You Can Be Both Tired and Happy

Tired after a day's hard work in the house and happy because you have the most improved washing machine, kitchen range and complete set of kitchen utensils in your house.

If you are not completely equipped with the HARDWARE NECESSITIES of life, it will only take us about a minute to prove to you that you are the loser—not only in dollars and cents, but in the fact that you are losing a whole lot of satisfaction.

Carrying On With the American Legion

Daniel Chester French, sculptor, who created "The Minute Man at Concord," has been selected to design the memorial for Massachusetts dead in the World war which is to be erected somewhere along the American sector in France. Henry Bacon, designer of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., will be associated with him.

The Community House at Camp Custer, Mich., purchased by a Chicago company for $30,000, has been repurchased by the state of Michigan and will be presented to the American Legion for use as a hospital for sick and disabled veterans. The building will be improved at the expense of the state.

General Lafayette post of the American Legion, composed of New York City policemen, has mortgaged its Long Island clubhouse for $1,000, the money to be used in helping unemployed veterans. The policemen-Legionnaires have pledged themselves to canvass their beats for jobs for their unfortunate "buddies."

"The Book of Misery" containing thousands of news-clippings and letters describing the plight of America's World war veterans in the recent period of unemployment will be presented to Congress by the Legion as documentary evidence in favor of relief for ex-service men.

Unemployed ex-service men sleeping in Bryant Park, New York, were awakened one recent midnight by the sound of a bugle mess call. Seven hundred of the unfortunate men lined up for "chow." A committee representing the George Dahlbender Post of the American Legion, led the men to a restaurant where each was fed at the expense of the Legion post.

The American Legion has asked the shipping board to permit the use of the giant liner Livathan as a temporary shelter for jobless ex-service men. The liner has been idle at the Hoboken army docks for several months. During the war it transported 140,000 American troops to France.

Charles W. Seymour, of Hartford, Conn., tendered his resignation as state senator following his election to the commandership of the American Legion in Connecticut. Officers of the Legion cannot hold public office which is elective.

A twenty-acre park, known as "American Legion Park" has been dedicated by the city of Melrose, Minn., to the men of the city who were in service during the World war. The Melrose Legionnaires have established a children's playgrounds, a tourists' camping grounds and a baseball diamond.

Ex-soldiers and marines, members of the American Legion, were the heroes in the rescue work which followed the explosion of a tank containing 600,000 cubic feet of ammonia fumes in New York City. One of the former service men is accredited with having rescued ten persons from a tenement which had become filled with the fumes.

A "party" which is said to have cost $10,000 was given by L. Gordon Hamersley, who served as a lieutenant in the Sixth Field artillery of the First division, at his estate near Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson. The guests were disabled soldiers of the First division and members of the Jeff Feigl post of the American Legion.

Emergency officers of the army disabled during the war "don't belong" on the retired list of the regular army. Secretary Weeks told officials of the American Legion, who are fostering a plan for the retirement on retirement pay of the emergency officers of the World war.

The first woman to hold the position of adjutant of a state department of the American Legion is Miss Honora H. Gittings, of California. Miss Gittings served during the war as a yeomanette in the navy. She is acting adjutant of the California department.

Failure to doff his hat when the funeral cortege of an American soldier passed, caused Adam Kosloski to lose his job as constable at Sauk Rapids, Minn. A complaint against Kosloski was filed by members of the American Legion.

Five hundred deaf and dumb children of New York attended a showing of the film-play, "The Man Without a Country," as guests of the American Legion. Each child wrote an essay on Americanism based on impressions of the play.

Five hundred unemployed veterans of the World war in New York were given employment as movie supers in the studios at Mamaroneck, Long Island.

The Mark-Hamilton post of the American Legion at Minneapolis is organizing its own band, orchestra, glee club, vaudeville team and dramatic company.

Nashvank, Minn., has turned over an abandoned school building to the American Legion for a club house. The building will be remodeled.

Buy With Your Eyes Open

When you buy a piano you don't make a selection on guesswork.

You want to see it. You want to hear it played.

Above all, you want a piano that you know by name. You want to buy it from a store you know.

Buying a piano is, for most folks, an event.

Buying food, wearing apparel and household needs is an everyday occurrence.

But, there is no reason why you should not get the same full value for your money. You can.

Good clothes, good tools, good shoes, good soap are advertised by the manufacturer because he MAKES them good.

Your merchant here has these goods. He believes in them. He backs up his faith by advertising them.

Read the advertisements. They keep you abreast of the times. They show you how to better your surroundings and yourself. They teach you how to save money and get the most out of what you spend.
