

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

J. H. Inus, of Wells Springs, is in town this week attracted hither by the John Day trial.

Ralph Finley who is making a success of farming north of the base line, with Mrs. Finley is in town this week.

Dwight Misener, prominent wheat grower of Ione, is here taking in the John Day trial while his men are finishing putting in his fall crop.

John Brozman, secretary-treasurer of the Fivemile Horse & Cattle Raisers' association, was in town Monday getting some stationery printed for that organization.

Frank Denison and R. J. Carner, of Spray, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boymer, and Mr. and Mrs. Newt Whetstone and Andrew Rood sr. were passengers to Portland this morning bound for the big stock show.

Miss Grace Putnam, of Spray, was a west bound passenger going out this morning.

Kenneth Evans, auditor for the Pai Pojey hotels, left for The Dalles this morning after a few days spent here on business.

E. Bender and family returned from an auto trip to Portland Monday evening.

A. W. Wheelhouse and Charles weatherford, of Arlington, drove up this morning and registered at the Patrick.

Owing to practically a cash demand by wholesale houses, after November 8th, without any exceptions our business will be conducted on a cash basis.

W. M. HAYLOR, 28-29

W. B. Barratt, state highway commissioner, returned from Portland Saturday evening after attending the recent meeting of the board when the contract was let for putting down the macadam on the Lexington-Heppner section of the highway.

LOST—White shepherd dog (female) with studded collar. NOLLY FRANK SWAGGART, Lena, Oregon. Phone 2724—Adv. 28-29, pd.

FOR SALE—Canned red and black raspberries in No. 1 cans at 25 cents a can.

O. C. DUNTON, 11pd C. L. Sweek returned from a trip to Monument and Canyon City Tuesday evening and reports pretty frosty weather in Grant county.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Scott, of Corvallis, are here visiting their son, Ben W. Scott, and like the warm sunshine and blue skies of eastern Oregon so well that they will probably spend the winter here.

A. L. Straight, who is opening up a new ranch in the Juniper canyon country, was a Heppner visitor yesterday.

Frank Wilkinson, who purchased half of the old Hager ranch on upper Willow creek last summer from Minor & Matlock, was a pleasant caller Monday evening.

Dan P. Smythe, Pendleton attorney and stockman, is here this week an interested party in the John Day case.

M. C. Martin, who farms for Jeff Jones & Sons was in town Monday morning and dropped around at this office long enough to take advantage of bargain week.

After reading a couple of sample copies of the Herald, Guy Shaw broke into the sanctum the other day with a big dollar in his fist and a twinkle in his eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor, of near Ione, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor.

Jess Barton, connected with the Columbia Basin Wool Warehouse Co., arrived in this city from Condon Sunday afternoon.

Hon. G. W. Phelps, circuit judge, and Jack Beckwith, court reporter, arrived from Pendleton Sunday evening for the John Day district term of court.

Jim Carty is in town this week from Juniper canyon, courting on the John Day case.

Mrs. Edith M. Rhinehart, of John Day, was here several days during the week visiting the Degree of Honor lodges in this county, of which she is a high official.

Mrs. Mary Bartholomew returned Thursday from a three weeks' visit at Portland.

B. F. Sorenson, well known cattleman, went to Ione Friday morning on a business visit.

Mrs. J. W. Stevens, of near Hardman, accompanied by her very charming little daughter, was in the city Wednesday on a shopping trip.

Paul Webb and family, Nat Webb and their mother, Mrs. Webb, returned to their home in Walla Walla Friday after several days spent visiting with old Morrow county friends.

George V. Noble, a former Heppner boy, but for 15 years a resident on the Black Rock desert in Nevada, was here for a day or two during the week visiting his mother and brother, Mayor E. G. Noble. Mr. Noble has closed out his interests in Nevada and has located at The Dalles where he expects to make his future home.

H. F. Launtz, who handles the throttle on the Heppner flyer bulgine was showing a check for $18 Monday morning which he had just received in payment of the first year's dividend on $300 worth of stock he holds in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Cooperative Bank (Cleveland, Ohio). The bank, which was opened November 1, 1920, with a capital stock of $1,100,000 now has deposits of $12,000,000 and is going strong.

SOIL ANALYSIS NOT FEASIBLE

Samples of Oregon soils taken according to directions will be examined and if possible identified as to type, but it is not feasible to make complete analyses of the many samples taken irregularly and sent to the state college experiment station.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Glasgow and E. W. Grim were over from Irrigon last Wednesday and Thursday, Mr. Glasgow being a member of the county budget committee, which met with the county court to go over the county budget for the coming year.

George Aiken went to Portland Friday on a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. W. G. McCarty went to The Dalles Friday to visit her son, "Kit" McCarty and his family.

IRRIGON

The Halloween Carnival given by the Irrigon school carnival company proved a great success. Financially it was more than could have been expected. A large crowd of Boardman people motored to Irrigon for the occasion and we sure appreciate their attendance and our people should turn out to Boardman affairs when ever it is possible.

The past week has been very busy one about Irrigon. The association has been loading several cars of hay daily of choice grades for the Atlantic coast business.

The Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. has decided they will install the scales and the farm bureau withdrew their application for lease of the company right-of-way for the purpose of putting in scales.

Mr. E. E. Faulk, of Portland, spent a few days at Glasgows last week on his way back from visiting his son at Boise, Idaho.

Mr. Crawford, general manager of the Tum-A-Lum company was in Irrigon Monday going over the business situation here with the local manager, Mr. Wait.

The Farm Bureau has had George Allen prune the hedge around the railroad park and it is looking considerable better.

The talk by Prof. Jamieson, H. K. Dean and our county agent Friday on dairy rations had a good turn out and everybody reports having gained some knowledge on the dairy business.

not getting their money's worth by paying a county agent, should be dealt with severely. Mr. Calkins is the best County agent in the state and we shall do our part to keep him on the job.

The writer is in receipt of a letter from S. H. Boardman, of Boardman calling our attention to the Walla Walla-Umatilla cut-off and pointing out the many advantages this would bring to the state. Mr. Boardman is on the job and we are with him on this cut-off, first, last and all the time.

Mrs. N Seaman received a telegram Sunday from the Judge of Probate at Cheboygan, Michigan stating her step-mother had passed away during the night. Mrs. Seaman and daughter, Frieda, left on train 2 the following day for Cheboygan via the U. P. System to Omaha and then the C. N. W. and Michigan Central.

What is all this about the wedding bells we hear people talking about? Looks like something doing.

STAR THEATRE

Program for Nov. 9th to Nov. 13th Inclusive

Wednesday and Thursday:

Edith Story in "THE GOLDEN HOPE." A story of Desert Gold hunting. Also Comedy and Scenic

Friday

Alice Joyce in "COUSIN KATE." Also 11th episode of "Fighting Fate."

Saturday:

A special cast in "THE KILLER." A really big picture, one you will enjoy in spite of its name. Tod Sloan, the famous jockey, is a member of the cast. Also Pathe Review.

Sunday:

Barbara Castleton in "THE BRANDING IRON." From the novel by the same name by Katherine Newlin Burt. As here pictured it is one of the sensational and inspirational dramas of the screen. Excellent acting. Beautiful scenery. Also Comedy.

Sunday and Monday, Nov. 27th and 28th: 'DANGEROUS CURVE AHEAD' Sunday and Monday, December 11th and 12th: "THE OLD NEST."

November! Winter!

OVERCOATS!!

Yes it is time for you to think of your winter overcoat. We have thought long ago about your needs and have a splendid showing of new Overcoats ready for you.

Belted and Half Belted, Raglan and Set-in Sleeves, including the beautiful big ulster coat with the immense pockets, so extensively advertised for this season.

Prices

$16.50---$37.50

100 per cent Virgin All Wool Overcoat $25.00

Minor & Company

Red Cross Roll Call

November 11-22

Do you want to help Ex-Service Men and Their Families; Your Fellow Countryman in Need-- Then

Join the Red Cross

All that is needed A Heart and a Dollar W. O. LINGSTONE, County Chairman