model in navy twill with plaited skirt and box coat.

ALL STYLES IN WHITE HATS

Trim Sailor With Ribbon Trimming Vies With Blossom Decorated Chapeau That Is Larger.

With the great vogue for all white it is natural this should be popular for felt hats, and they are with us from the trim sailor with ribbon trimming to the blossom-trimmed hat of larger proportions. The dullness and drabness of a plain white felt is more apt to be relieved, however, by a large wax flower, a pond lily, or gardenia, by silk fringe arranged in some novel cascade or bobochon. The flower trimming is strong on all felts, and unusual flower trimming at that, hydrogen, dandelion, nasturtium, wild oats, leucured foliage and so on. Some felt hats have felt flowers; one, a very soft black felt, has an odd combination of little green velvet apples, pink silk apple blossoms, and green leaves painted upon the felt itself.

But if one hat in ten is white, eight of the others are gray. The gray vogue that is dying so hard has had a startling consequence in the gray felt hat. It is to be found in those soft little rolled hats, close fitting and demure, that frame the faces of our bobbed-hair sisters, little hats with a saucy bunch of waxed blossoms laid on one side, three smaller leucured quills thrust through a fold of the felt, or luscinating bunches of coque feathers brushing the wearer's cheek on one or both sides.

Black, brown or dark green, and possibly bright green will be the colors for felts for later wear. The cloche is again a favorite, very broad of brim and rounded of crown. The felt brim is bound with ribbon, and a twist of ribbon with perhaps a small bow encircles the base of the crown. Smart is a Maria Gny shape of black velvet with the under side of the brim lined with cyclamen velvet, a fold of cyclamen velvet twisted about the base of the crown. The new shapes are large rather than small—the broad, slightly drooping brims shading the face thoroughly.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Flame-colored fabrics and all the shades of red are smart for evening.

The French heel has taken on straighter lines and, like the Cuban heel, is now covered in leather.

Transparent sleeves of a figured fabric are used in frocks of dark blue serge or poiret twill or taffeta.

Most of the large hats run up softly at the back, and there is naturally a corresponding tendency to droop slightly at the sides.

Biscuit and gold is a color combination which often is seen in smart circles. If a third color note is desired, olive blends well.

A new trimming that takes the place of fur, is of soft silk spikes of brown, and is so like soft, weepy, shiny seaweed that it has been given that name.

The high collar at the back of the dress is a feature of the latest models, and many of the long lines of the one-piece dresses are accentuated with half-inch wide pipings of color or white.

Black stripes in plaid ginghams make clever designs and are especially attractive when combined with yellow shades. Vivid green and lavender with black create delightful effects, and there are many tiny pin-checks sponsored by fashionable women.

Soak one cup of tapioca until soft and then cook until clear. When clear, add the well-beaten yolks of four eggs and sweeten to taste. Cook for three minutes, dissolve two tablespoons of gelatin in one-half cup of boiling water and cool by adding to one cup of cold water. As soon as it begins to set, beat in with the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs. When sufficiently fluffy, beat in the tapioca and the juice of three lemons. Pour into a mold or molds and set away to harden.

The Small Envelope Purse. A small envelope purse is of black and white beaded strips worked in diagonal style. The fastening is of bright green enamel.

Cathedral of Mud and Wood. Of the world's cathedrals, probably the most curious is that which crowns a hill in Uganda. In appearance it resembles nothing so much as a mountain of grass, although on closer inspection one is able to see that mud and wood have been extensively employed. The structure can accommodate 4,000 persons. Few Can Afford Gloomy Face. It is natural to love the sunshine of life and to dread its shadows and storms. How much does this trait in human nature affect us in our business career? It has indeed so much to do with it that the only man who can really afford a sad countenance is the one whose fortune is already made and safely salted away in government bonds.—Exchange.
