CECIL

Mr. and Mrs. A. Henriksen, of Willow creek ranch, who have been visiting friends in Portland returned home Saturday with a new Hudson Super six.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hardesty and family, of Morgan, and also Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Streeter and family, of Cecil, spent Sunday at the Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, of Morgan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs at the Last Camp Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Oral Henriksen and daughter.

The Cecil writer was the party who informed the Heppner papers that it was Mankin Bros., of Ione, who had bought the 1900 acres of wheat land from J. W. Osborn recently. With all due apologies to Mankin Bros., we are at time of writing asked to state it was Halferty Bros., of Morgan, who are the purchasers and not Mankin Bros., as the writer was informed last week.

Drs. Kistner, Jones and Joyce, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd at Butterby Flats. These medicine men declared that the mayor had the game well trained on his land, not a bird was seen during the visit of these noted shooters, who, nevertheless enjoyed the tramp on Butterby Flats.

Jack Hynd made a business trip to Boardman Thursday, going from there to the county seat.

Messrs McPherson and Frazer, of Portland, were visiting in Cecil on Thursday and thoroughly enjoyed their days sport with Herb Hynd at Butterby Flats, hunting for the game which the doctors missed earlier in the week, but which soon were bagged by Mike and Pat.

A large band of sheep belonging to Mrs. Pat Farley, of The Willows, passed through Cecil Sunday.

Babe Montague and George Shane, of Arlington were doing business in the Cecil vicinity Saturday.

Otto Lindstrom and son, Albert, made a short stay in Cecil Saturday before leaving for Arlington.

George A. Melton, of The Lookout, made a trip to the County seat Saturday and his brother Ed also took in the big sights of Ione during the week.

J. E. Crabtree, of Dotheboys Hill, made a trip to Heppner Friday. J. E. is still under the doctor's care with his wrist which was injured sometime ago.

Charley Blackert, who has been working for A. Henriksen for several months, left Wednesday for Kelloo, Idaho, where he will visit with his sister for some time.

Miss Flossie Stender who is a student at Heppner high school, spent the week-end with her brothers at Seldonsen ranch.

W. G. Palmateer returned to Windybrook Sunday and is busy looking for Walter Pope, whom he lost in Oregon City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Henriksen and daughter left Cecil Tuesday for their Hamilton ranch home above Heppner where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Jack Hynd, of Butterby Flats, left Tuesday on the local for Heppner where she will visit her daughter, Miss Violet, who is a student in Heppner high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henriksen, of Strawberry ranch, and also Mr. and Mrs. A. Henriksen, of Willow creek ranch, were visiting at Butterby Flats Sunday.

Mrs. Weltha Combest, of Cecil, left Friday for Fourmile to visit her friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Montague, of Eightmile, were visiting with J. W. Osborn Friday.

G. FRANZEN, Prop.

When food gets scarce does the hen stop scratching?
No, indeed, she scratches a darn site harder.

When times are hard and no money in sight, Shall we go to sleep or continue the fight?
We'll take a lesson from the hen and work the harder brother,
We'll all pull together and help one another.
And when the clouds have rolled away and the sky again is clear,
We'll scratch some more and cast away all thoughts of this bad year.

Then our record will be clear, our credit will be good and the horrors of war and the deflation period will be forgotten.
