

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Biddle went to Ione Monday on the flyer.

F. A. McMenamin went to Portland Sunday on a business trip.

Miss Bristow went to Ione Sunday to spend the day with friends.

M. L. Case was a passenger for Ione Sunday morning.

Charles Thomson went out Sunday morning bound for Baker on a business trip.

Miss Edith Swick, of Hood River, who is teaching at Rhea this winter, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her cousin, Mrs. Del Clabaugh, returning to her school work Sunday morning.

William Wilson, who was taken to Portland a couple of weeks ago for medical aid, was operated on at the Portland Surgical Hospital and is reported to be improving rapidly.

H. A. Emery, who went to Nampa Idaho to reside about a year ago, is returning to good, old Heppner.

Mrs. Wingate left Sunday morning for Hood River for a few day's visit before going to Portland.

Miss Gwendolyn Darbee has returned from Portland where she was snow bound for several days after the big storm.

Miss Margaret Crawford returned to her school work at Morgan Sunday after spending the Thanksgiving holidays at her home here.

O. C. Dunton and family spent Thanksgiving at the Frank Winard home on Balm Fork.

Pete Prophet, well known merchant of Hardman, was a business visitor here Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer of this city, were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason at Ione.

R. H. Lane, of Lexington, came in Thursday accompanying his brother-in-law, Clay Phillips, who is in the hospital here.

Chas. D. Sennett and Mrs. Missouri Jordan were in town Saturday looking after some legal matters in which Mrs. Jordan is interested.

Wm. Hill, stockman of the Parkers Mill country, came in Friday. He says the snow is all gone at the mill but he came through a bad storm on the flat coming in Friday.

The Herald acknowledges receipt of a copy of the unabridged edition of the Oregon election laws through the courtesy of Sam A. Koser, secretary of state.

Clay Phillips, of Lexington, was operated on at the Heppner Surgical Hospital by Dr. A. D. McMurdo, Friday evening and at this writing is reported to be on the mend.

Mrs. Frank Winard, of Balm Fork, is at the home of her brother, O. C. Dunton, recovering from an operation for the removal of her tonsils to which she submitted last Friday.

W. G. McKern is here from the Hermiton country looking for a location. Mr. McKern is troubled with asthma and believes in a frequent change of altitude as the best means of combating the trouble.

Mrs. William Hughes, one of the pioneer women of this county, now living in Portland, who has been here for some time visiting her son Percy Hughes and other relatives and friends, returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gay, of Wasco, went out on Sunday's train after being detained here for several days by the storm. They were called to Monument some time ago to attend the funeral of Lawrence Swick, who was Mrs. Gay's father.

A. J. Fritz, who practices law at Arlington came over to spend Thanksgiving day with Heppner friends, remaining for a few days to look after business matters. Mr. Fritz says they had about twenty inches of snow at Arlington during the storm but weather was not cold. Geese are again plentiful on the river since the snow left the grain fields and hunting should be good for awhile.

O. C. Dunton and family expect to remove to Portland about December 1st where he has accepted a position with a well known real estate firm of that city. Mr. Dunton, who returned from Portland recently, says that property of all kinds is moving rapidly and at good prices under the stimulus of the 1925 fair which Portland now feels to be assured.

W. T. Matlock returned from Portland Friday evening where he was snow bound for several days. He returned via Tacoma and Paces, leaving Portland Monday and reaching Heppner Friday evening, stopping off at Nehalem for a day while enroute. Mr. Matlock says it may take two or three weeks to open the O. W. R. & N. line for trains and the Columbia River highway will probably be closed to travel for several months.

J. S. Baldwin was a Sunday visitor in town from Lexington.

George Sperry was a passenger to Ione Monday morning, going down to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Charles Sperry.

Rev. Livingstone went to Ione Monday morning, going down to conduct the service at the funeral of Mrs. C. B. Sperry.

John Kilkenny returned from Portland Sunday evening, coming in on the first train to come through from Portland over the O. W. R. & N. since the storm blockade.

Mr. and Mrs. Wingate, well known stock growers of the Monument country, were visitors in Heppner over the Thanksgiving holiday.

The Elks gave another of their enjoyable dances Wednesday evening at which about 50 members of the order and their ladies were present. It was said to have been one of the best dances of the season.

Good dairy cattle provide the best market for hay and farm grown roughage. Butter fat is bringing a good price while hay and other feeds are lower than for many years. In addition the fertility of the soil is maintained by this practice.—O. A. C. Experiment Station.

Thanksgiving was a quiet one in Heppner, most people preferring to remain quietly at home rather than dance the slush covered streets.

Hotel Patrick was filled to capacity with snow bound guests over the week end, but most of them got away Wednesday morning when the first train since Saturday pulled out.

Mrs. Fred Farrier has returned from an extended visit with friends in Oklahoma. She was detained at Pendleton for several days on account of the snow blockade on the railroads.

Wild geese were reported numerous on the stubble fields of the Eight-mile country during the week and residents of that section helped themselves to the makings of fine Thanksgiving roasts.

Dillard French, well known catleman of the Gurdane district and president of the Five Mile Cattle & Horse Raisers association, was a business visitor in the city during the week.

J. W. Beymer returned from a business trip to Baker Wednesday evening, coming in on the first train to arrive from the main line. Mr. Beymer reports only light snowfall. Baker, most of it having disappeared when he left.

The American Legion dance given at the pavilion Thanksgiving night was a great success, a large crowd being present and the music of the quality that pleases. The Legion boys have the knack of making their functions go over big.

W. W. Smead has returned from Portland where he had charge of the Morrow county exhibit at the International Livestock Exposition. He reports the show a big success this year and an established institution that Portland and the entire northwest may well be proud of.

R. T. Jackson, of Portland, connected with the U. S. Biological survey, was here several days last week having come to cooperate with County Agent Calkins in a rabbit poisoning campaign. The storm interfered with the campaign and at this writing no definite information is at hand as to the success of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Guyer, of Corvallis, who have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Calkins for a couple of months, left for their home Saturday morning. While here, Mr. Guyer, who is a contractor and builder, had charge of the erection of Mr. Calkins' cozy new bungalow on Chase street. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins are getting settled in their new home this week.

H. F. Launtz, who drives the Heppner branch locomotive as a matter of business and a Franklin as a matter of pleasure, says if the young couple who tried to borrow a ride in his car the other evening, but only succeeded in "flooding" the engine with gas, will come around he will show them how to operate the car before they take their next ride.

Henry Gay and his son, Walter, have returned from an extended trip through eastern Washington, their trip including Ritzville, Spokane and other points. Walter, who was in town Friday, says land values in that part of the country are higher than they are in Morrow county and he thinks the quality of the soil is not up to that of the Heppner country. On their way over they visited Lon Markham at Frowwater. Mr. Markham was formerly a resident of this county and frequently visits here.

FEDERATED AID SOCIETY WILL HOLD BAZAAR

The Ladies Aid Society of the Federated church will hold a bazaar in the parlors of the church Wednesday, December 7th beginning at 2:30 P. M. Needle work and cooked and uncooked foods will be on sale.—Adv.

WELL KNOWN IONE WOMAN PASSES

Mrs. C. B. Sperry, a well known and highly respected lady of Ione, died suddenly at her home in that town last Friday morning of heart trouble. She was in her usual health when stricken and the end came almost instantly.

Two sons and two daughters survive. Her husband passed away about two years ago.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at Ione.

HEPPNER PEOPLE LIKE NORTH BEACH

(Hwaco, Wash. Tribune.)

Mr. and Mrs. D. Clyde Wells, and little son Woodrow, of Heppner, Oregon, arrived Tuesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Purdin. Besides being friends of the Purdins when they lived at Heppner, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Purdin were also childhood friends in southern Oregon. This is their first visit to north beach and while the weather has been a little off for beach parties and other frills that go to make a pleasant visit here, yet they are enjoying themselves immensely and are wonderfully impressed with the country. It is not likely that it will be so long between visits here in the future.

JAL CURSETJI PAVRY

Jal Cursetji Pavry, first son of a high priest of the Parsees ever to come to this country, has entered Columbia university. He comes from one of the leading families of the Navsari priests, the followers in India of Zoroaster.

LORD STAMFORDHAM

A recent portrait of Lord Stamfordham, chief secretary to King George of England.

Valuable People.

The value of a single man or woman of open mind, independent judgment, and moral courage, who requires to be convinced and refuses to be enjined, is only concerned to be right and not afraid to be singular, deferring to reason but not to rank, true to their own self, and therefore no prize to any man—the value of such a man or woman, I say, is priceless; a million of such would better and regenerate the world.—Professor James Ward.

Foreign Customs.

In Sweden a physician cannot sue for his fee, while in Belgium a solicitor is in a similar position. By Chinese law, not only the doctor, but also the priest, the fortune-teller and clairvoyant are without legal remedy. All these debts are, however, looked upon as "debts of honor," and payment is rarely evaded.

STAR THEATRE

Program for Nov. 30 to Dec. 5 Inclusive

Wednesday and Thursday:

House Peters and Jane Novak in "ISOBEL." An epic of the Northland is "Isobel; or The Trail's End." One of the the most powerful and compelling romances James Oliver Curwood ever produced. Don't miss it. Also Another of Skipper's two reel comedies.

Friday:

Alice Joyce in "THE PREY." Miss Joyce at her best. Also 13th and 14th episodes of "Fighting Fate." We are running two episodes of the serial at this time to make up for the chapter skipped during the storm.

Saturday:

Sylvia Breamer in "THE LURE OF EGYPT." A very unusual production. Also Comedy

Sunday and Monday:

A special cast including Colleen Moore and Kathleen Kirkham in WHEN DAWN CAME. A big feature picture produced on a tremendous scale. When Dawn Came combines high class society drama, thrilling melodrama, a human drama of the slums, a beautiful love story, a tense drama of the underworld and a big spectacular historical production. A new process of coloring brings out the great beauty of the gorgeous settings perfectly.

While the general admission will be 20 and 30 cents, When Dawn Came is such an unusual picture, we are going to show it on Sunday and Monday, and will have 100 seats RESERVED at 40c.

Tickets will be on sale at Patterson's Drug Store.

NOTICE: The recent storm mixed up programmes all over the state so badly that it may be a week or ten days before we can absolutely count upon receiving our pictures the day before showing. For this reason we must advertise our programmes subject to change without notice. In any event we are here to please YOU and any complaint will be adjusted to your entire satisfaction, if made known to us.

WE WISH TO SAY THAT THIS WEEK'S LINE UP IS EXCEPTIONALLY FINE AND YOU WOULD BE WELL SATISFIED IN SEEING EVERY PICTURE

LEXINGTON NEWS NOTES

Mr. Hill, district clerk, has finished the school census for the year. The census places the number of boys and girls of school age in Lexington, at 184, an increase of 25 per cent over last year's record.

There are many improvements being made in Lexington. The congregational church has placed a concrete walk around its premises. A new lot has been built in front of the Odd Fellows lot on C street. The construction of Mr. Nordyke's fire proof garage and excavation for a state highway bridge is now in progress.

Social activities have been well attended so far this winter. Besides an occasional party or church social, there has been a pie social at the school house. This social netted the school $92.15.

Mrs. Carmichael was hostess at a banquet, given at her home November 16th, for the football squad.

The Freshmen of Lexington and Heppner met on the Lexington field November 17th in a football game. After an hour of good playing the teams emerged from the field with a 7 to 7 tie score.

The Lexington football team defeated the Grass Valley team 113 to 7 on the Lexington field.

The mothers of the members of the Lexington football team, tendered a banquet to the Grass Valley and Lexington teams on Friday, November 18th.

Lexington's last game is scheduled with Condon Thanksgiving day at Condon.

EXAMINATION FOR SECOND CLASS POSTMASTER

An open, competitive examination for the position of postmaster in the Heppner post office will be held January 24th, 1922 regarding which full information and necessary blanks may be secured by addressing the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. or by applying at the local post office, asking for Form 2241 for examination for second class postmaster.

Applicants must be between the ages of 25 and 65 years and must have been actual residents within the the delivery of the office for which application is made for at least two years.

The salary of the Heppner post office is $2300.00 a year.

Honey Bees. The working bee lives six months, the drone four months and the female bee four years.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of an execution and order of sale duly issued by the clerk of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Morrow on the 18th day of September, 1921, in a certain suit in said County and State, wherein, Missouri Jordan, plaintiff recovered judgement against R. N. Wade and May M. Wade, his wife, defendants, for the sum of $500.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 8th day of November 1919, and the further sum of $14.93 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 28th day of February, 1921, and the further sum of $75.00 attorney's fees and the further sum of $52.70 costs, together with all costs and accruing costs, which judgement was rendered on the 14th day of June, 1920.

Notice is hereby given that I will on Saturday, the 10th day of December, 1921 at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day sell at public auction, at the front door of the County Court house, in Heppner Oregon, for cash in hand, the following described real property to wit: Lots three (3) and four (4) in Block three (3) Cluff's eighth addition to the Town of Ione, Oregon, and a certain piece or parcel of land, beginning at the Southwest Corner of Lot four (4) in Block three (3), Cluff's Eighth Addition to the City of Ione, Oregon, thence South 100 feet, thence East 100 feet, thence North 90 feet, thence West 100 feet, to the place of beginning, taken, levied upon as the property of the said defendants R. N. Wade and May M. Wade, his wife, being the property mortgaged by said defendants to secure the sums aforesaid, and ordered sold by the Court to satisfy the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgement, in favor of said Missouri Jordan, plaintiff against said defendants, R. N. Wade and May M. Wade, his wife, together with all costs that have accrued or may accrue in said matter.

GEO. McDUFFEE, Sheriff of Morrow County, Oregon. Dated this 24th day of October, 1921. First publication November 8th, 1921. Last publication, December 6th, 1921.

Mr. AUTO OWNER. Come in and examine the new "Nonok Bearing Bolts". Which will put an end to loose bearings in your car. Cars so equipped have been run over 70,000 miles without adjustment and still were running without a "knock". Think what bolts of this kind would mean in that old Ford. This is not only one of the latest but also one of the greatest discoveries in the perfection of automobile motors. When the bearing is once taken up it STAYS. Don't forget that old adage: "A stitch in time saves nine." COME IN TODAY AND LET US INSTALL A SET IN YOUR CAR. FELL Bros. ONE BLOCK EAST OF HOTEL PATRICK